

MIRROR
1992

The Mirror
1991-92

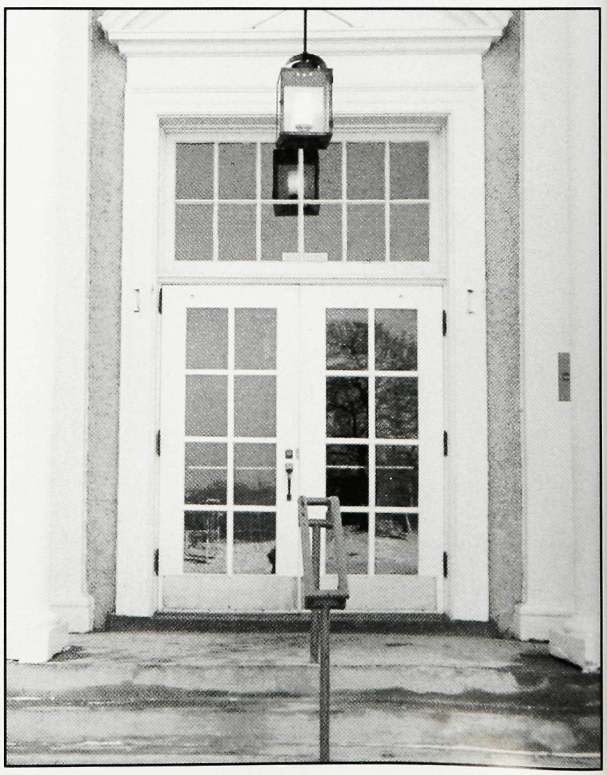

The North Shore Country Day School

310 Green Bay Road
Winnetka, Illinois 60093

Table of Contents

Special Events.....16
Sports.....48
Faculty and Administration 74
Lower School 92
Middle School 106
Upper School 114
Senior Pages..... 138
Advertisements 168

1991-92 Mirror Staff

Co-Editors-in-Chief.....Carrie Berkowitz
Stephanie Freeman

Layout Co-Editors.....Stefanie Freeman
Benjie de la Fuente

Copy Editor.....Michaela Murphy
Copy Assistant.....Kelli Stebel

Photography Editor.....Akiko Chizawa
Photography Assistant.....Nat Durbin

Business Manager.....Robyn Goldman

Advisors.....John Almquist
Amy Peters

Dedication—Shirley Smith

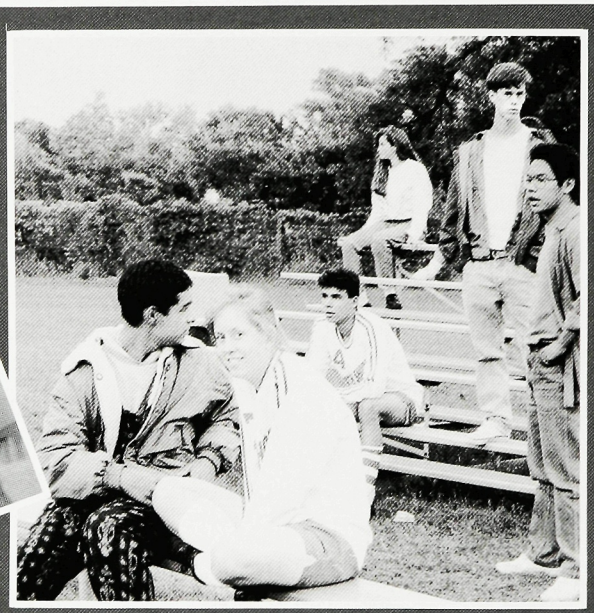

In her own quiet (usually) way Shirley Smith has had a wonderful effect on many members of the senior class. Whether it was through her teaching methods (ask anyone in her Calculus class about blind men on number lines, or her Algebra 2 class about waxed paper, and we guarantee that they will be amused), or just her ability to be a sympathetic listener, the Class of '92 was always glad to have her around. From her willingness to put up with us as freshmen to her willingness to put up with us as seniors (we're not sure which is worse), Mrs. Smith was always a calming influence, and we appreciate it. Therefore, is is with great fondness and admiration that we dedicate MIRROR '92 to Shirley Smith.

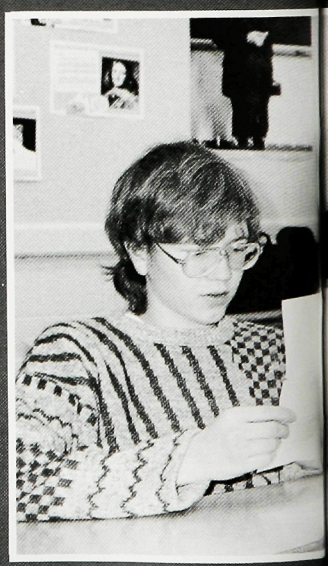

BEN
JIE

MU
CK

83

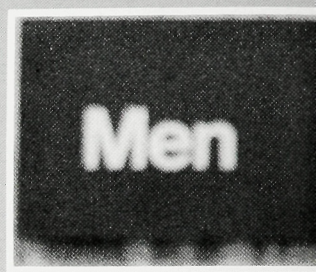

Are you confused?

Sosa is too sexy for Akiko.

Are you confused?

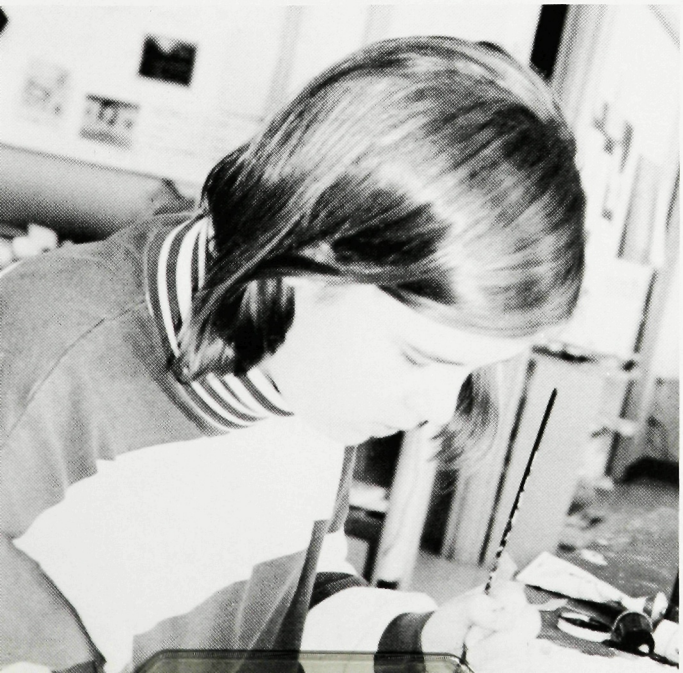

RAIDERS
73

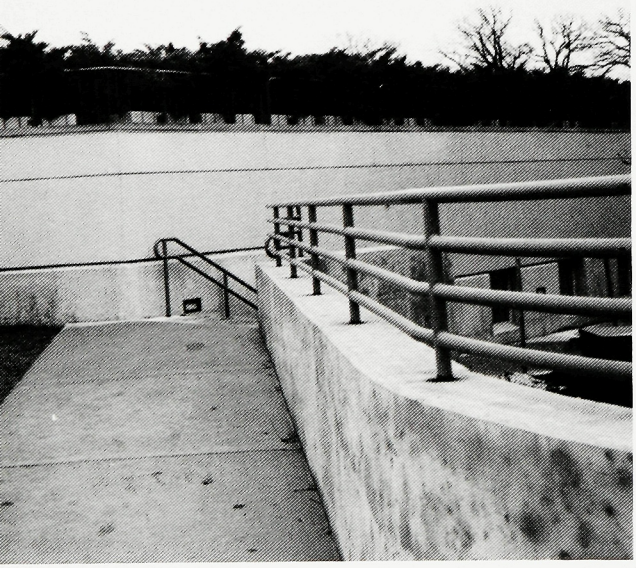

VALDEZ

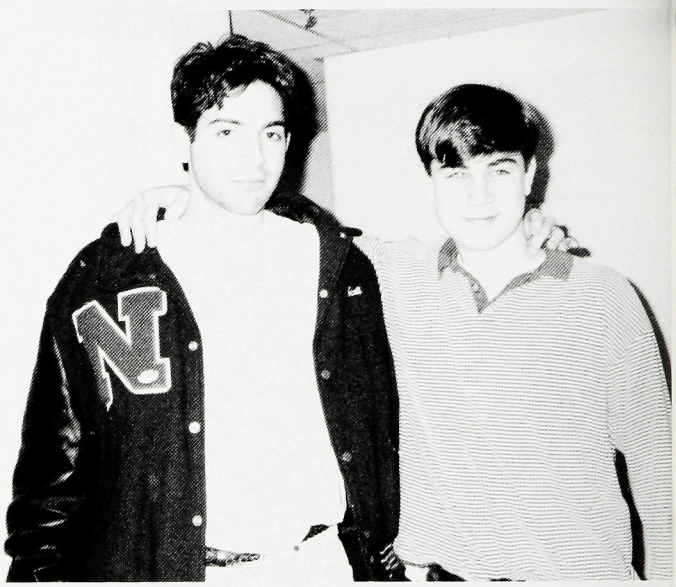

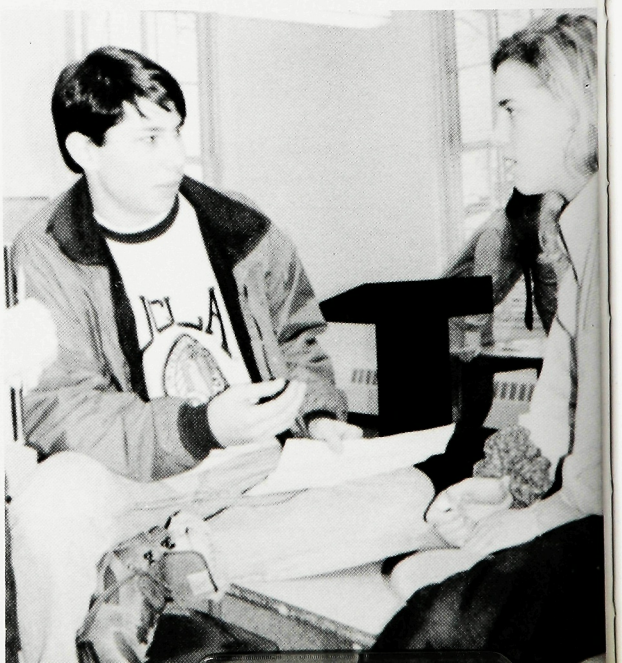

1992 Ways to Procrastinate

1 Eat
2 Watch TV
3 Calculate number of hours homework will take
4 Talk on phone
5 Make a mix tape
6 Make long-distance calls
7 Fill out Publisher's Clearinghouse entry
8 Take a quiz in a magazine
9 Make a list of your future children's names
10 Read old notes
11 Look through drawers
12 For smokers: have a cigarette
13 Go to the bathroom
14 Give yourself a manicure
15 Make a list of things you have to do.
16 Doodle
17 Work out
18 Count the days until vacation
19 Count the days until your birthday
20 Count the days until graduation
21 Sleep
22 Snoop through siblings' rooms
23 Browse through college catalogs
24 Do college applications
25 Watch MTV
26 Take a shower
27 Clean out the car
28 Start a diary
29 Rent a movie
30 Make a new answering machine message
31 Do a puzzle
32 Alphabetize CDs
33 Look up dirty words
34 Call weather
35 Call time
36 Clean your room
37 Read horoscope
38 Talk to family
39 Read shampoo bottles
40 Synchronize your clocks
41 Rearrange furniture
42 Check for mail
43 Read cereal boxes
44 Count the day's calories
45 Chew on a pen cap
46 Read TV Guide
47 Look at photo albums
48 Make weekend plans
49 Visit friends at work
50 Make holes in jeans
51 Meditate
52 Walk your dog
53 Clean your wallet
54 Bite your nails
55 Gossip
56 Watch the grass grow
57 Listen to all your tapes
58 Reorganize your folders
59 Play solitaire
60 Daydream
61 Look in the fridge
62 Estimate the value of a dollar in 2092
63 Look at old yearbooks
64 Make a list of ways to procrastinate
65 Look at prom pictures
66 Do errands for your mom
67 Brush your teeth
68 Pick out tomorrow's clothes
69 Play "Chopsticks" on the piano
70 Chew on a pencil
71 Eat some more
72 Type "HELLO" on a calculator
73 Go for a drive
74 Read an encyclopedia
75 Write a letter
76 Chew gum
77 Clean your sock drawer
78 Floss your teeth
79 Read a book—not
80 Play a Nintendo
81 Gaze
82 Watch Cable public access stations
83 Watch "Three's Company"
84 Go shopping
85 Pop your zits
86 Call 976 numbers
87 Read old Bazooka wrappers
88 Count change
89 Try on old jeans
90 Use up film in your camera
91 Set your alarm
92 Re-read yearbook, and pages like this!

Procrastination in Action

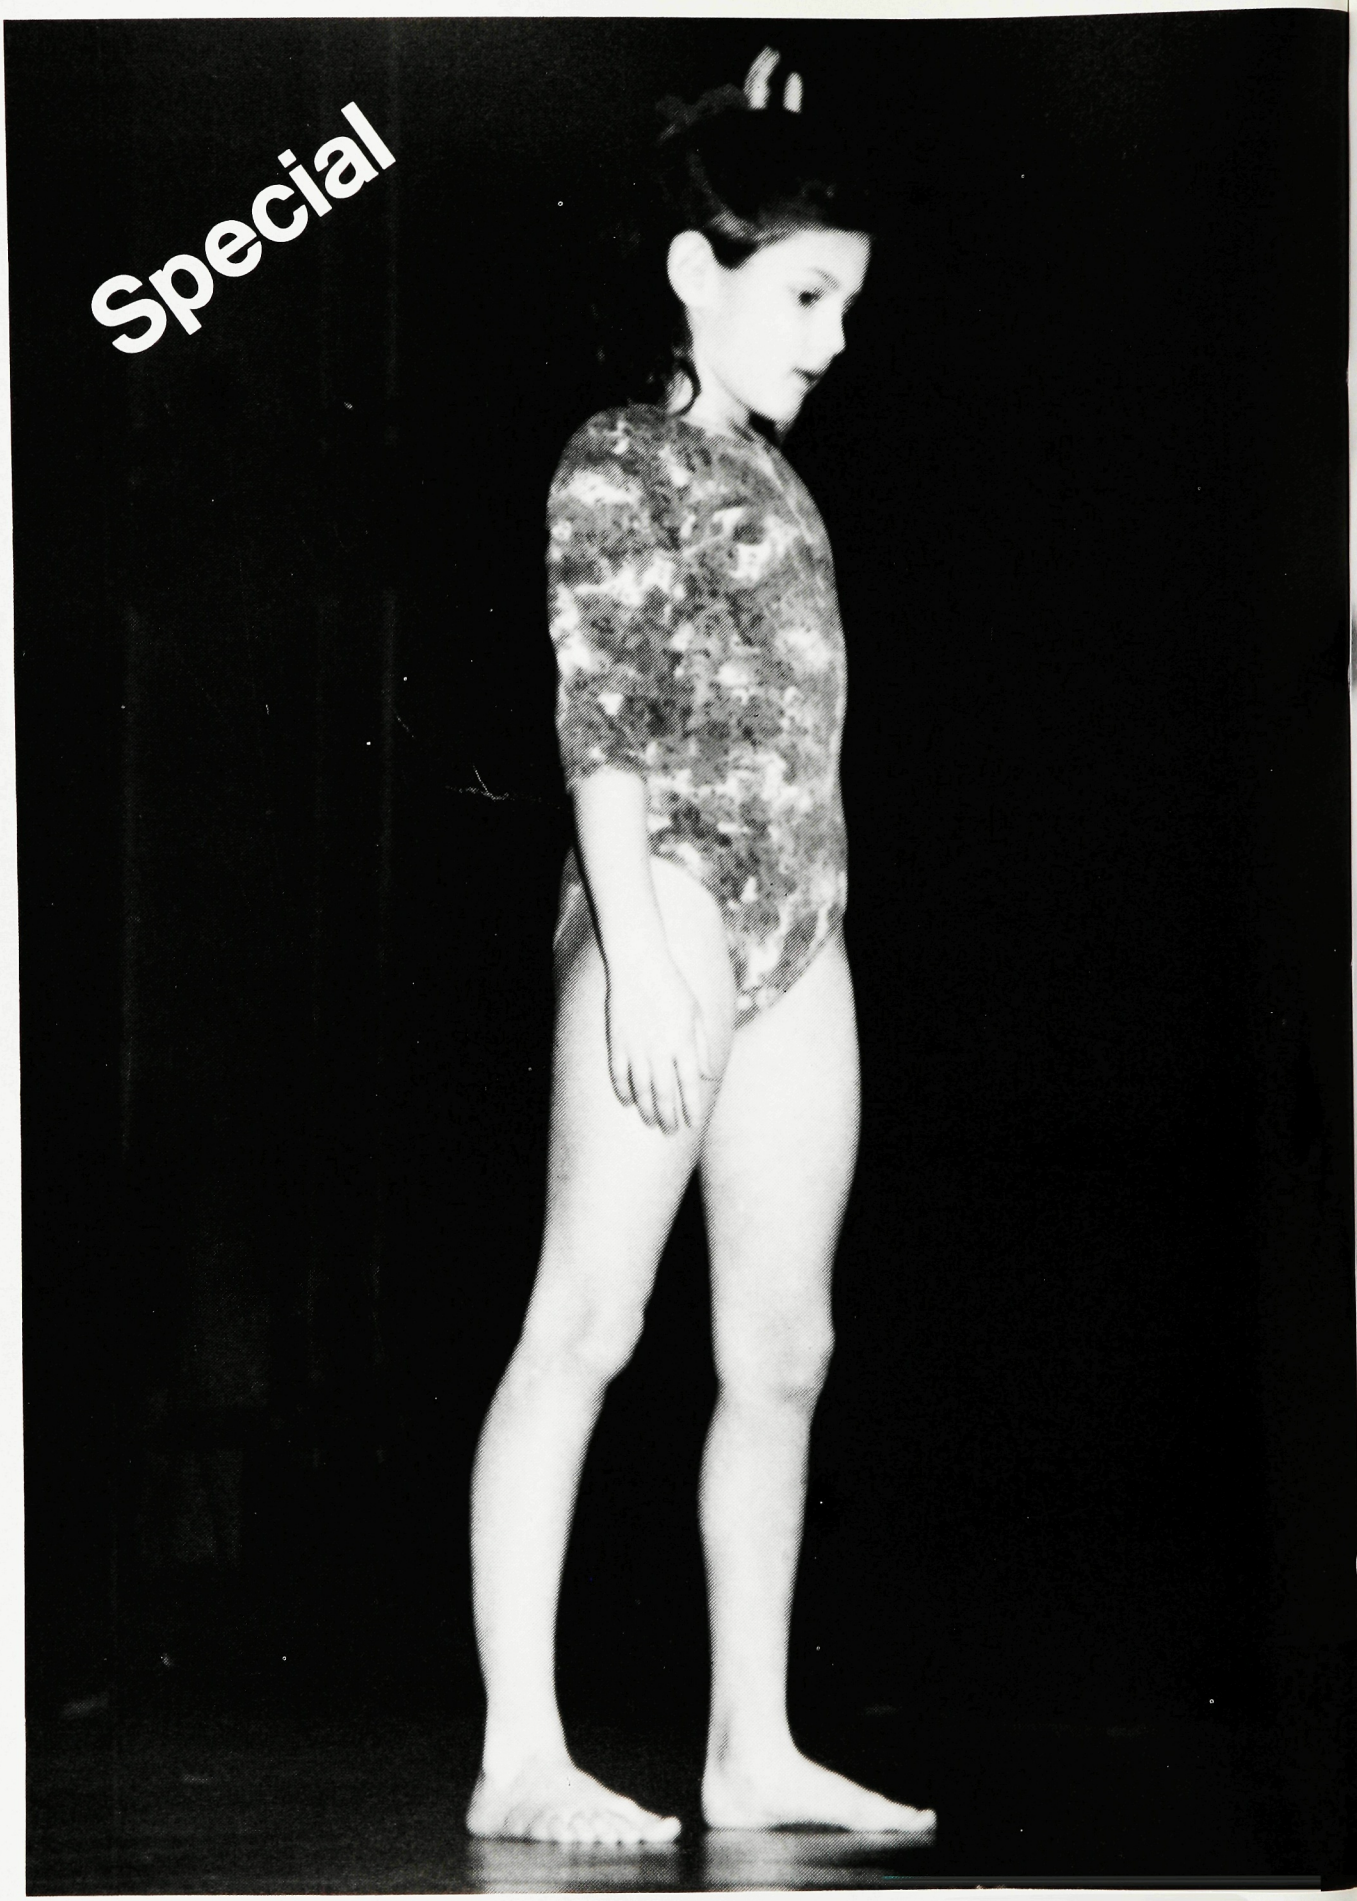

Special

Events

Homecoming

'91

Homecoming 1991 was a great success. Following annual tradition (begun last year), the festivities were set off by a Bonfire on Friday, October 4. Although it had to be moved indoors because of the rain (and wasn't really much of a fire at all because of that), Raider spirit could not be dampened, as we cheered our little hearts out.

The next day our football team handily beat Huntly by a score of 17-0. Smokey and the Seventh Seal returned that night to play for a Homecoming Victory Dance, as students grooved to reggae. Homecoming '91 was, as always, a great success, and an experience to be treasured.

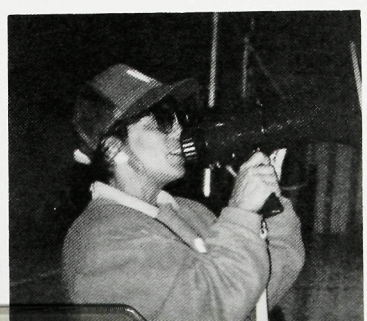

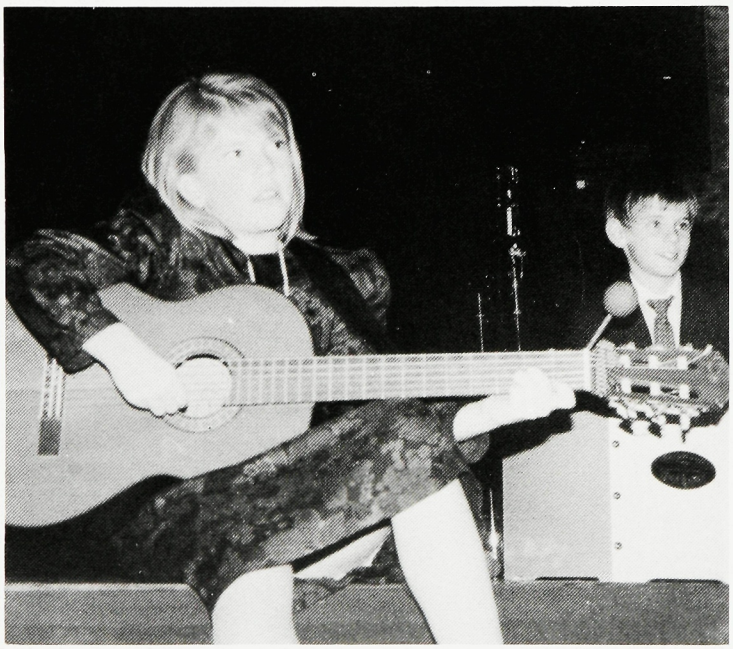

Mrs. Whiting and her megaphone lead the crowd in a veritable plethora of North Shore cheers.

Winter Concert

One evening during the winter season everyone in the Upper, Middle, and Lower School choruses, and the fourth and fifth grades and the Middle School music classes, got all dolled up and showed up at school to make beautiful music together. The Upper School chorus performed all sorts of holiday favorites in languages few could understand. Middle Schoolers sang and played various instruments. Several Lower Schoolers did all sorts of things, including playing instrumental classics such as "There was a Pig." For a finale all the students present and the faculty chorus gathered on the stage—quite a feat in itself—and performed together. It was quite an event.

Halloween

With much straightening of collars, brushing of hair, and warnings about razor blades in candy, North Shore parents sent another crop of dressed-up kids to school this Halloween. Besides the usual slurry of bats, ghosts, and sports heroes, we also had a few brownshirt desert-stormers chasing the boy dressed up as Saddam Hussein, an ambitious Lower School dressed as Deane Lanphear, and even seventeen Upper School students pretending to be a soccer team. Our annual "Everyone Shuffle Across the Stage" parade provided us ample opportunity to view these and other aesthetically pleasing costumes, leaving us in eager anticipation of Halloween '92.

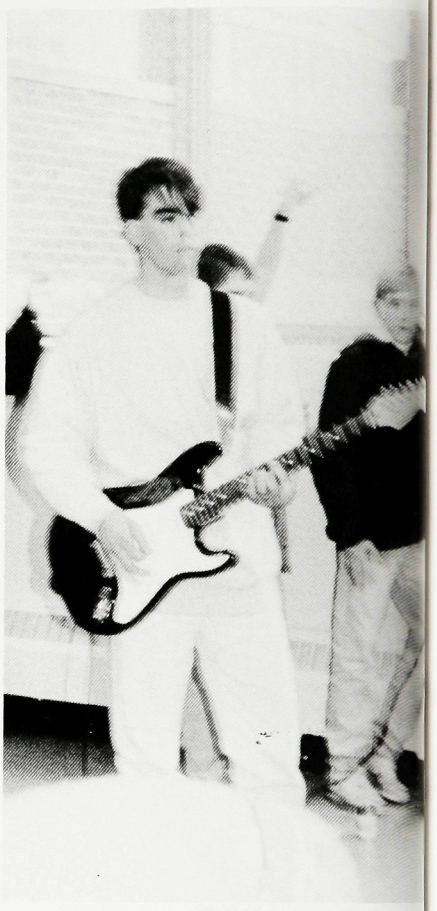

Rake Day? No Classes Day? No-Work Day!

Work Day Work Day Work Day—our annual day of manual labor, was an interesting experience, as usual. Upper School students trooped out to do community service in the North Shore area, generously raking the lawns of local senior citizens—Mrs. Foster even offered to harvest one woman's garden, and taught the students in her group all about rutebegas. Mr. Randolph, however, did not set a good example as he smothered one good-doing Upper Schooler with leaves, while Mr. Almquist and his video camera looked on. Upon returning, the whole gosh-darned North Shore family raked and raked and raked, while Seniors and their Kindergarteners attempted to beautify the campus by planting flowers which never seem to bloom. Having worked oh so very hard, we had to take a break to enjoy the performance of "Benjie's Band"—Daddy T, the Benjmeister, Rez, Bashman, and Greg, who has no spiffy nickname. Of course, Mr. Almquist was ever-present, video camera in hand to capture the day's events on film, which unfortunately—due to the dampness of the day—did not include Duck, Duck, Goose—quite a bummer for the Kindergarten/Senior combo. However, the non-Ducky footage was certainly a visual treat, which was discovered by the Upper School that afternoon as they cheerfully viewed "the unedited Work Day film." Quite a flick. All in all, Work Day was certainly a great time for everyone who was there, and maybe even for some people who weren't.

PENN STATE

Interim

Interim Week, along with Interim Night, was a most rewarding experience for all involved. In early November the Upper School ventured away from the classroom, either with a sponsored group or through internships. Some spent the week making videos, visiting Comiskey Park, working with children infected with HIV, or a bevy of other choices. Two weeks later students, parents, and faculty gathered to share their interim experiences. The Alcohol Awareness and the Roger's Park Rehab Interim groups gave inspiring presentations that evening, and other groups set up displays of how they spent their week in the library for viewing. Hats off to the Opera Workshop for showing the classic Bugs Bunny opera in the middle of the Hall Library. Though attendance seemed to be a little low (where WERE everybody's parents by the way), those who did come seemed to be entertained. Unfortunately, because Mr. Almquist's editing machine broke down, the favored experience of viewing what passed during the filmmaking Interim was a little different from past years, but that's okay. Interim '91 was an enriching experience for all involved.

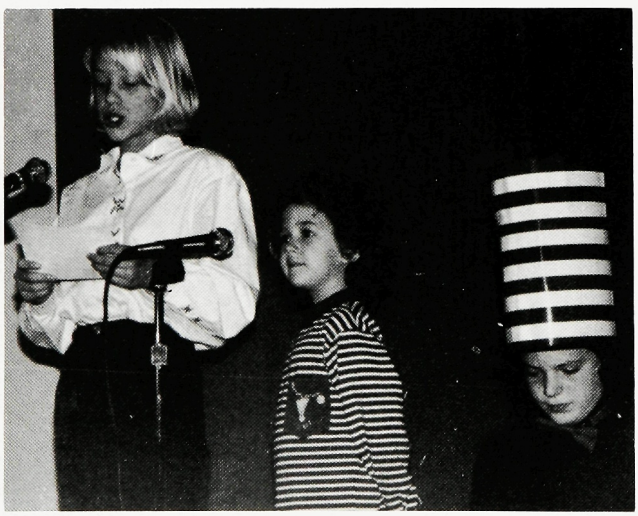

Thanksgiving

This year, to commemorate and celebrate Thanksgiving, the second and seventh graders told the school about the valuable children's writer who we know as Dr. Seuss. We heard about his life stories and also all about his joyful style of writing. From THE GRINCH WHO STOLE CHRISTMAS to THE CAT IN THE HAT, Dr. Seuss let his imagination run wild. After listening to these students discuss this cherished American writer, everyone left for Thanksgiving break with a sense of spirit and pride.

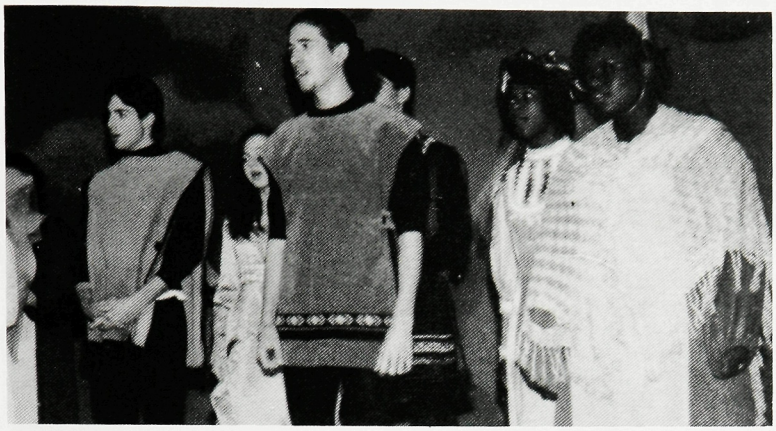

Madrigal Feaste

1

2

Once again, Ye Olde Madrigal Feaste was certainly a triumph. Quite a few guests arrived to enjoy an evening of music and other entertainment. The Lord and Lady of the Manor—Dan Berenberg and Alé Levi—along with the talented lords and ladies of the court (otherwise known as Upper School Chorus), managed to turn a typical school night into an evening of medieval merriment! Also Eric Sosa, the jester, did an amazing job, with a little help from Keith .... At any rate, everyone involved contributed a piece of magic to this night in December, and ye all should be proud.

3

4

5

Ho Ho Ho! Ho Ho Ho!

Santa Claus Dance 1991

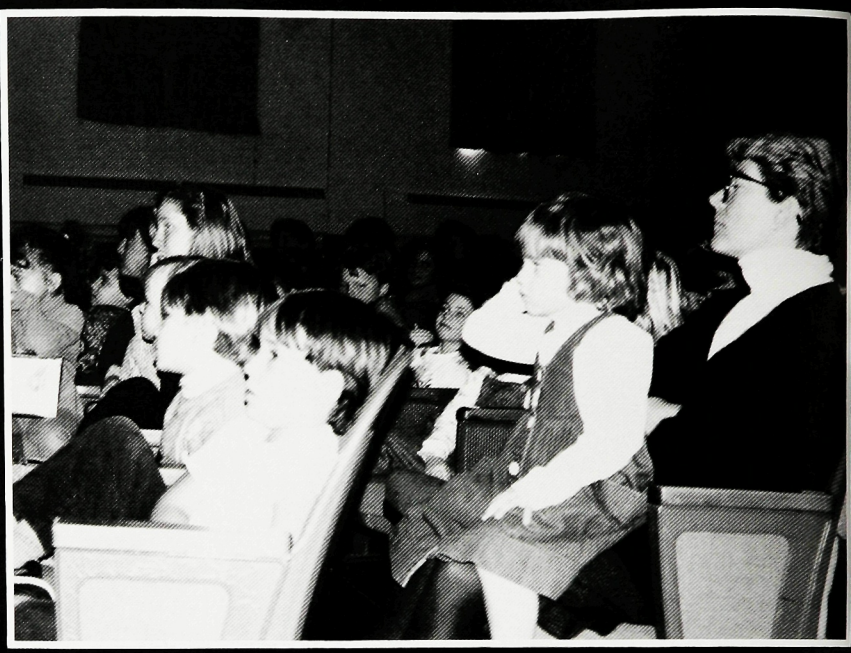

The Santa Claus Dance capped off the 1991 school year on the last day of school before we all left for a much-needed vacation. Our Masters-of-Ceremonies, T.C. Whiting and Bryan Resendiz (they're the closest thing we have to "lifters") jointly read "The Night Before Christmas," and, as they did so . . . Santa Claus appeared!!!

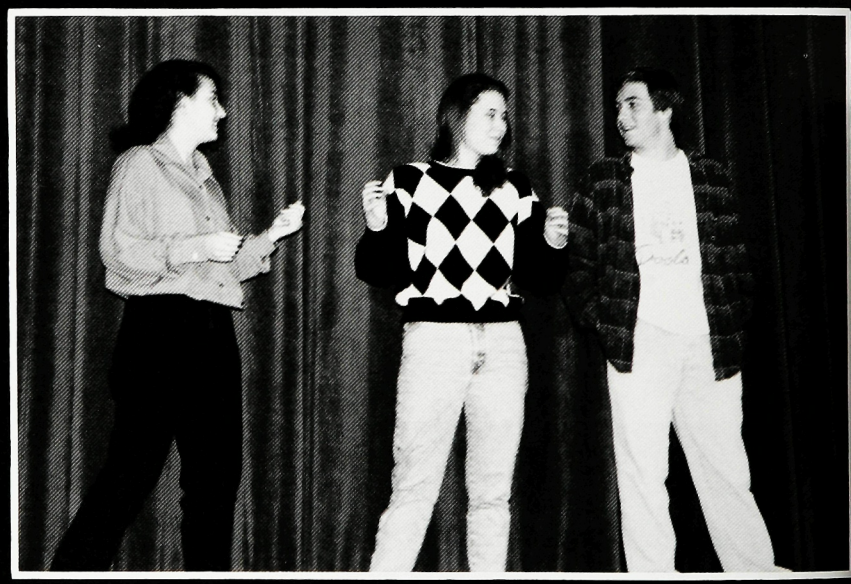

After a stimulating conversation with Mr. Lanphear (which those who were seated in the first row could hear, if they listened real hard), Santa sat down to watch as the various buddy groups demonstrated their dancing abilities. The seventh and second graders did some random dance with jump ropes, the tenth and fifth graders added a little cultural diversity with "Hava Negila," the ninth and fourth graders clicked some sticks on the ground, and, of course, the Seniors and their kindergarteners did a great hokey-pokey (and so did a lot of juniors in the stands . . . these guys need some buddies). The festivities were certainly enlightening, as many alumni and parents showed up to watch—the entire experience was a grand success.

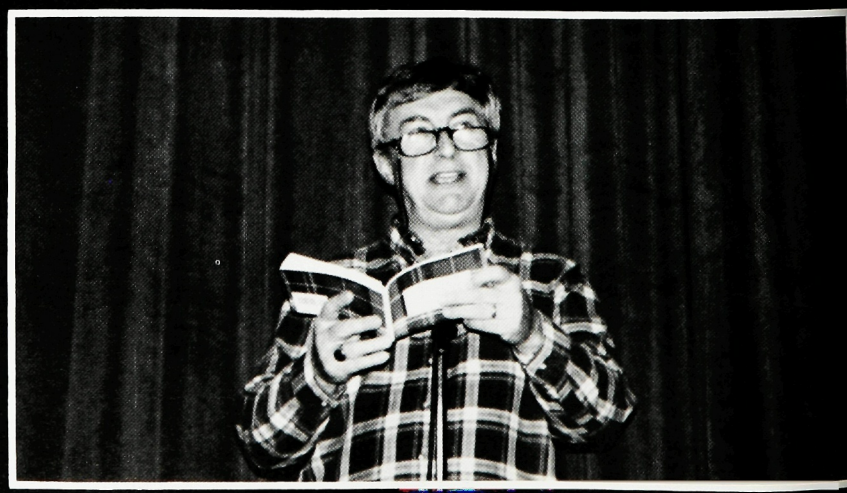

Morning Exercise: Existent or Not?

Morning Exercise was terribly difficult to consider this year, namely because it seemed that every time we got all excited to go to Morning Ex., it was canceled. We're not sure why. Of course there were the traditional Halloween, Thanksgiving, and various other holiday Morning Exercises, along with lots and lots of show previews, and, of course, those were great. other than that, well—we had a few intriguing presentations, including the story of Dr. Suess's life, and various school-spirit-raising activities; we're thinking that the Morning Ex. highlight of the year was seeing Mr. Lanphear and Dr. Fry coated with whipped cream. . . special thanks to the Pep Squad for that one!

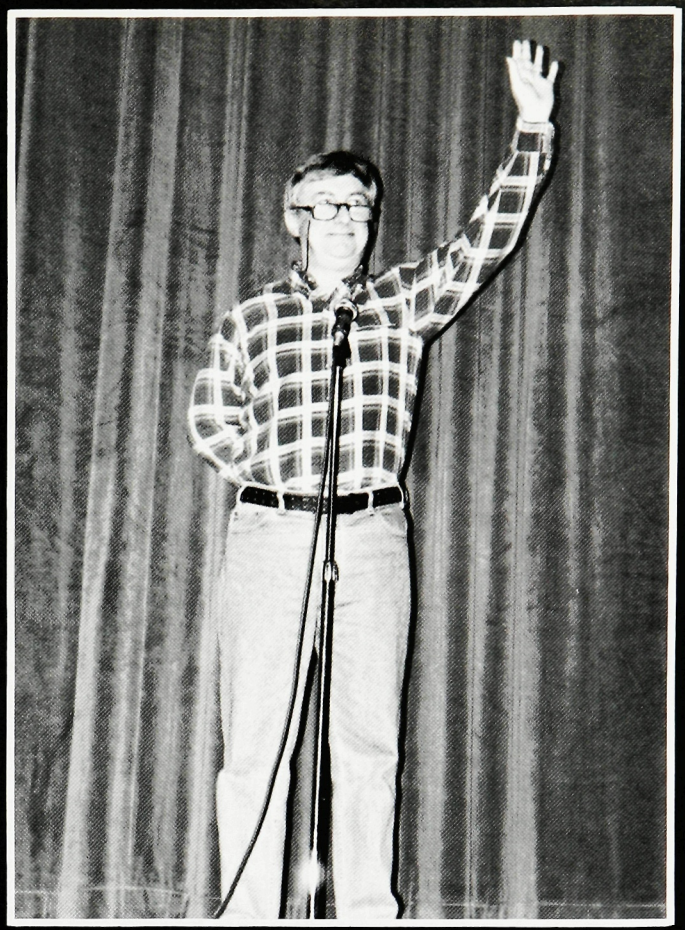

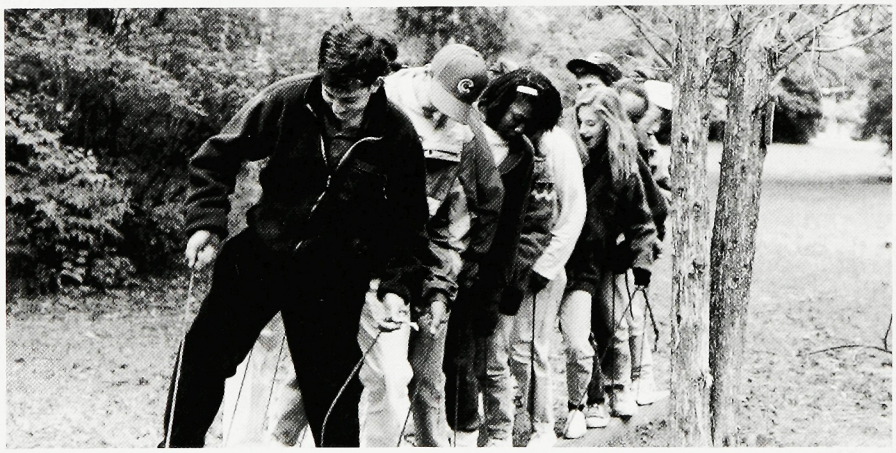

22

Freshman Outdoor Education

We departed for our bonding experience at Camp Shawanassee not knowing that the bus trip would be a grueling two hours, but our walkmen, conversations, and books (yeah, right) were truly instruments of great importance and intelligence . . . not!

Finally we arrived, a cold bus full of kids, and spotted our cabins in the distance. A few highly intelligent "men" decided to take a dip in the shallow, dirty, and very cold river. At a cool temperature of 54 degrees, the water gave them a little shock (especially without their towels!).

After lunch our "large" group was divided into two parts. Half of us went horseback-riding with Mrs. Melissas and Jay Bach. The others encountered a teams course, where many of us learned to trust the group as we fell into each other's arms.

We then played a few games and went on a nature walk. Our trail leader was miles ahead, leaving us without a clue as to where we were going besides down. Some of us were entertained, others petrified.

The next morning's adventure: a canoe trip. It was quite a journey, but few people thought tipping canoes or losing paddles was particularly funny.

Finally we left the comforting cabins for the long bus ride home, remembering our bonding experience at Camp Shawanassee.

—Maggie Marzano

Sophomore Outdoor Education

The Sophomore class's excursion was a great success—we went to the Jonquil Hotel, a halfway house for the homeless on the north side of Chicago.

The Jonquil Hotel is a Christian ministry which helps people who cannot afford housing by supplying them with rooms for little or no charge. Also, they help the mentally ill in finding a place to stay. When the hotel was bought 10 years ago, the founders immediately went to work refurbishing the run-down building. Even now, however, the Jonquil needs more work, which is why we were there.

Once we arrived, they put all of us to work: we painted, cleaned, laid floors, scraped paint, and some of us worked with neighborhood kids. Over the two days we accomplished a lot. We were happy, not only because we achieved quite a bit, but because the Sophomore class grew closer together.

—Katie Davis

Junior Outdoor Education

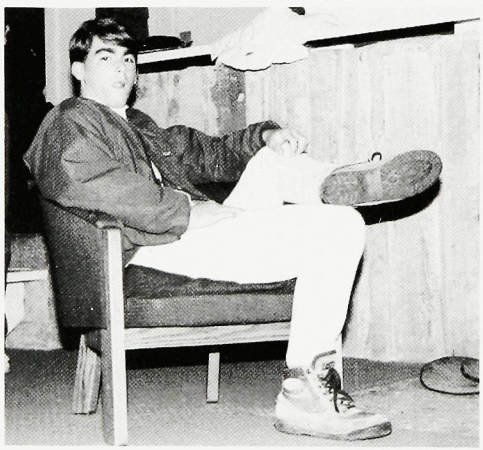

We Juniors were all looking forward to the thrills of Convenant Harbor after having lived through the treachery of underclassmen trips.

Among other things, we climbed 40 feet in the air to walk on cords. Does this sound strange for a trip that the school wanted us to go on? It was, but it was also tons o' fun. From Mr. Sexton's Bond-O-Meter (created to verify that we were all bonding in the proper manner) to the awesome volleyball games (where the cry of "Get a rope!" could be heard for miles around Lake Geneva). We did have a blast, despite the cameras which always seemed to be clicking.

All in all, we returned to good old North Shore, we learned something about ourselves, our teachers, and our friends. That is what Outdoor Education is about: learning and bonding.

—Kelli Stebel

Senior Outdoor Education

Facing this year's outdoor ed. trip, most of the senior class was, quite frankly, not all that excited, considering our class trips of past years, with unsavory sleeping quarters, undigestible food, and games suited for 8-year-olds. However, we suddenly noticed that, while the underclassmen were leaving in little yellow North Shore school busses, we had a comfy Greyhound coach! Our spirits were lifted considerably, and it was all uphill from there.

We arrived at George Williams College and were immediately thrown into games suited for 8-year-olds, but we had a good time anyway. That evening, since our rooms WERE small and cold as predicted, we simply abandoned them through basketball and "Beverly Hills 90210."

The next morning, we were brought to a cornfield with a 38-foot wall in the middle of it. We got into our harnesss and helmets (it was quite a sight) and prepared to climb, three people at a time; it was truly a bonding experience.

It is safe to say that all members of the senior class came back from our trip to Williams Bay a little tired, a little sick to our stomachs, a little annoyed, and a little closer than we were when we left.

ons

We Are the People Under the Stairs:

Stefanie Freeman, Michaela Murphy, Robyn Goldman, Benjie de la Fuente, Carrie Berkowitz, Kelli Stebel, Akiko Chizawa

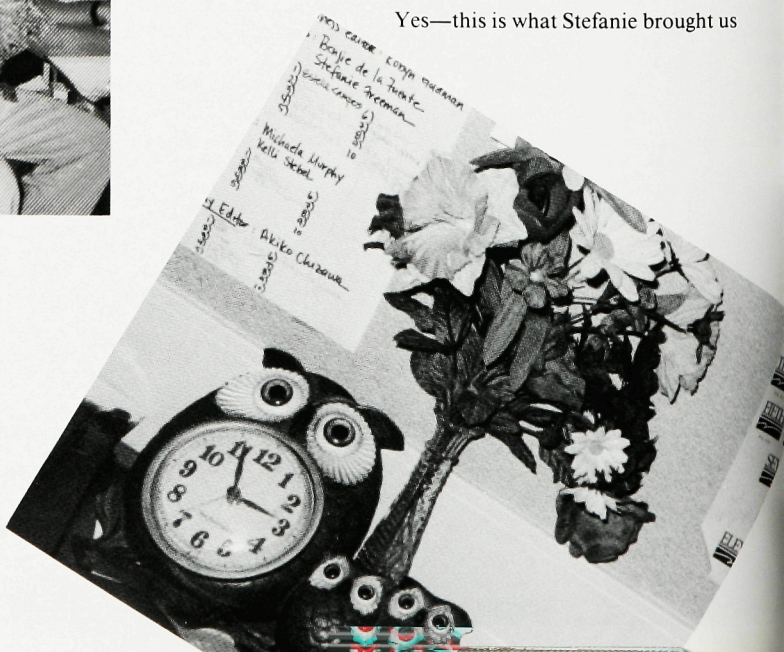

A few of the Diet cokes Michaela drank over the year

Yes—this is what Stefanie brought us

Yearbook 1992

The 1991-92 Mirror staff is perhaps the most discombobulated yet thoroughly enchanting group of folks you could ever want to meet. Once we actually figured out exactly who was on the staff (though we're still not quite sure about Benjie), we really got some interesting stuff done. It wasn't necessarily related to the yearbook, but it was interesting nonetheless.

Stefanie Freeman, our Layout Editor, was really special in the process of putting this yearbook together, because she did work. No, really—she actually did things prior to the day before the deadline, a concept which most of us simply could not grasp. Also, she proved herself truly creative with her masterful spreads, and with her interior decorating tastes . . . the plastic owl clock and the fabric flowers she donated to the beautification of the yearbook office are really something special. We're not sure why, but we're sure there's something special about them, because they came from our cherished Stefanie!

Our other Layout Editor took quite a while to get to that "cherished" stage, though. Benjie de la Fuente, though he may be pleasant, intelligent, and mature beyond his years, took a good deal of time getting into the yearbook mode—in other words, he didn't break down and do any work until we had hounded him so long he just got sick of us. Also, he very often had no tact whatsoever in dealing with the sensitive issues raised concerning MIRROR but we can probably forgive him for that.

As long as we're dealing with our token Juniors (i.e.: those who have to stay here one more year!) now is the perfect time to bring up Kelli Stebel, Assistant to the Copy Editor. Kelli was great to have around when we needed someone to beg people to turn their copy in, or to find out exactly which kid is which in many of our Lower and Middle School pictures. She was also nice to have around when we wanted to tape something to some really high spot on the wall . . . she was the only one who was tall enough. In fact, our only real problem with Kelli was making sure she didn't do any layouts involving Clip Art.

But the really important people here were, of course, the seniors. For instance, there was Akiko Chizawa, our fabulous Photography Editor. Akiko was great photographer, and could often be seen scooting around on her hands and knees during various school events in order to snap some really great shots. Aside from her little habit of taking off for Japan at really inopportune moments, Akiko was great to have around, and (ahem, usually) got the job done. Aside from the Fall Show incident, everyone was always really happy with Akiko's work.

Then there was Robyn B. Goldman, our business manager extraordinaire—she was certainly quite the yearbook goddess this year. Her patience in dealing with photography studios was really incredible, and when she wasn't doing that or selling ads, she took some really incredible pictures and did some really incredible layouts. She also contributed to the decorating of the office by using her clout as DSJ Editor to secure a few copies of posters from The People Under the Stairs: stop in and you'll see what we mean. The only time Robyn ever got the least bit annoying was when she started wondering about the origin of the company we work with, Herff Jones ("Is it someone named Herff Jones? Or one guy named Herff and one guy named Jones? Or maybe Jones Herff?")

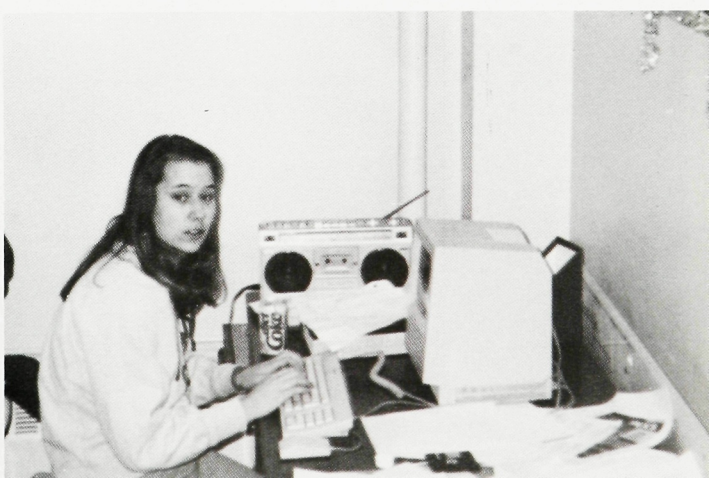

But everyone knew Robyn had to be wonderful, because so was her Bobbsey Twin, our Copy Editor, Michaela C. Murphy. Because she couldn't be objective about herself, I (Robyn) was forced to write about this clever, yet cunning Copy editor. Aside from accidentally deleting the tennis copy I wrote, she is the very model of a modern copy editor. Listen and learn, Kelli!! This copy goddess can never be replaced. Holding this position on the MIRROR staff for two years running, Michaela (a.k.a. Grammar Queen) will be remembered by all in years to come for making the stupendous Mirror/DSJ sign over the door of our wonderfully spacious publications office. She also saved the cans from every Diet Coke she ever drank for us.

And the third member of this pickleball-playing senior triumvirate was our fearless leader Carrie Berkowitz. Carrie claimed to be a diligent worker, serious and dedicated enough to get the job done right, but she couldn't fool us. Sure, she got the job done right, but she was just as bizarre and psycho as we all were. Carrie used to call Ray Gil(g)enbach all the time to figure out . . . well, what we had to do, basically, since we were never quite sure. But as you can see from the book you're reading (you really are, we promise) everything turned out just fine!

Even though we know you love the editors more than anyone else in the world, we thought we'd tell you that Jessy Braun, Maggie Pearl, Nat Durbin, Estelle Campos, and Alé Levi did a LOT of work to help us get this book done, and we love them for it. And lots of other people used to wander in and out of our office all the time, but we were never quite sure what they were doing, so we're not going to list them or anything. We're just going to say thanks for cheering us up.

DSJ DSJ DSJ YAY!

Ah, The Diller Street Journal—such a stunning display of literary prowess. This year marked the return of Michael G. Conroy as our faculty advisor, who led us in a complete overhaul of our humble little publication. So, when we first published in mid-November, the North Shore family was thrilled to find . . . the first-ever DSJ Magazine! Everyone had heard it would be a little revamped, but we think many people were surprised to find that its theme was "sex". That wasn't all, though, that was just to get your attention. As the year went by, we tackled a pile of deep, thought-provoking, and generally goofy issues, and had a great time doing it.

DSJ Staff
Editor-in-Chief: Robyn B. Goldman
Copy Editor: Benjie Q. (?) de la Fuente
Layout Editor: Michaela C. Murphy
Layout Assistant: Carrie B. Berkowitz
Photography Editor: Amanda Z. (?) Bailey
Faculty Advisor: Michael G. Conroy
Staff: Anna Buck, Betty Fisher, Stefanie Freeman, Blake Gordon, David Plazas, Missy Wemstrom

Middle School Forum

This year's Middle School Forum was led by Ms. Hooper, who met each week with representatives from each Middle School class. While student representatives were chosen by their homeroom classmates, the executive council campaigned for their positions. This group of twenty met to discuss such topics as Middle School socials and fundraising events. Middle School Forum has also discussed such hair-raising issues as the dress code and town meetings. This Forum was created when students began complaining that their side was not being heard in various important issues—all in all, the whole concept has been a success.

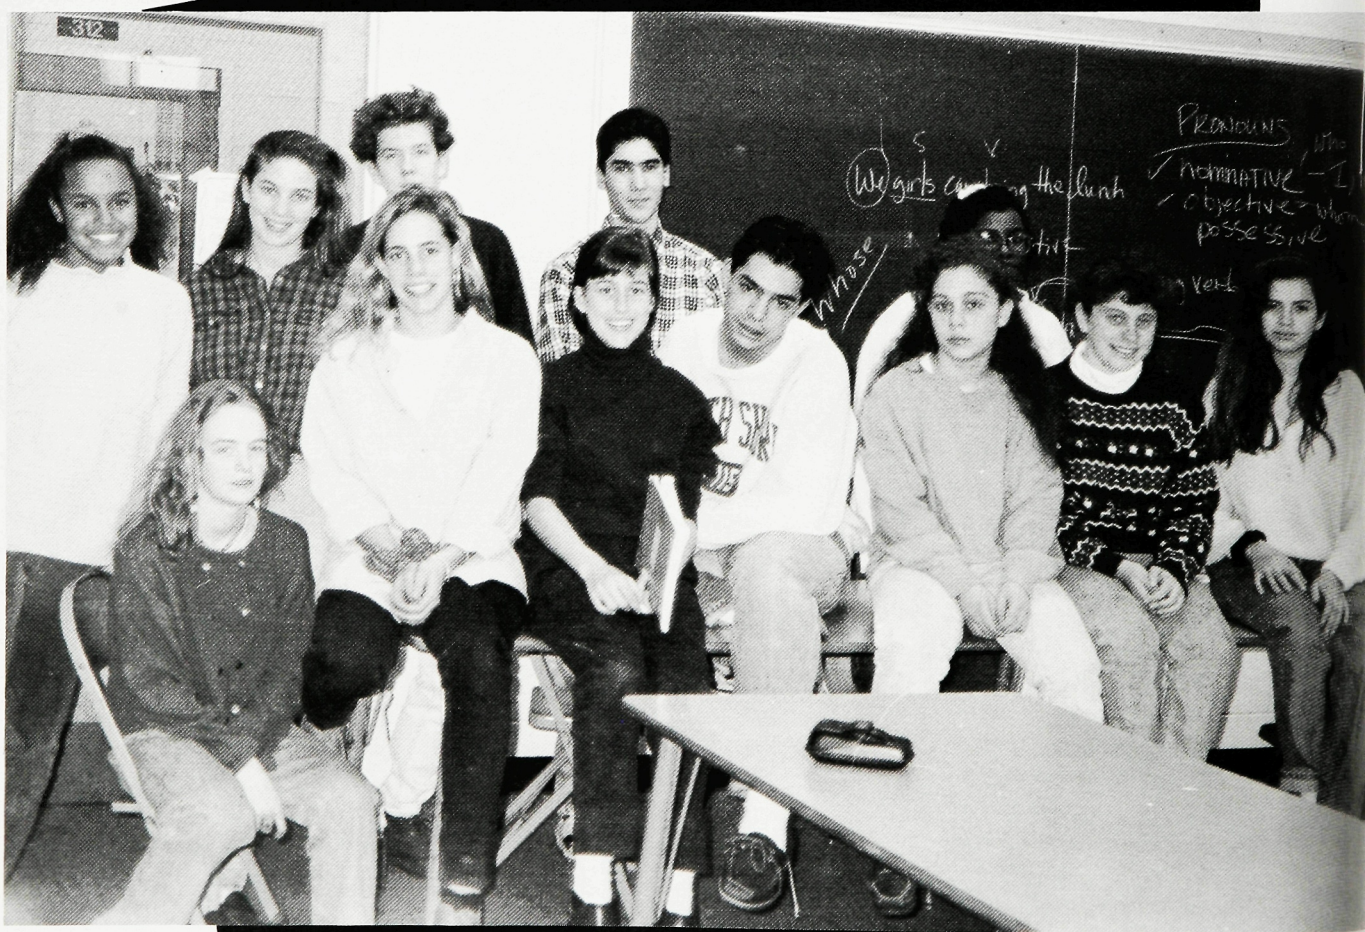

Prosody

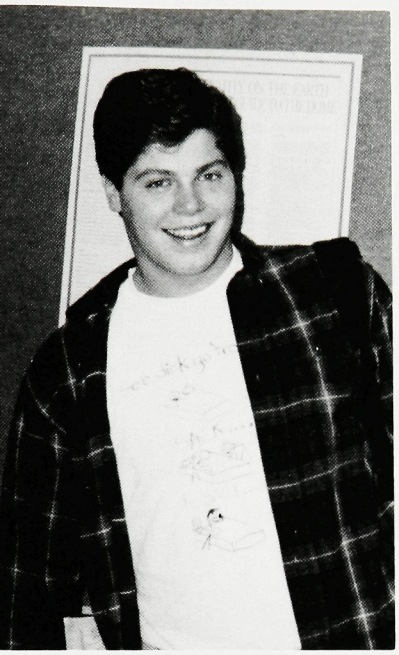

Prosody Staff 1992

Katie Davis, Yemisi Dinkins, Betty Fisher, Stefanie Freeman, Maria Mancia, Maggie Marzano, Mark Meiners, David Plazas, Alexandra Roginsky, Lisa Rosen, Erik Sosa, Annie Stebbins, Kelli Stebel, Katie Whittlesey, Kathy Wolbach.

Prosody deserves to have a few words mentioned about it. The school community sometimes does not seem to appreciate what a spectacular job our Prosody staff does and it is time we appreciate the great accomplishments of Prosody. Therefore, we will take this time to honor them with a moment of silence. . . thank you. As always, Prosody consists of artistic and literary works from all three divisions, including poems, artwork and short stories. Led by the list making frenzied Kelli Stebel, Prosody has developed a nice little place in the hearts of the faculty, who are very sick of hearing such key phrases as "Where is your folder?" and "What do you mean there is no art work?" Meeting during lunch for the most part, Prosody contemplated a myriad of stories and pieces to be placed in the publication. As the deadline approached, puzzled Upper Schoolers roamed the Lower School in search of crayon drawings. Odd. Ah, well, such is life. At any rate, hearty congratulations are due to all involved in the publication of Prosody '92!

Student Council

1

2

"Enthusiasm" was the key word for this year's Student Council. With the help of Michael Conroy, the organization grew into an influential body of school-conscious Raiders. After tackling the studyhall policy, the Student Council planned the Homecoming dance, which was highly successful. Led by President Dan Cogan and Vice-President Benjie de la Fuente, the Student Council, more than ever before, served as a vehicle for the students to express their opinions. Representatives from each class contributed greatly to the success of this year's Student Council, and our intentions and results will hopefully be an everlasting presence at North Shore.

3

4

Girls' Athletic Projects Association

(G.A.P.A.)

New at North Shore . . . PEP CLUB!

This year some very spirited people helped support our Raiders. These fans NOT ONLY led cheers at Morning Ex., they supported the football team in sub-zero weather at the Lake Forest season finale. The favor was returned as these boys organized their own cheering squad—North Shore's never known such loud cheerleaders. The fall season was filled with enthusiastic fans and great team efforts—go, Raiders!

—Tory Richardson

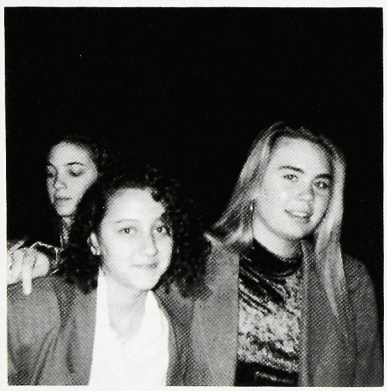

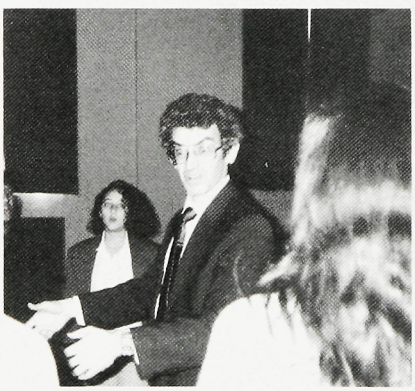

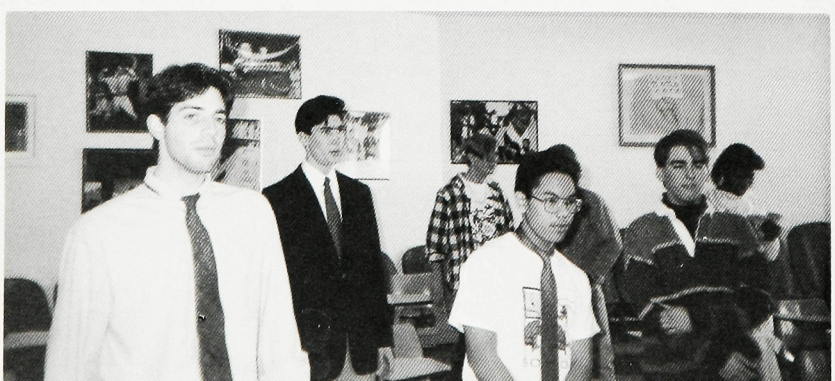

Upper School Chorus

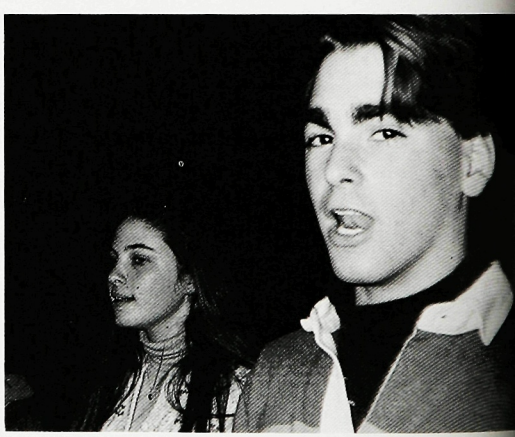

What is there left to say about the chorus We began our career strongly with the Mad rigal Feaste (which is a story in itself) and kep right on going. The winter season brough about a veritable plethora of singing oppor tunities, which we took on with ease, includin a concert for the Winnetka Chamber of Com merce, and another at the Art Institute.

At this point we had several songs in ou repertoire, ranging from the stunning madri gals that we all love, to other thrilling piece such as "The Terrible Tale of Tom Gilligan, about a farmer from Maine and his talkin scarecrow .... Whatever, we won't go int that now. But Mr. Wallenberg insisted on ou learning new songs which we, being obedien and charming students, immediately began t do in preparation for our spring concerts.

But we didn't stop there! Oh no! At the sam time we began preparing our spring musical "Fiddler on the Roof ", which was, of course a smashing success. At any rate, chorus was to put it shortly, an experience to be treasured

Our Clean-Cut Barbershop Singers

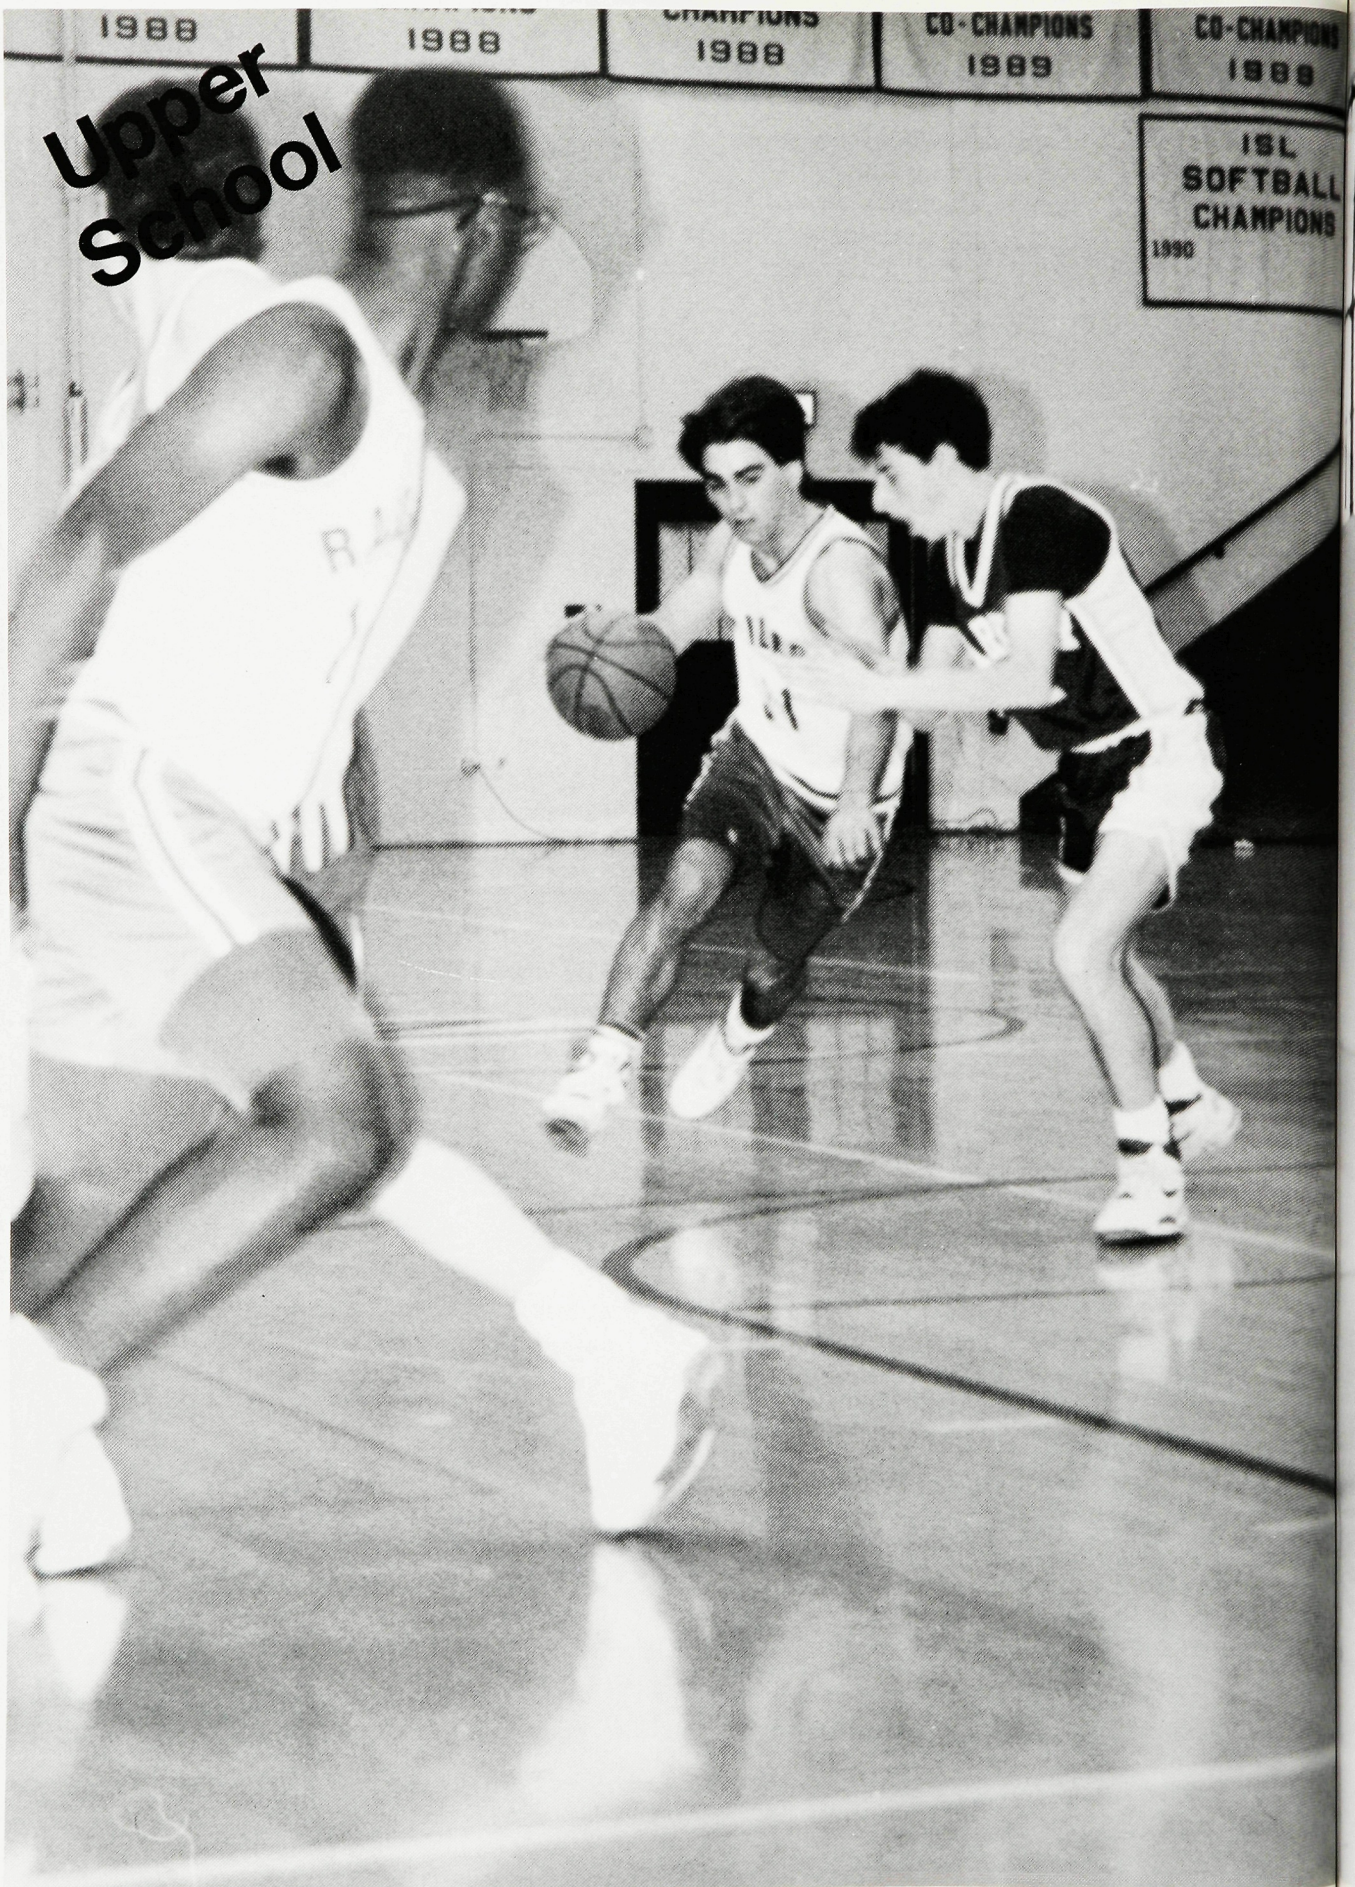

Why do the North Shore barbershoppers agree to have their daily rehearsals before school? Put simply, there is, quite frankly, absolutely nothing more soothing first thing in the morning than rich four-part men's harmony. With a relatively small, but nevertheless ultimately incredibly talented, group of singers, the Clean Cut barbershop group reached unprecedented plateaus. Because only one of our always on-pitch barbershop singers was not in the Upper School chorus, we were able to perform with the chorus at many of the concerts that there were outside the North Shore community, such as at the Art institute, and on a street corner near a Salvation Army Bell. Belting out classics like "Medley of Spirituals," "Coney Island Baby," "Aura Lee," and "Londonderry Air," we truly made this year as harmonious as it could be.

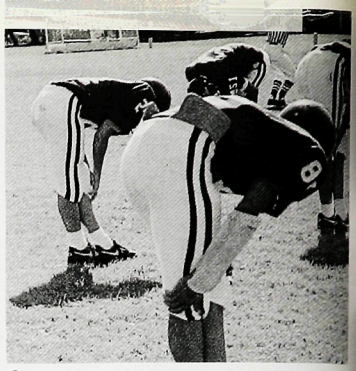

Upper School

Sports

1

2

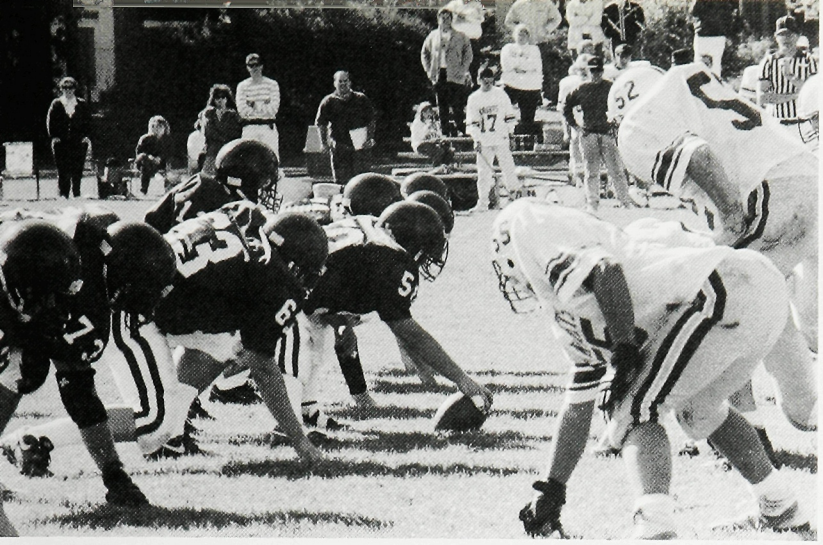

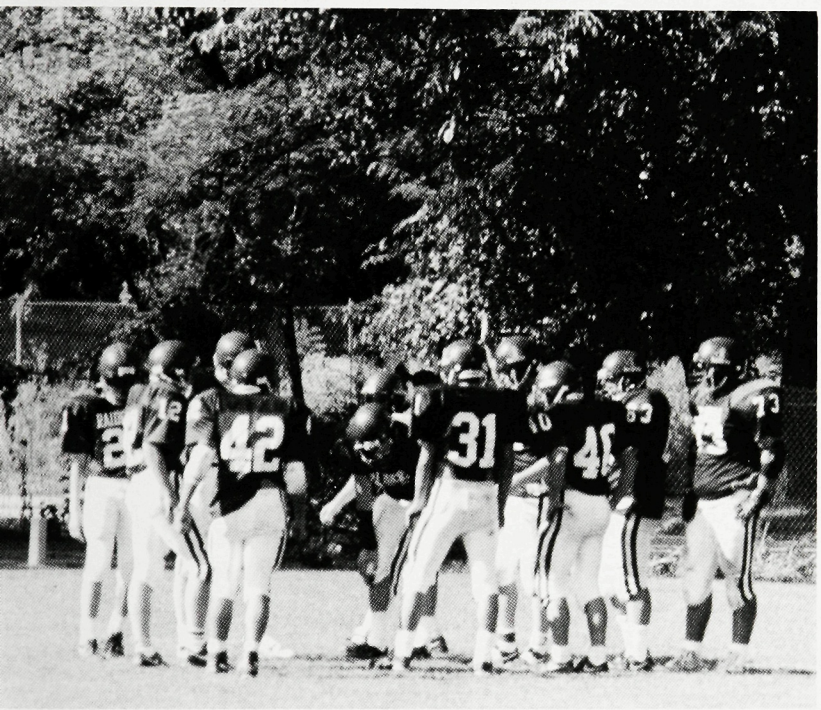

3

1.Front row: Seth Feldman, Tom Brooks, Gary Meltz, Eric Sosa, Matt Smey, Brian Glass, Jamie Ferguson.Second row: Dan Cogan, Henley Shotwell, Bashir Mohammad, Greg Jacobs, Bryan Resendiz, Owen Gerst, John Frank. Back row: T.C. Whiting, Jack Delaney, Mac McCarty, Jim Deuble, Eric Lunding, Jay Bach, Scott Shlaes, Benjie de la Fuente. 2. We could come up with a really great caption for this one, but out of respect for our football team, we won't. 3. Owen doesn't look very happy, does he? 4. Our fans look somewhat angry, too.

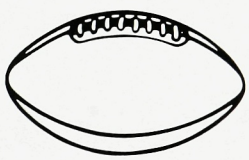

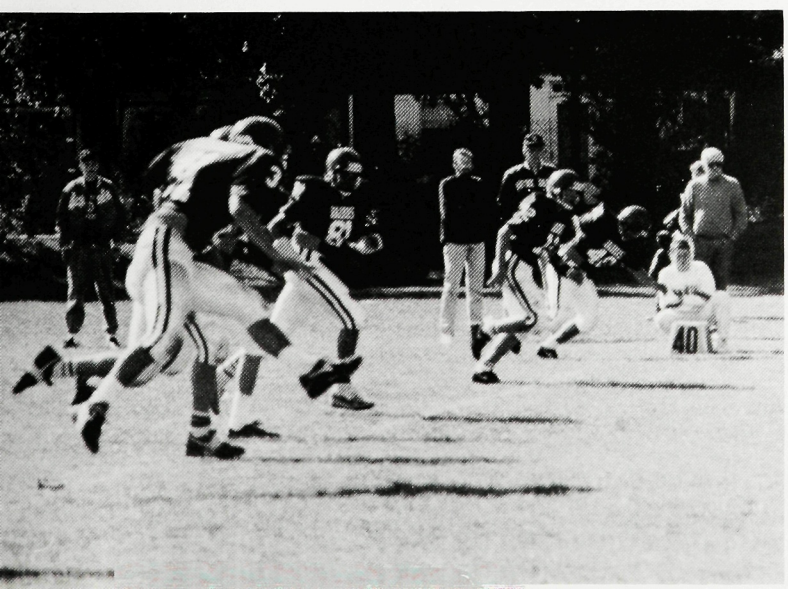

Football

For this year's football team, attempting to match our previous season of 101 proved to be challenge. We had lost many seniors, but fortunately, a majority of the team remained. We were confident that the newcomers could fill the open positions. Everyone was excited to start off the new season.

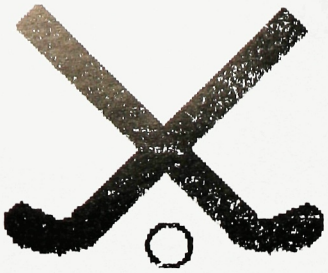

Unfortunately, we lost our first game, due to some inexperience. The next week, however, we came back to win a decisive victory against La Lumiere. Homecoming Weekend we played Huntely—it was an exciting game in which everyone played admirably. After losing to Williams Bay, we went on to trounce Mooseheart, twice! In the second game against Mooseheart, we played in the pouring rain, which was a most memorable event. We ended on a lower note by losing to lake Forest. However, a 5-4 record is nothing to be ashamed of.

It was exciting to see the entire team performing at the peak of its ability at time, and to see the development of younger talent. The senior class wishes next year's team and the teams to come, the best of luck.

North Shore		Opponent
6	Hebron	14
42	LaLumiere	16
6	Valley Lutheran	0
14	Chicago Christian	16
17	Huntley	0
12	Williams Bay	26
20	Mooseheart	0
0	Mooseheart	0
0	Lake Forest Acadmy	32

3

2

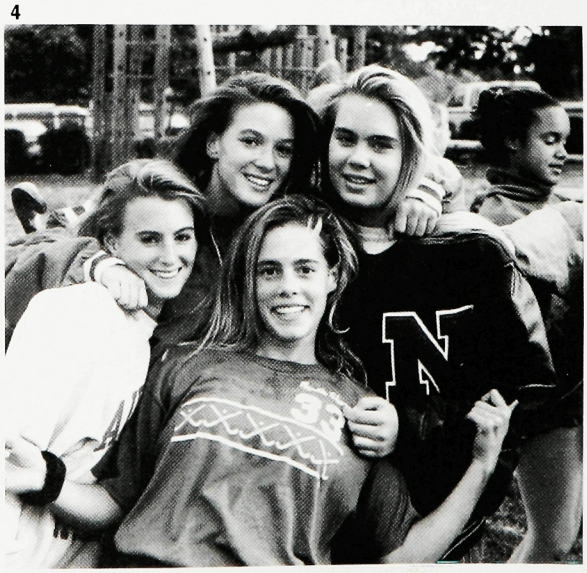

1

4

1. Front row: Miss Madsen, Vanessa Price, Robyn Williams, Angeline Brown, Gigi Farah. Back row: Michaela Murphy, Maggie Price, Katie Czerniawski, Carrie Goldstein, Beth Jacobs, Katie Whittlesey, Carin Healy. 2. This looks like a scene out of A chorus Line. 3. When the ball's not coming her way, Angeline likes to do a little planting. 4. Nice jacket, Ange . . . . 5. Where is Maggie going?

Field Hockey

The Upper School field hockey team, though not being as triumphant as last year's in terms of wins and losses, had a very good season. Though our record (6-12, 4-6 in conference) doesn't seem too impressive, it really doesn't show the improvement, sportsmanship, and general comaraderie shared by the Varsity hockey players.

Because we had only five upperclassmen playing, we were dependent on our freshmen and sophomores, and the confidence and skill they acquired as the season went by was amazing. The fact that we were occasionally forced to play with less than eleven players, didn't help things along.

Of course, we also had a lot of fun this season, as always. From preseason in late August, when all we wanted was to cool down, to regionals in October, when all we wanted was to warm up, we really had a great time . . . and we only had to go to Elgin three times this year!

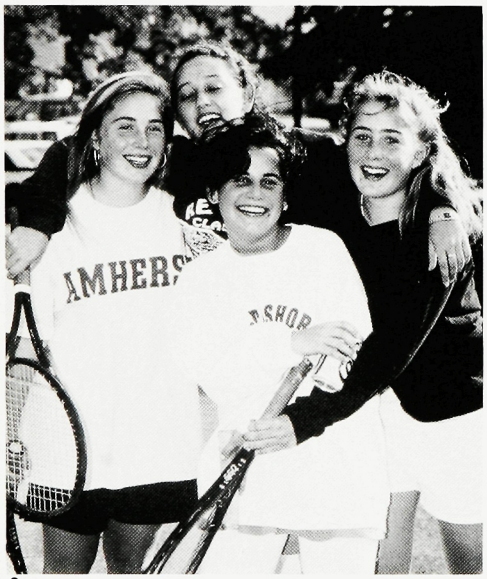

North Shore		Opponent
0	New Trier	4
1	Woodlands	0
0	Deerfield	1
0	Lake Forest Academy	1
3	Francis Parker	1
1	Elgin	3
1	Latin	0
1	Lake Forest Academy	4
1	Elgin	3
0	Francis Parker	1
3	Latin	1
0	Lake Forest Academy	1
3	Woodlands	0
3	Latin	5
1	Elgin	3
0	New Trier	4

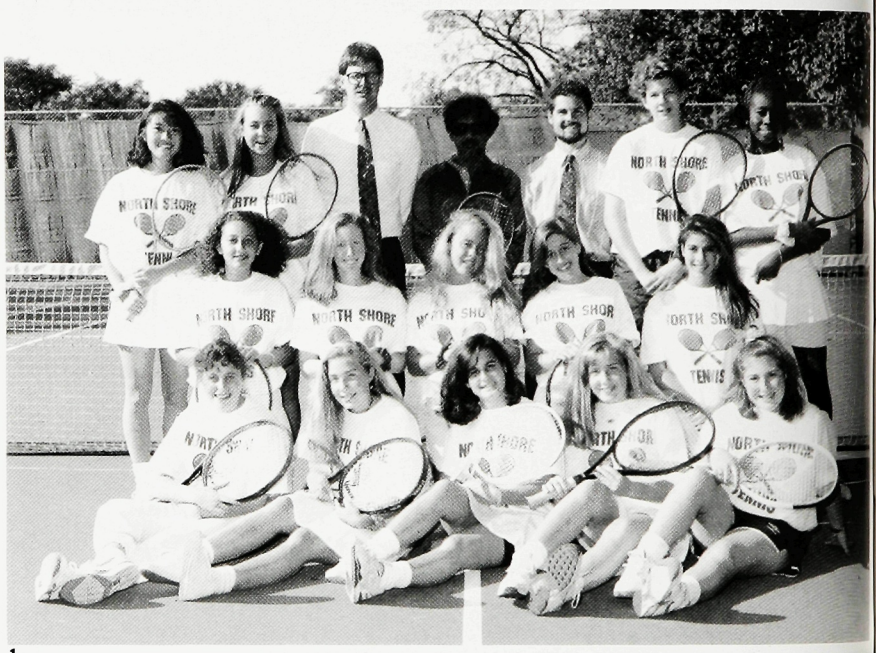

3

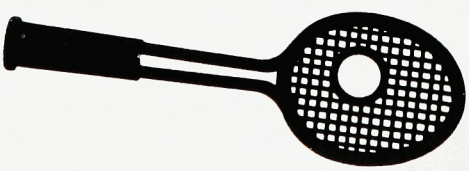

2

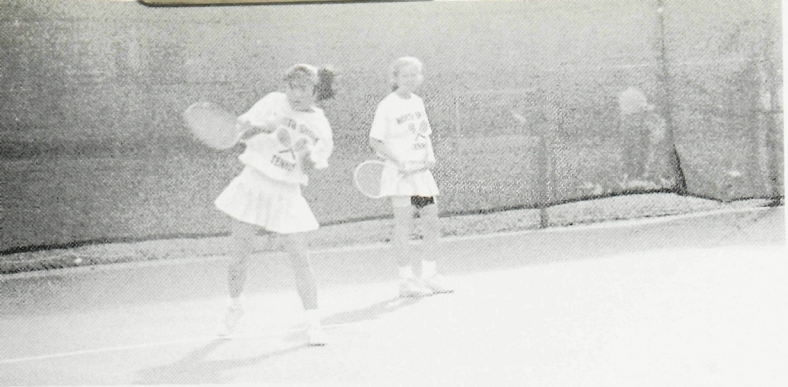

1

1. Front row: Kathy Wolbach, Jessica Bakalar, Carrie Berkowitz, Brooke Bakalar, Alexis Copland. Second row: Gladys Granados, Robyn Goldman, Carrie Price, Katie Davis, Pam Galler. Back row: Akiko Chizawa, Whitney Gorham, Mr. Randolph (nice tie!), the Valster, Mr. D., Kelli Stebel, Stephanie Crumpton. 2. Shouldn't they be practicing or something 3. Is floating above the court allowed? 4. Go, go Gladys! 5. It's just a matter of time before she tips over . . . .

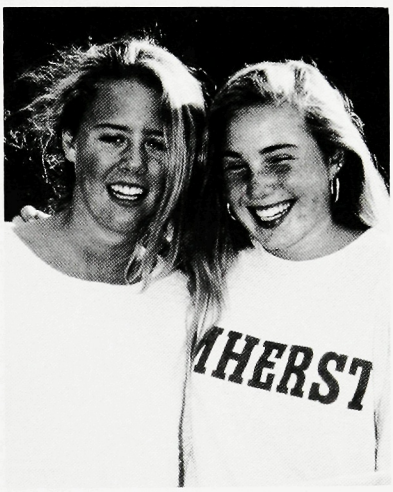

Tennis

This year's girls' tennis team had a fantastic season. True, we may not have won any matches (not a one!), but, as they say, winning isn't everything! After the loss of four key players last year, our team was augmented by several new players (including those freshmen twins). Our fearless leaders, Randolph and Mr. D., were wonderfully supportive and helped us to enter every match with smiling faces and good attitudes.

It would be a tragedy not to mention the ever-famous Val (I don't know his last name), who not only possessed amazing racquet skills, but had an uncanny knack for taking pictures at the most inconvenient times during practices. We will always wonder what happens to those pictures after he develops them! The first annual tennis team dinner was a complete success. The spaghetti that I made for everyone was fantastic, not to mention the wonderful tennis place cards that Carrie Berkowitz made. Wow, quelle artiste! All in all, this was definitely a memorable season. We can only hope that next year we will have a more victorious season, maybe win a match or two, But let's not set our hopes too high!!

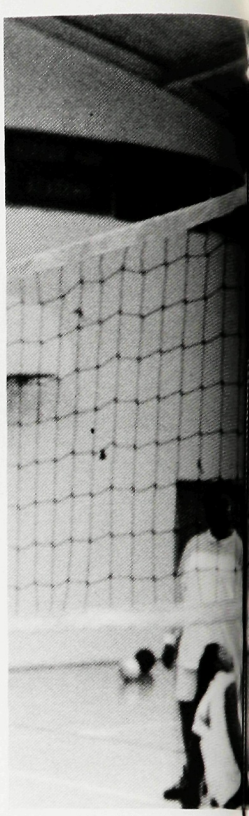

—Robyn B. Goldman, Co-captain

North Shore		Opponent
2	Resurrection	3
1	Latin	4
0	Parker	5
1	LFA	4
2	MPA	3
0	Woodlands	5
0	Elgin	5
0	U-High	5

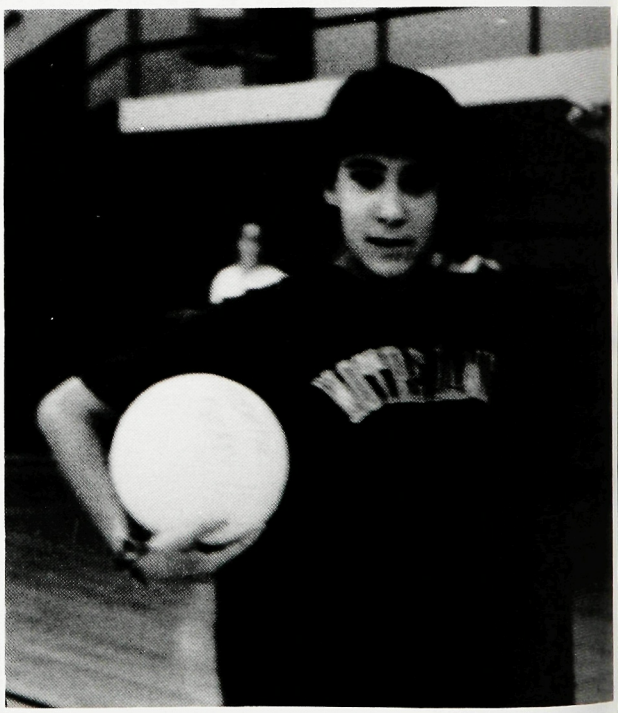

1

3

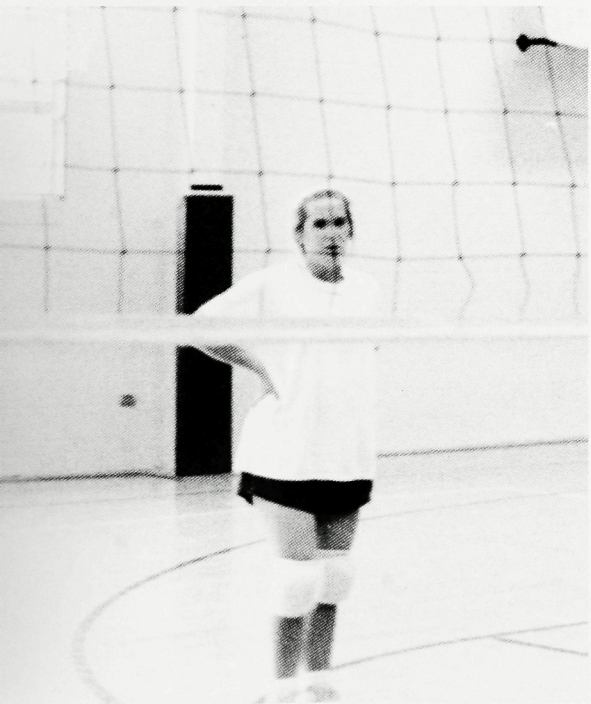

4

US Girls' Volleyball

Whoa-what a year for volleyball! Billed as "the team of the year" on various posters, flyers, etc., the volleyball team definitely proved themselves to be just that. With the return of six seniors (two of those six were not able to play last year, so they were greatly appreciated) and various other team members, plus the addition of several great new freshmen and transfers, Ms. Burbules really whipped them into shape, and Upper School Girls' Volleyball 1991 developed into one of the most victorious teams of recent North Shore history. Their winning streak continued until they were narrowly defeated during the race to make state finals. They're not sure, however, whether they'll be able to continue their incredible record next year, without Mrs. Campos to hype their adrenaline and blood sugar levels!!!

1. Front row: Nadra Kareem, Kamaria Scott, Tory Richardson, Carter Frank, Luisa Godoy, Rachel Wolf, Yemisi Dinkins. Back row: Cindy Hooper, Kanisha McKinney, LeHa Quach, Estelle Campos, Missy Wemstrom, Cathy Burbles. 2. What is Kanisha doing on the ground? And why are there only three people out there, anyway? 3. Is Ale's uniform within the ISL regulations? 4. Stelle the studly, sexy, smiling, volleyball player. 5. Carter is looking oh so very pleased. . . maybe Coach B. hasn't put her in for awhile, huh?

2

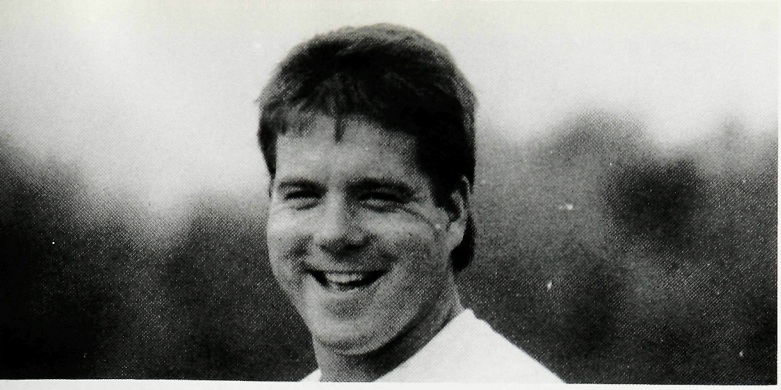

3

1

1. Front row: David "Fish" Fisher, Mark Meiners, Heather Coppock, Eric Gannon, Eugene Kuznetsov, Tom Rankin. Second row: Tim Berger, Irwin Godoy, Jason Butler, Seth McCulloch, Hide Hosono, Maciej Ceglowski. Back row: Gilan Tober, James Moses, Eric Lunding, Justin Wood, David Plazas. 2. That ref might want to move . . . . 3. It looks like Justin's working really hard, huh? 4. Eric; after the team's first game. 5. Eric; after the team's second game. 6. You do the hokey pokey . . . 7. And you turn yourself around!

Upper School Soccer

In all of North Shore's soccer history, we have never had a better coin toss season—10-3—or a better initial record—undefeated after our first game. That's the bright side. The dark side, of course, was twelve losses by scores greater than most of our team could count to. For those who insist on an upbeat tone, the team outlook is at least good. We had a large number of upperclassmen and several juniors playing this year, and we hope that this will make for a more respectable team next fall. We covered defensive and offensive strategies this year, another North Shore first, and with suitable improvement in passing, ball handling, defense, shooting, goal kicks, throw-ins, and goaltending, we should someday be able to have a winning season. I'll personally come watch NSCDS trounce New Trier—right after the Cubs win the pennant.

—Maciej Ceglowski

North Shore		Opponent
3	Morgan Park Academy	1
0	University High	7
0	Lake Forest Academy	9
0	Elgin	9
0	Latin	5
0	Francis Parker	8
0	Elgin	9
1	Morgan Park Academy	4
0	Francis Parker	8
0	University High	7
0	Lake Forest Academy	4
0	Roycemore	3
0	New Trier (sectionals)	11

US Boys' B-Ball

This year's basketball teams may not have lived up to the glories of the Rosenberg Era, but they were certainly hard working and aerial. The first few practices involved everyone in finding their own niche on the team ("Who the man? You the man!"), but after the initial rough spots were worn down, the team played respectably. Although our record may not seem to reflect it, our game skills were strong, and the team put out a lot of collective sweat.

Several rising stars have already appeared among the ranks of the Junior Varsity, and in the next few years the coaching staff expects at least thirty-seven inches of cumulative growth, which may finally enable our basketball team to dunk without dragon suit or springboard. And be it Air Tiny, Air Some, Air Ball or Gare Bear "No Air, Don't Care" Meltz, when it comes to air—needless to say, we're full of it.

Remember, kids, next year will be full of surprises. As our current captains, Greg and Scott, become great big hulking seniors, we expect to see some even better b-ball from the boys, assisted by their entourage of fellow upcoming seniors, a veritable plethora of underclassman recruits. Never say never—Upper School Boys' Basketball will reign supreme!

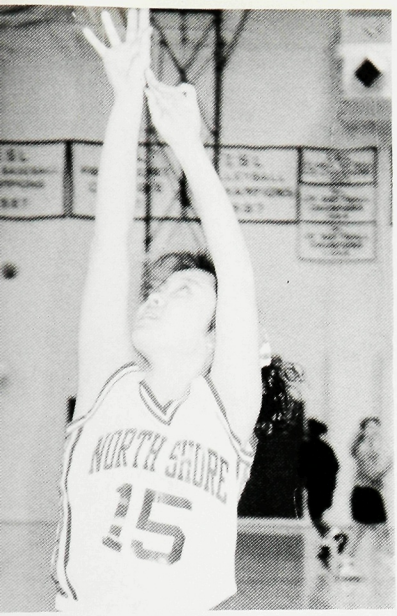

1993
ISL
SOFTBALL
CHAMPIONS

NORTH SHORE
15
NORTH SHORE

44

US Girls' Basketball

The Lady Raiders of 1991-92 went into the basketball season eagerly and excitedly. The basketball camp which many of us attended taught us a lot of new plays, and left us anxious for the season to start. Even though we lost four seniors and a junior guard, we knew it wouldn't affect us too badly, because our team had amazing chemistry—and talent. When the season did start, it was with a double victory over Willows and Roycemore in a tournament.

Our confidence and unity grew after we defeated Holy Trinity, who had beaten us in last year's regionals. After that victory, we had some small upsets, but we got back in the groove when we destroyed Ida Crown right before Winter Break. Upon our return, we played extremely well against St. Gregory, revealing our true potential. With our strong ability, and lots of enthusiasm, we were able to beat Elgin (our rivals from last year), and were seeded third in our region.

The 1991-92 season was one of growth, bonding, and excellent success for the Lady Raiders. We have seen our friendships grow, and the whole team had truly learned the concept of playing with "heart!"

Middle School

Sports

Middle School Football

Middle School Football had an interesting and exciting year, as usual. With the help of our coach Eric Lunding—who generously took time off from his busy schedule coaching Upper School Soccer—we really improved our game over the season. Working on everything from defense to offense to throwing to catching, we had a lot of fun during our practices. While we may not have won all our games, we always played our best, and had a great time doing it.

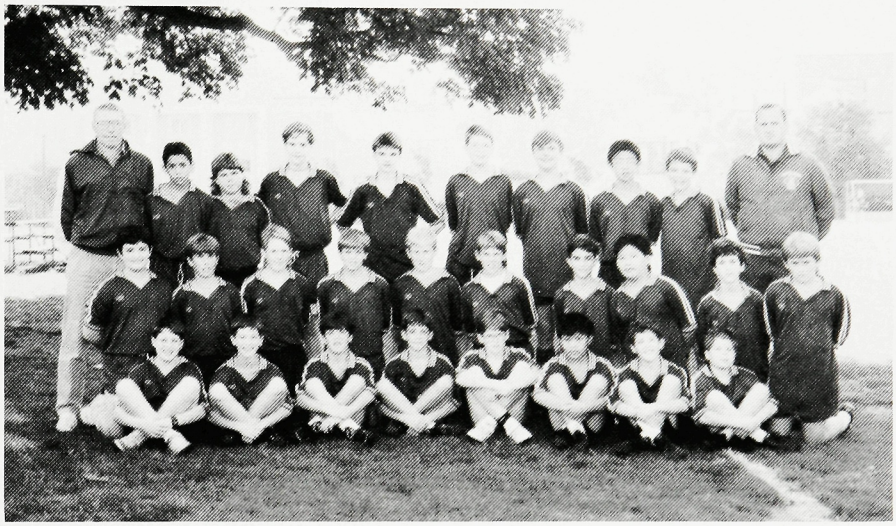

Middle School Soccer

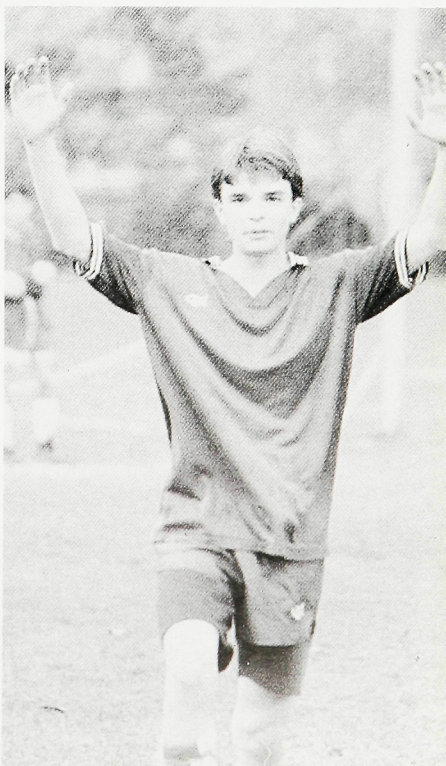

Middle School Soccer was, as always, simply a thrilling experience. As the season progressed, we truly improved quite dramatically. We even won our first three games—yeah! At the end of the season, we had a most impressive record of 7-9-1, and we felt really quite proud of ourselves. A lot of this pride came about because this year's team improved much more in the course of a few months than most of the other Middle School Soccer teams in years past. We're hoping that, with a little luck and a lot of hard work, next year's team will be even more successful than this year's!

Middle School Field Hockey

Middle School Field Hockey had an interesting couple of months in the fall of 1991! As the season progressed, our coach, Edee Madsen, helped us with all aspects of our game—offensive strategies, defensive strategies, scoring goals, perfecting dodges, doing cheers at the beginning of games, arguing with officials, sabotaging the other teams . . . no, no, no, just kidding. Really, we had a great season in all the games we played, we could sense our improvement in all our techniques. We won some and lost some, but we always did our best. Our scrimmage against the Upper School team was great, as we seemed to pose more of a threat than they thought we would! Anyway, we really hope that the field hockey season in 1992 is as much fun!

Middle School Volleyball

The Middle School Volleyball team had a very difficult season. Although we had a heartbreaking record of 0-7, we still improved tremendously. With many new players and a lot of team spirit we nudged our way through the season. The sixth and seventh grade teams, led by captains Katie Drake and Kirsten Searle, and the eighth grade team, led by captains Katie Todd and Ellen Berry, worked hard at improving skills and raising spirits. Although our season was disappointing, we had a great time and we were well coached by Cathy Burbules (otherwise known as Ms. B). All of us should be proud of the effort we put forth as a team. Nice work, girls!

Middle School Boys' Basketball

Middle School Boys' Basketball, though they may not have won all our games, definitely had a great season. With the help of Coach Lunding, they feel that they definitely improved their games a lot, so even when they did lose, they knew in their hearts that they played really well. These hard-working pre-adolescent (with some 13-year-olds) athletes practiced every day, working on passing, dribbling, shooting, free throws, and various other things that involve basketball, and they enjoyed it, too! Who wouldn't? The 1991-92 season will definitely be one to remember for all the male Middle School basketball players.

Middle School Girls' Basketball

The Middle School Girls' Basketball team had some interesting, educational, and generally thrill-inducing experiences during the 1991-92 season. With the guidance of Edee Madsen and Cathy Burbules, these female Michael Jordan wanna-be's assembled every single day to advance their knowledge of this dribbling sport. And advance they did! These female sports fanatics were divided into two teams, and, from there, they played their little hearts out. They won, they lost, perhaps they even tied a game or two, but they always had a marvelous time—and that's what really counts in the end, isn't it?!!

Sports

Thanks, Interns and Welcome, Mr. Feldman!

Serena Hartig
2nd Grade

Cindy Proctor
1st Grade

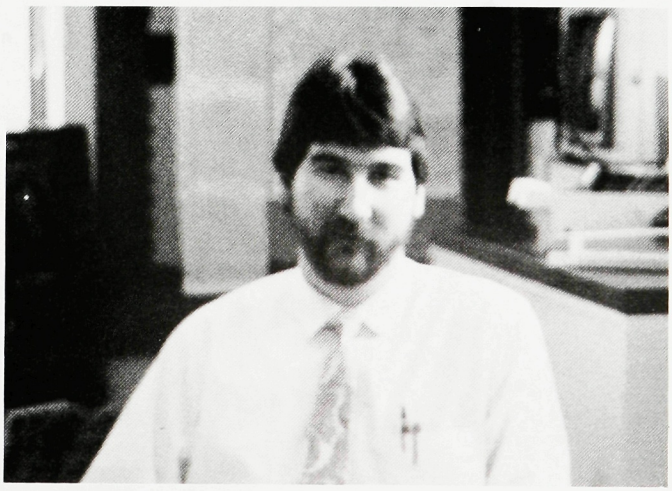

Nancy Bevis
3rd Grade

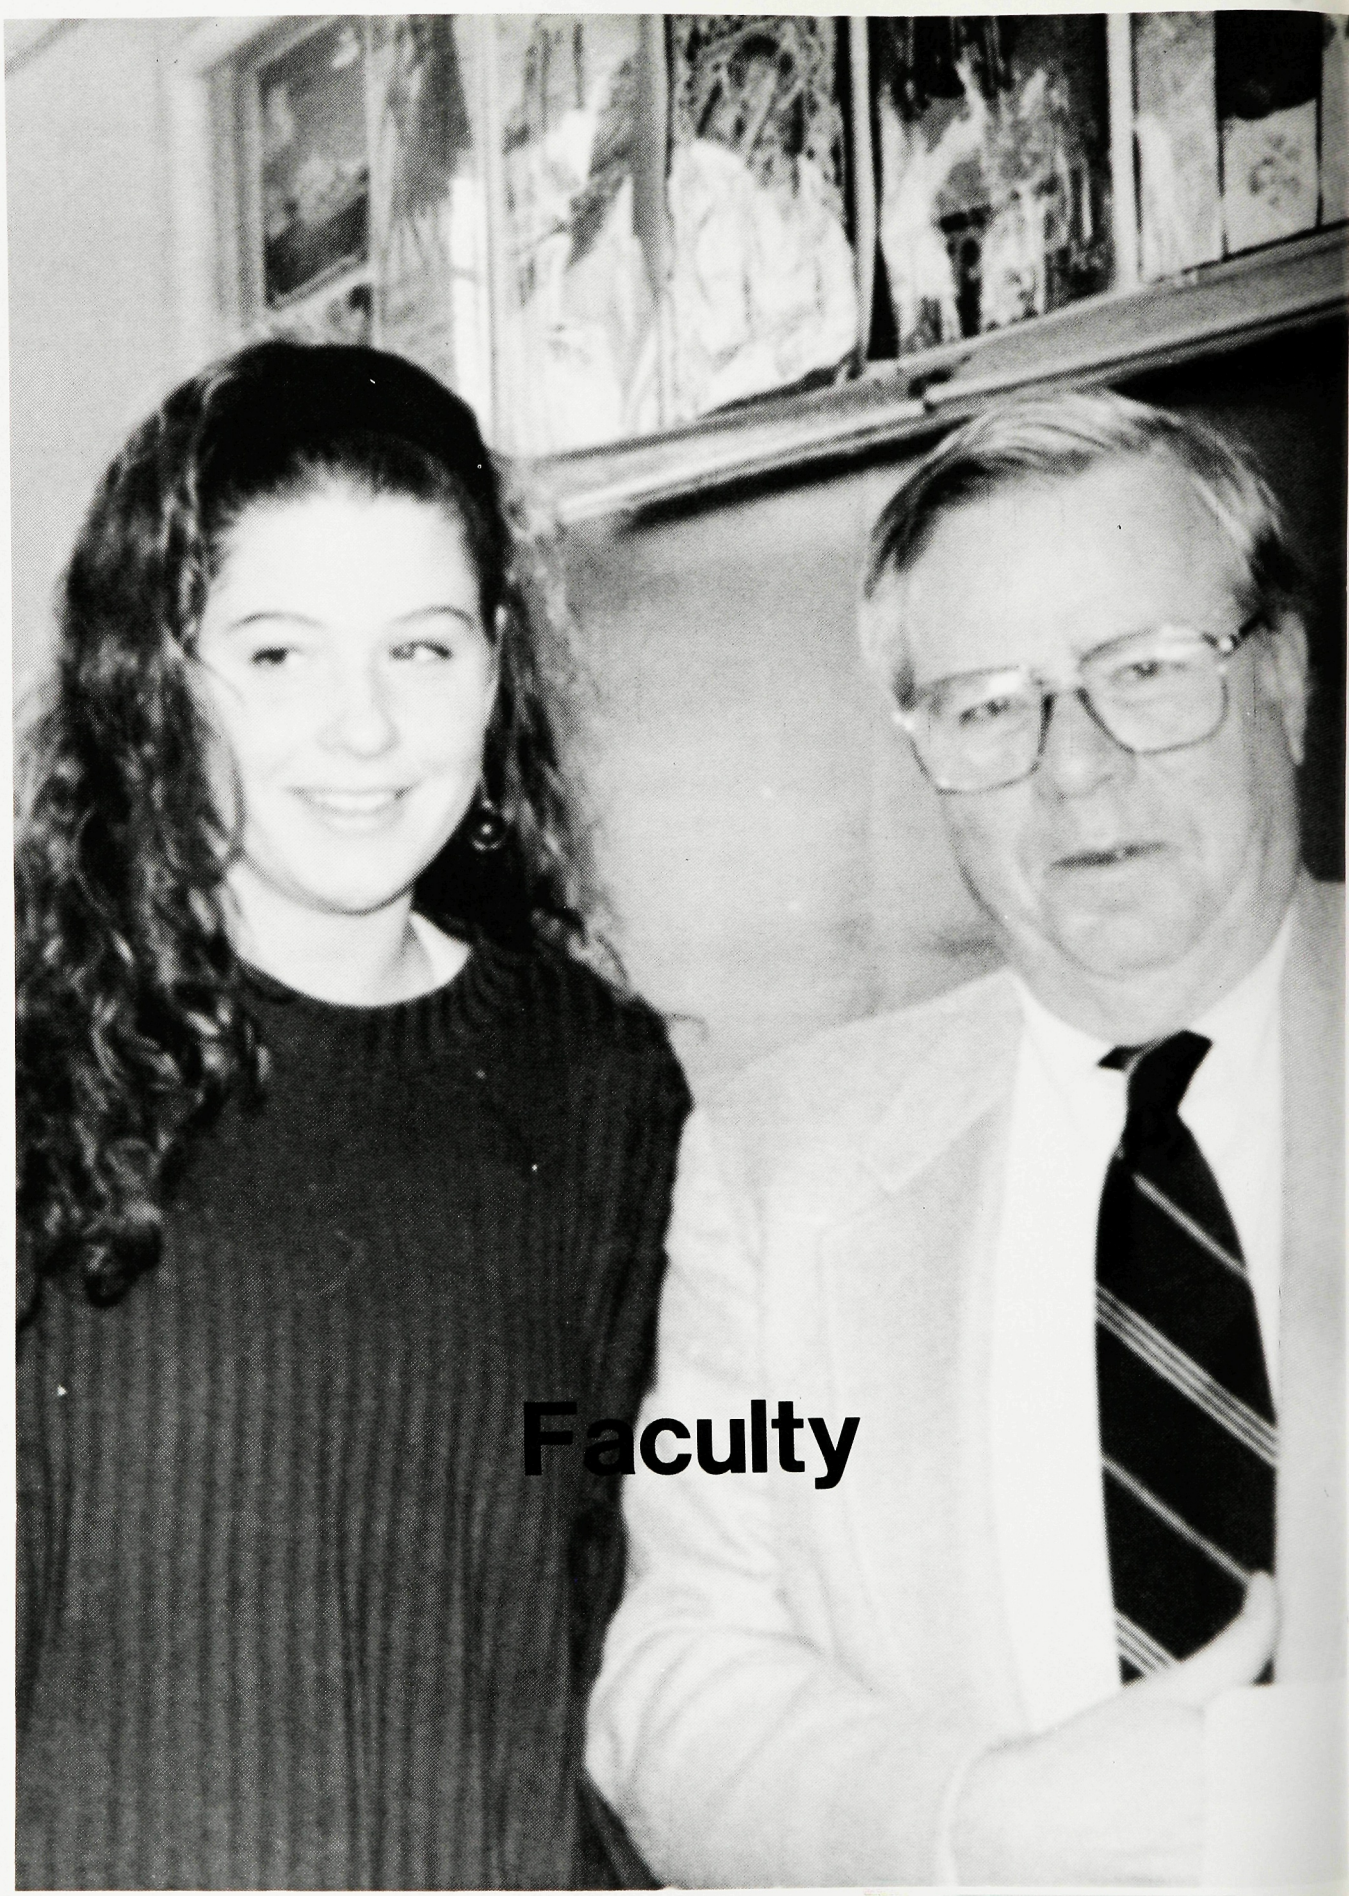

Polly Williams
4th Grade

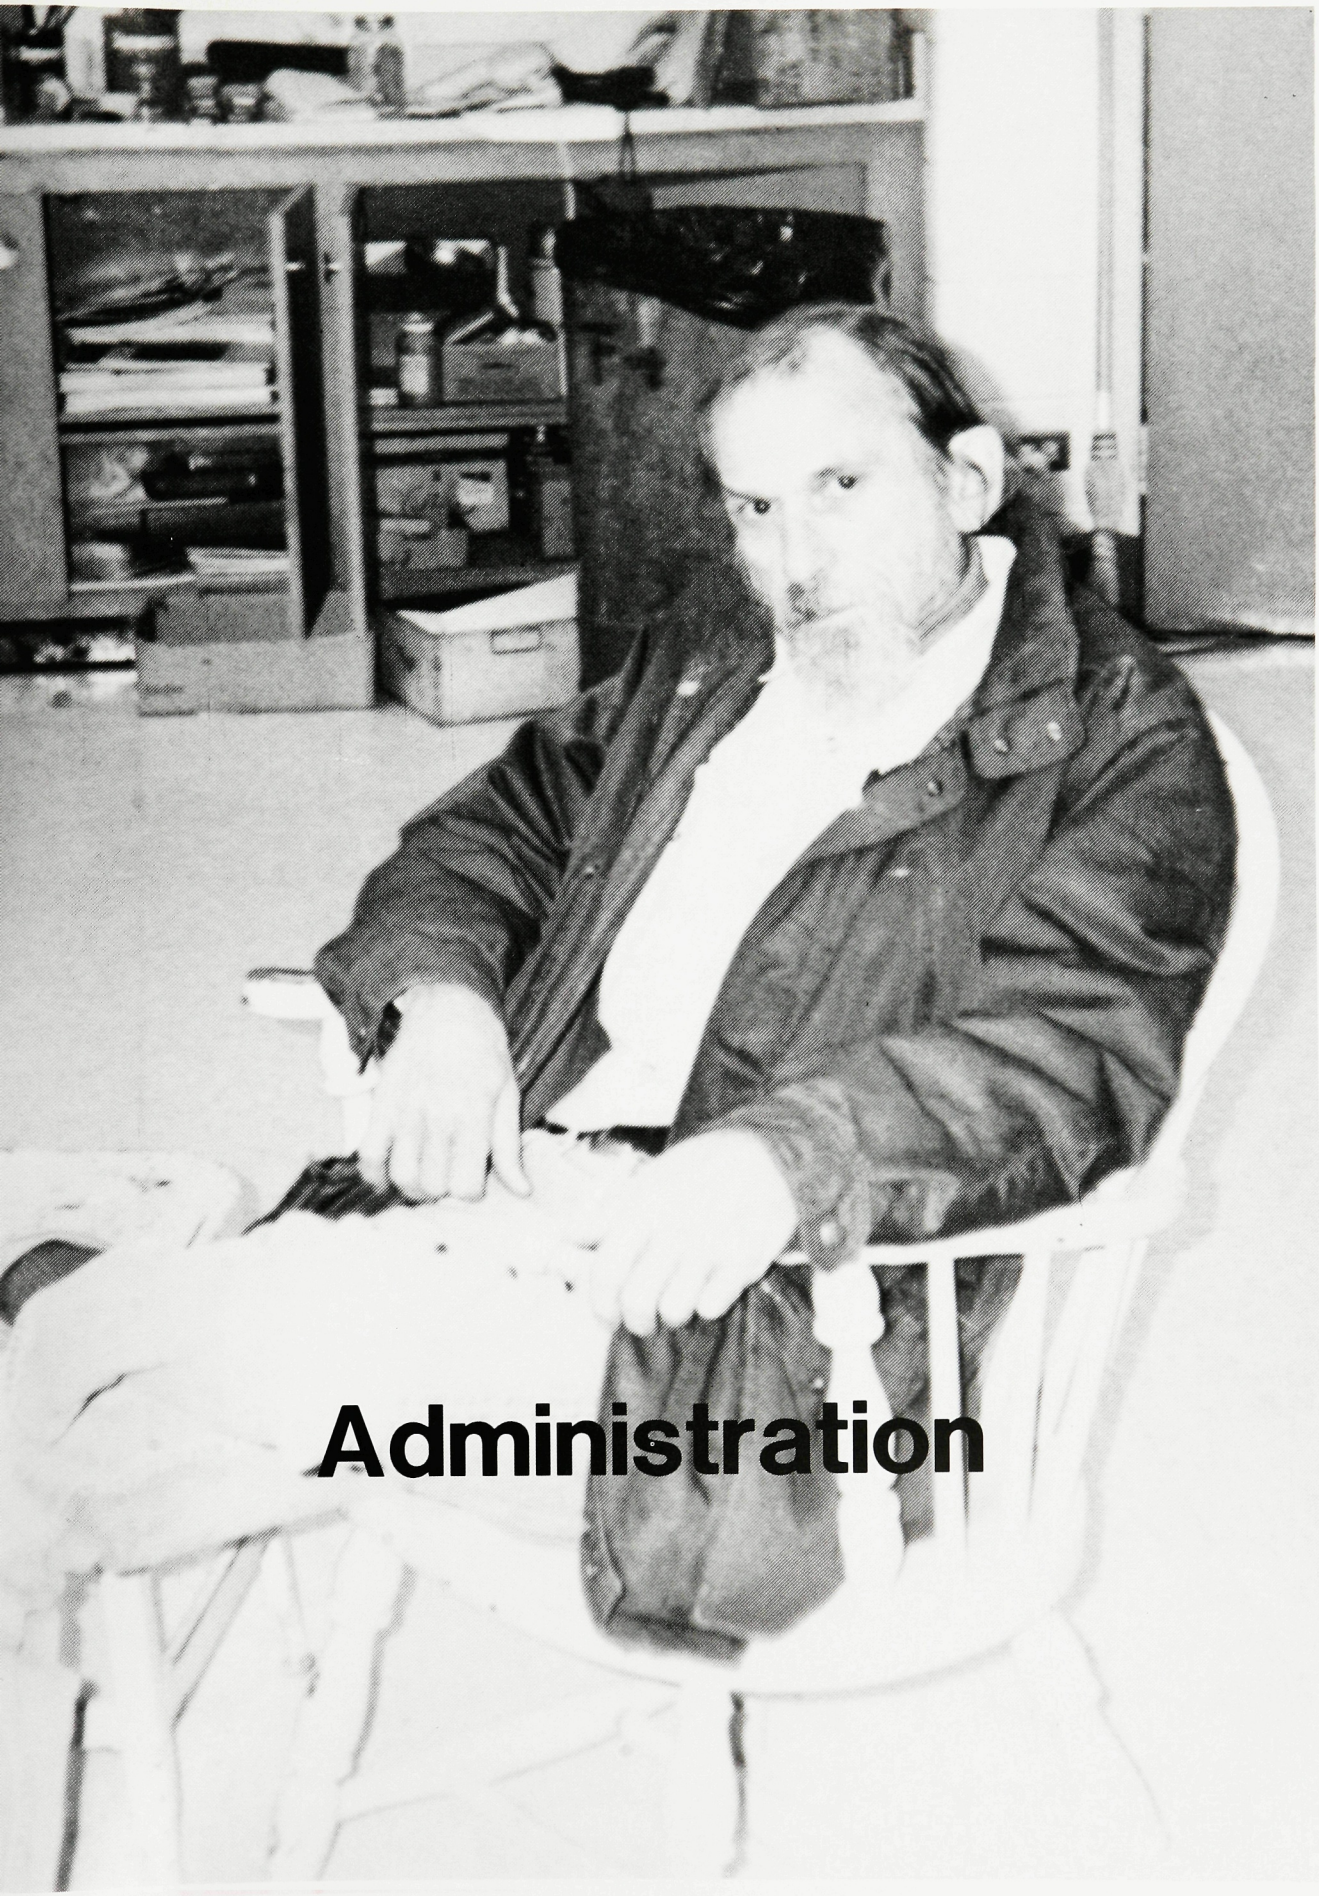

Jeni Synder
5th Grade

David Feldman
5th Grade Head

Faculty

Administration

Administration

Deane Lanphear
Headmaster

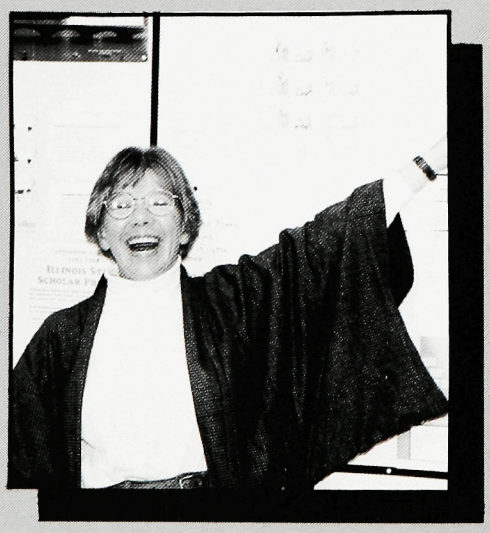

Barry Coppock
Upper School Head

Carolyn Howard
Director of Admissions

Bob Beerheide
Business Manager

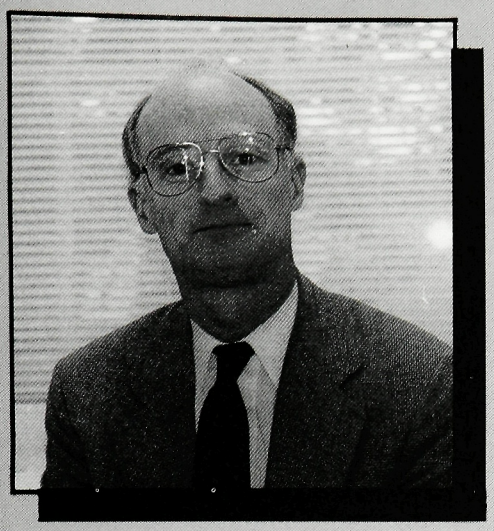

Sharon Stafford Cooper
Head of College Counseling

Liz Hunt
Administrative Assistant

Administration

William B. Hinchcliff
Alumni Coordinator

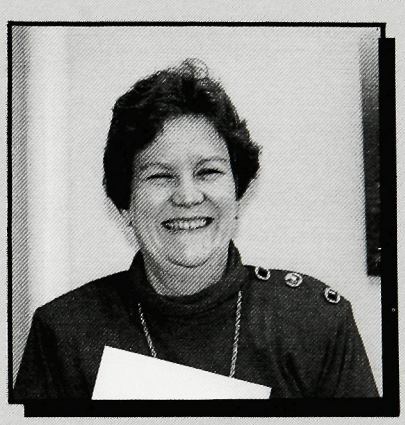

Mark Stafford
Director of Marketing

Joan Palm Johnson
Coordinator of Publications

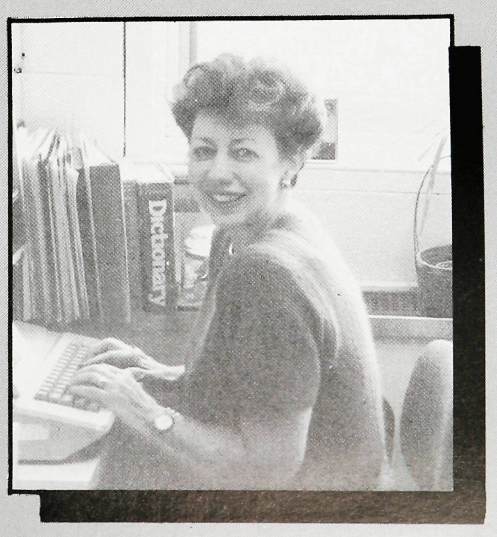

Sharon Dole
Administrative Assistant to Headmaster

Nancy Jones Emrich
Director of Development

Zaro Bagheshian
Assistant to Business Manager

Sherry Gormanous
LS/MS Administrative Assistant

Administration and Staff

Leslie Trainer
Head Librarian

Anne Whittlesey
Bellringer Coordinator

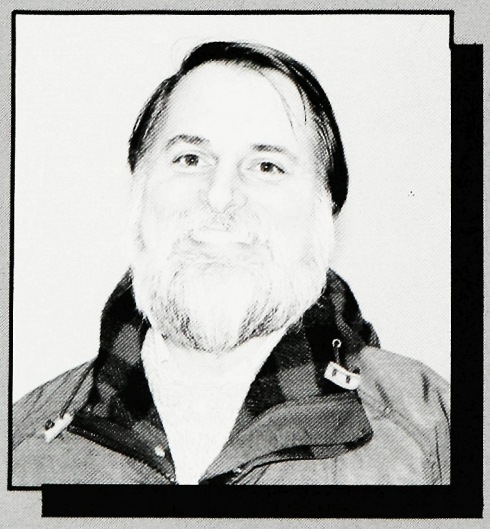

Jane Burns
Library Volunteer

Judy Alexander
Development/Alumni Office Secretary

Irene Sheehan
Switchboard

Jack Wolter
Computer Science Department Head

Lorri Braidman
Admissions and Marketing Secretary

Lower School Faculty

Marcia Geer
Head of Lower School

Linda Gibson
Lower School Music

Emily Denesha
Lower School Reading Specialist

Mary Wagner
Lower School Art

Brigid Rupp
LS and MS Receptionist

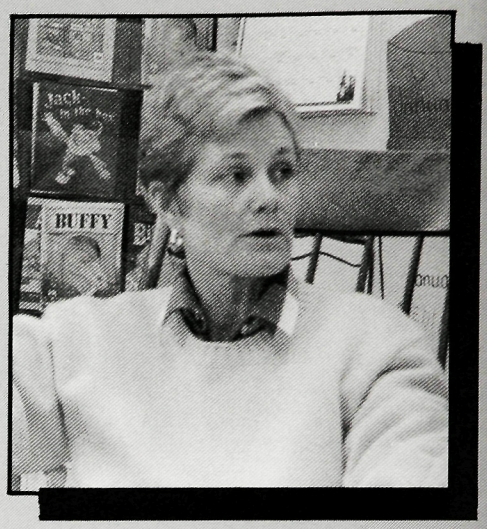

Shirley Cullen
Lower School Science

Lower School Faculty

Patricia Washburn
Kindergarten Head

Susan Arthur
Kindergarten Assistant

Carol Ann Smith
Senior Kindergarten

Linda Semel
Lower School Art

Caroline Weisberg
Kindergarten Volunteer

Lower School Faculty

Carol Abelmann
First Grade Head

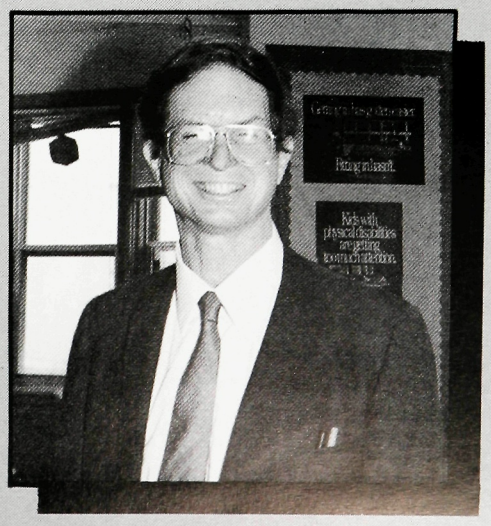

Lynda Wood
Second Grade Head

Laura Ben-Shimon
Third Grade Head

Sarah Opdycke
Fourth Grade Head

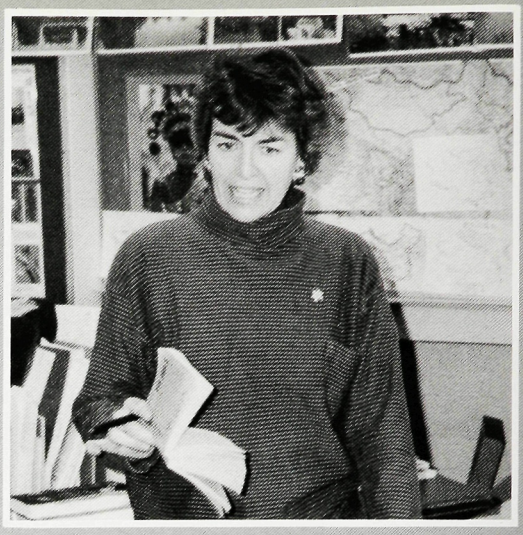

William Neis
Fifth Grade Head

Middle School Faculty

Raymond Jay Fry
Head of Middle School

Mary Roden
Eighth Grade Head
MS English and Social Studies

Susan Gundlach
MS English, Seventh Grade Head

Anna Marie Voight
Sixth Grade Head
MS English and Social Studies

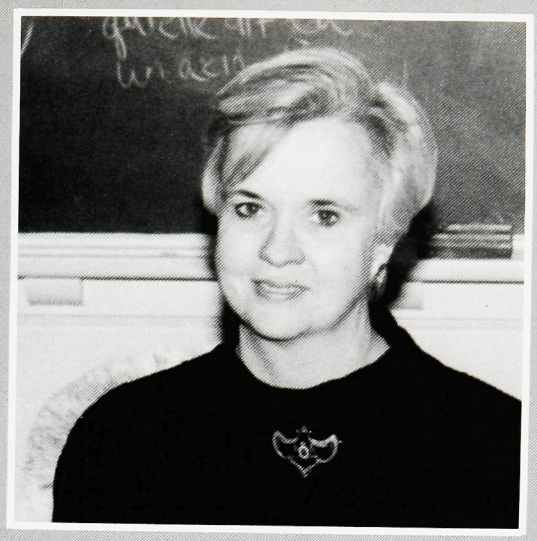

Sherry Gormanous
LS and MS Administrative Assistant

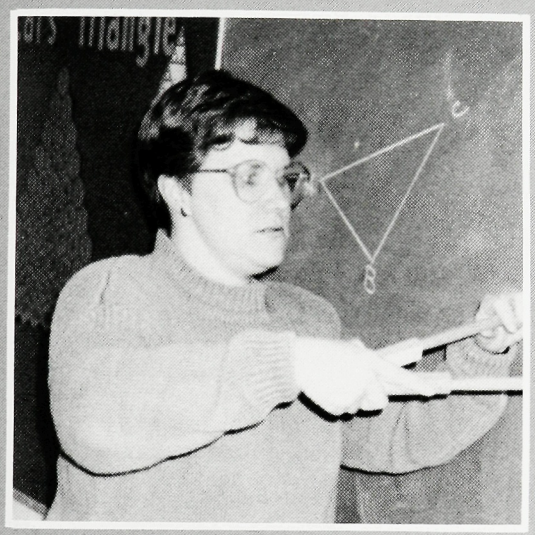

Cynthia Hooper
MS Social Studies

Bonnie Hanover
MS French

Adrienne Weiss
MS French

Vanessa Kellerman
MS Mathematics

Barbara Zeien
Sixth Grade Math/Science

Judy Tatar
MS Learning Specialist

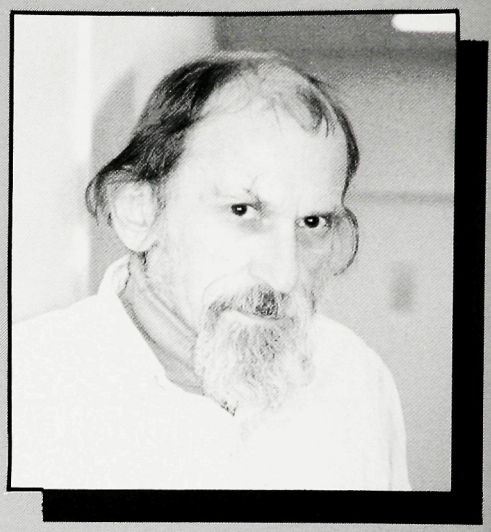

Jan Migaki
MS Science

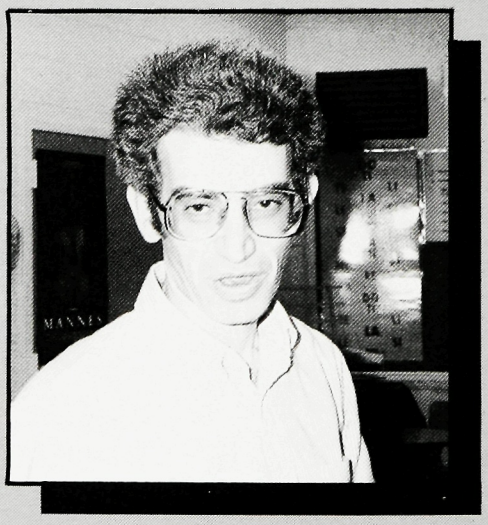

Arts: Performing, Musical, Technical., Etc.

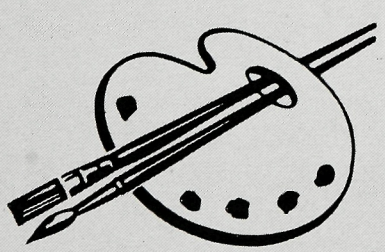

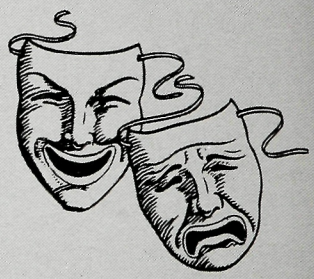

Jackie Melissas
US MS Art

John Almquist
Arts Department Head
US Art

Daniel Wallenberg
MS, US Music

Lisa Tomoleoni

Patrice Whitten

Foreign Language

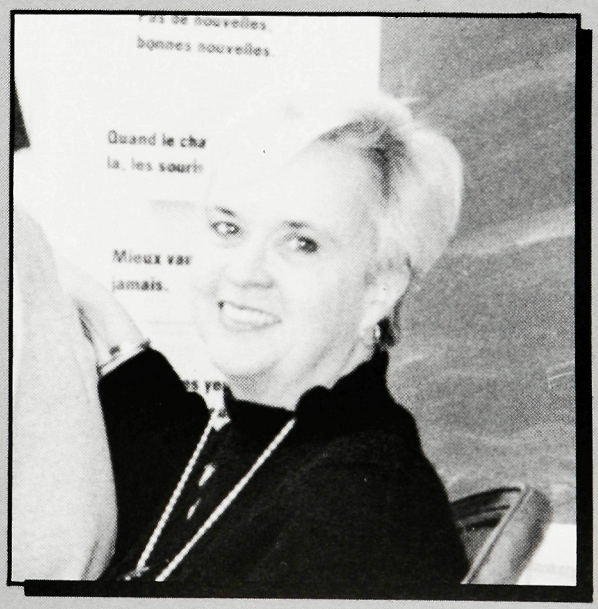

Adrienne Weisse
MS/US French

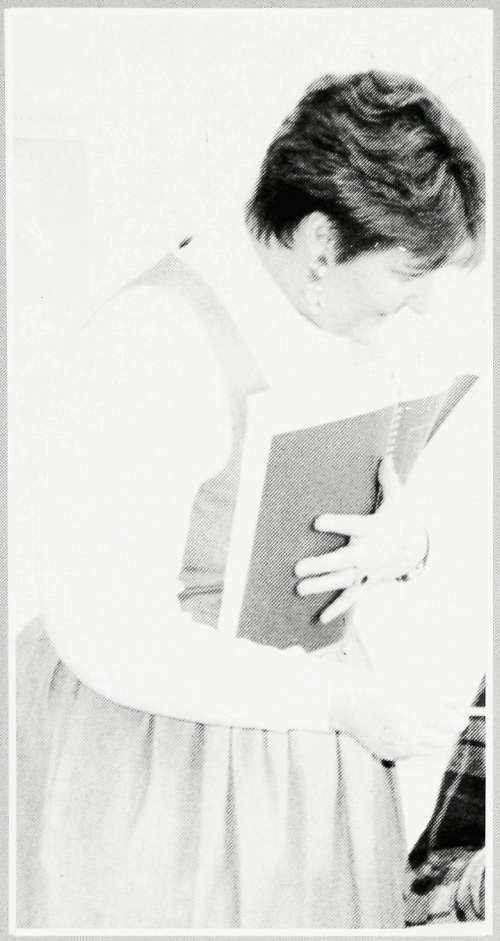

Alisha Betancourt-Mullen
US Spanish

Joyce Lopas
Foreign Language Department Head
US French

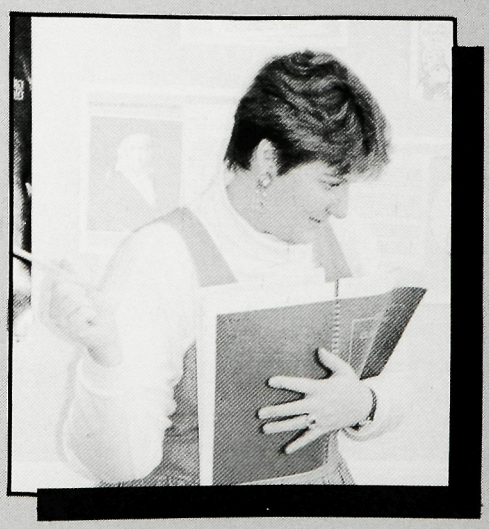

Mathematics

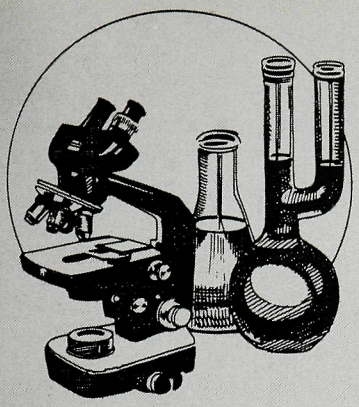

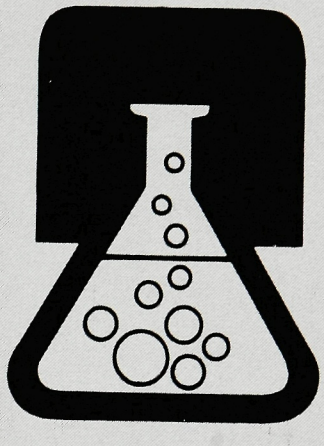

Beth Foster
Algebra, Geometry, Precalculus

Shirley Smith
Mathematics Department Head
US Math

Science

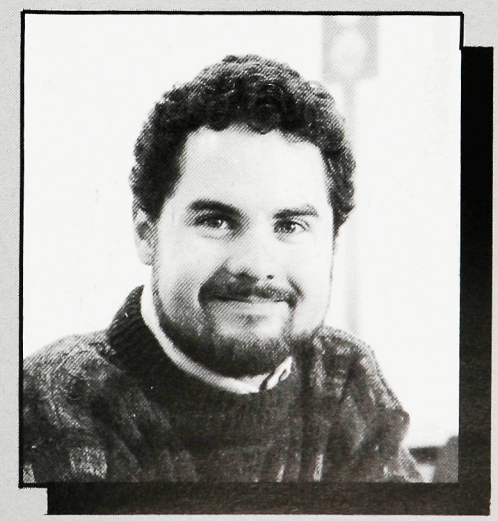

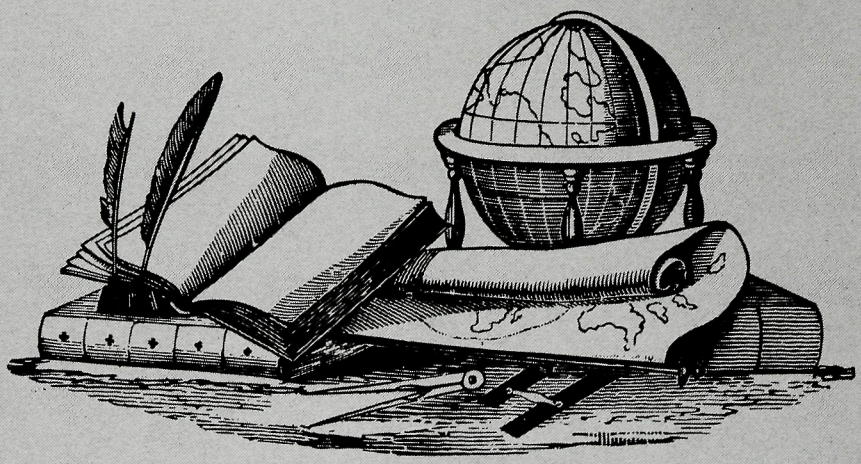

Dean Sexton
Science Department Head
US Science

Tom Donovan
Biology, Physics

History

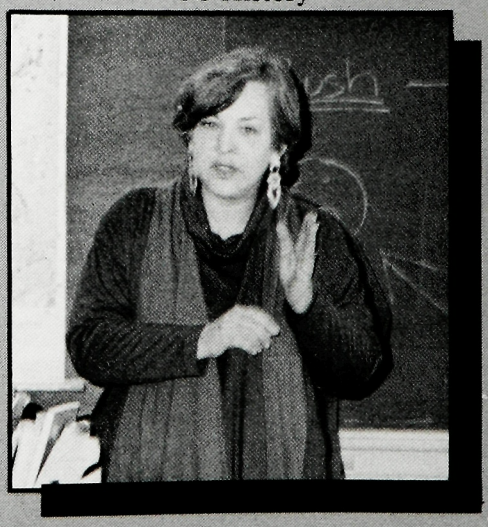

Jack Ingram
Constitutional Law/Economics

Kevin Randolph
History Department Head,
US History

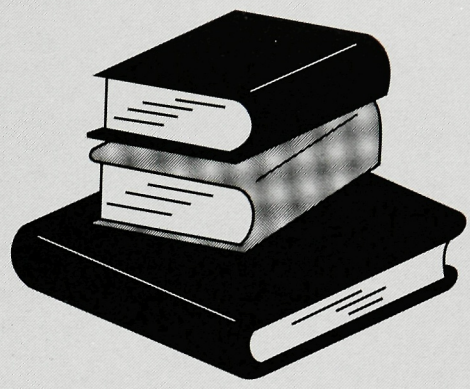

Cindy Hooper
World Civilizations 1

Joyce Lopas
Global Issues

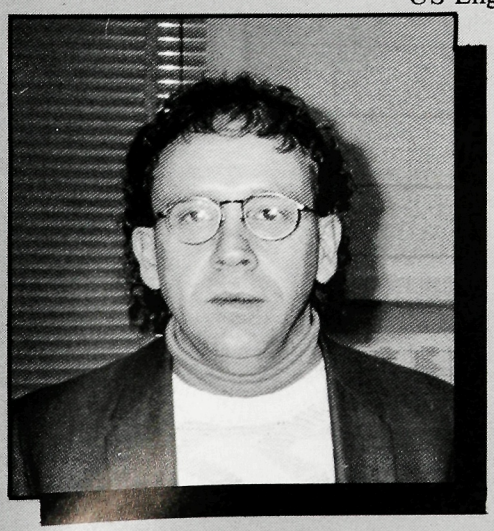

English

Sue Gundlach
English Department Head, MS,
US English

Michael Conroy
English 12, AP English

Amy Peters
English 10, English 11

Physical Education

Cathy Burbules

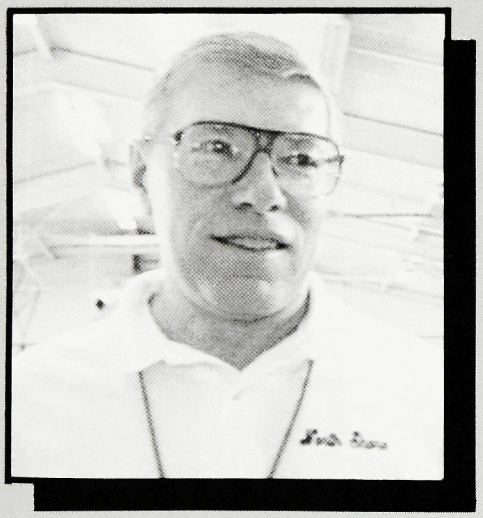

Jim Deuble

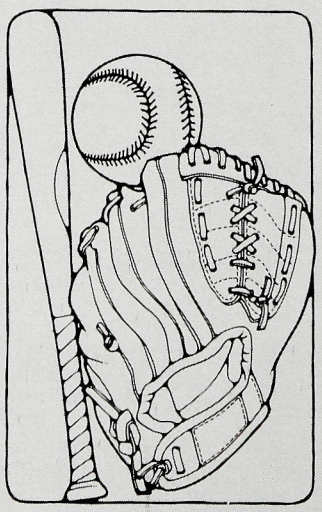

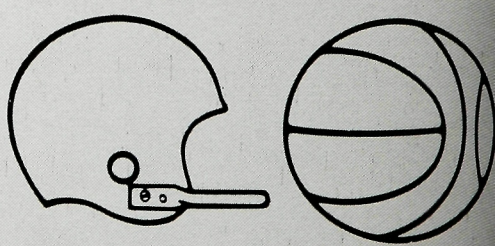

Edee Madsen

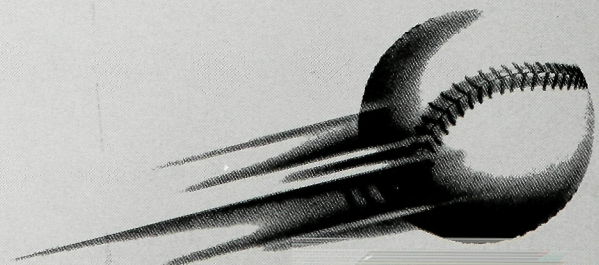

Jay Bach

Maintenance

George Mitchell

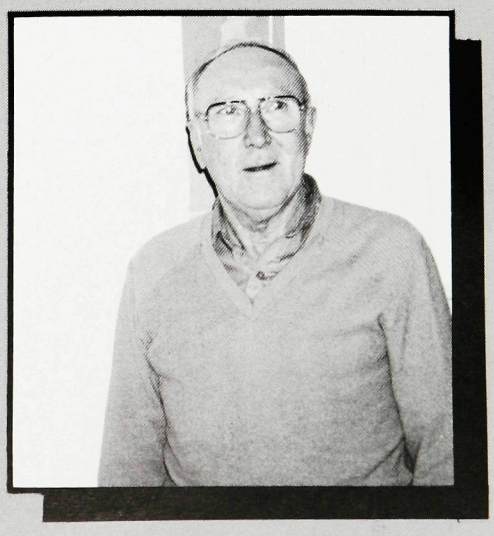

Evee Kruckenberg

The Cafeteria Staff displays the cuisine

Roy Tunis

Joseph Dragula

Lower

School

KINDERGARTEN

The most important thing about Junior Kindergarten is . . .
. . . learning.—Kevin
. . . going to P.E.—Marissa
. . . Cinnamon Bear.—Jason
. . . reading stories.—Todd
. . . playing outside.—Cole
. . . getting friends.—Connie
. . . eating healthy snacks.—Harley
. . . playing.—Molly
. . . the jungle gym.—Lizzie
. . . not playing with weaponry.—Chip

Front row: Elizabeth Cohn-Martin, Chesney Jorn, Kevin Costello, Chip Emrich, Todd Searle; Second row: Nell Maltman, Molly Oldeen, Cole Lundquist, Connie Croghan, Harley Hutchins; Third row: David Munk, Harris Pasettiner, Ashleigh Cross, Jason Patinkin, Chelsea Vasques. Back row: Mrs. Semel, Mrs. Washburn. Absent: Sarah Finlay, Marisa Lefton, Daniel Major.

The most important thing about SK is . . .
. . . you meet new friends.—Jamie
. . . you share . . . —Rachel
. . . taking care of other people at NSCDS.—Carlos
. . . you learn things.—Ryan
. . . you have lunch recess.—Emily
. . . you learn how to write.—Evan
. . . you are more grown up.—Alex
. . . it feels great to be in Senior Kindergarten!

Front row: Clive Thompson, Ryan Randolph, Brian Fisher, Carlos Boettcher, Evan Bernick, Alex Kerr. Second row: Jamie Maltman, Rebecca Lockhart, Rachel Newman, Emily Herzberg, Elizabeth Jameson. Third row: Stephanie Vorhees, Megan Lepman, Rebecca Ochs-Mercer, Edie McClenahan, Kendall Wirtz, Anne Levy. Fourth row: Matthew Leck, Jack Meadow, Kiran Pydisetty, Sean Gilmore, Vijay Nair. Back row: Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Arthur. Absent: Ben Bezark, Olivia Geyelin.

FIRST

Front row: Annie Hambleton, Stephen Cooperman, Christina Yoon, Henry Gaud; second row: Carly Gerstman, Kris Oldeen, Cory Zuganelis, Abby Smith, Megan Hill; third row: Sam Rome, Amyna Esmail, Adam Patinkin, Mariana Gerolimatos, Michael Velcich; fourth row: Sarah Mirza, Kristen McCurdy, Emily Widmer, Robert Dorr, Stephanie Gilmore; fifth row: Andrew Hill, Eric Rippin, Naomi Tomiyama, Daniel Marx; back row: Mrs. Abelmann, Miss Proctor.

"Polar bear, polar bear, what do you hear,
I hear the First Grade had a great year!"

First Graders met with Eric Carle and Bill Martin, Jr., author and illustrator of the favorite "Teddy Bear, Teddy Bear, What Do You See?" and the sequel, "Polar Bear, Polar Bear, What Do You Hear?" on a visit to Kroch's and Brentano's Book Store in September. Bill Martin read his story to the children and both Carle and Martin autographed the books. This was one of many highlights of first grade.

The children also enjoyed a trip to Green Meadows Farm where they rode ponies, held baby ducklings and bunnies, and milked a cow. This group of travelers went to an apple orchard, the O'Hare Hyatt Hotel, Harris Bank, the Post Office, and a travel agency, to name a few stops on their agenda!

They traveled far and wide with their families, and they brought back memories to share with the class in their travel reports. They sailed with explorers in their study of the Vikings, Marco Polo, Jacques Cousteau, and John Glenn. They created a Viking Ship with swords and shields as they role-played each explorer and then wrote stories of their adventures.

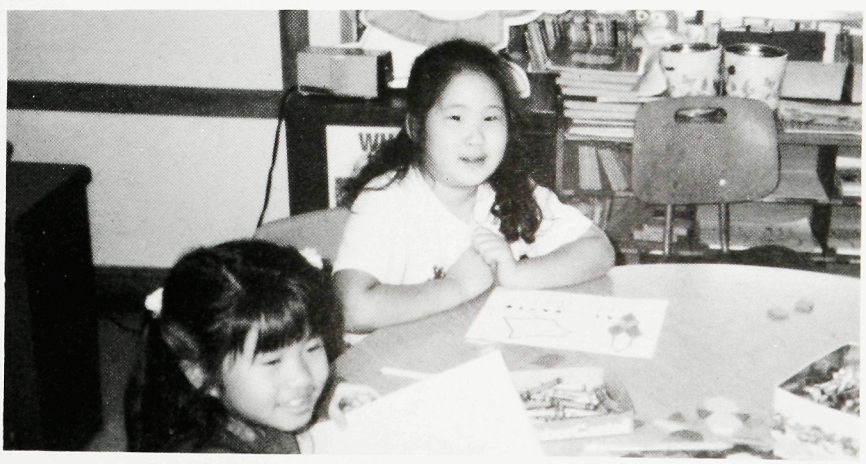

At a Publishers' Party the young authors displayed the books they had written and shared stories with their parents and other guests. This group of young readers and writers did a super job putting their creative ideas on paper.

The first graders were asked "What is special about North Shore Country Day?" Here are some of their responses . . . .

"I like the North Shore Raiders."
—Robert Dorr
"I like the whole school!"
—Cory Zuganelis
"I'm from Los Angeles."—Eric Rippin
"I came to this school because it's a great school."—Stephanie Gilmore
"I like it because it's private."
—Stephen Cooperman
"I like the children in my class."
—Naomi Tomiyama
"I like Country Day because all my teachers are nice."—Amyna Esmail
"I like Country Day because it has gym, science, after-school, and recess."
—Andrew Hill
"I like all sports and the teachers."
—Henry Gaud
"I like reading, printing, and art."
—Abby Smith

SECOND

Front row: Bianca Acacia-Cosgray, Mariana Karampelas, Annabel Topham, Tamara Berkover, Taylor Bayless; second row: Rachel Jaffee, Jennie Star, Dane Lundquist, G.P. Searle, Katie Beaman; third row: Scott Bridgman, Grace Hitchins, Mark Postachini, Taylor Kravitt, Dana Meadow; fourth row: Jenny Campbell, Olivia Buss, Meredith Ochs-Mercer, Ben Wallenberg, Randi Blechman; back row: Miss Hartig, Mrs. Wood.

If I were boss for a day, I would. . .
. . . cancel going to the dentist and math (Katie) . . . have recess all day and play basketball (Ben) . . . eat junk food and cancel school and Jack's singing (Dana) . . . play soccer all day (Grace) . . . play in a swimming pool (Bianca) . . . cancel boys and have lots of homework (Randi) . . . cancel bedtime, no homework, and no sleeping (Dane) . . . cancel everyone except for the boys (Scott) . . . get rid of girls and get a winning lottery ticket (Taylor K.) . . . have opposite rules all day (Tony) . . . have no reading (G.P.) . . . dance and read all day (Annabel) . . . cancel homework and boys (Olivia) . . . cancel bedtime and homework (Meredith) . . . have one million dollars and trade stickers (Rachel) . . . cancel both sisters and the doctor (Jennie) . . . cancel bedtime, brushing my teeth, and my brother (Jenny) . . . have nothing but science and recess the whole day (Taylor B.) . . . have no homework, and I wouldn't have to wake up for school (Mariana) . . . have free books all day (Tamara).

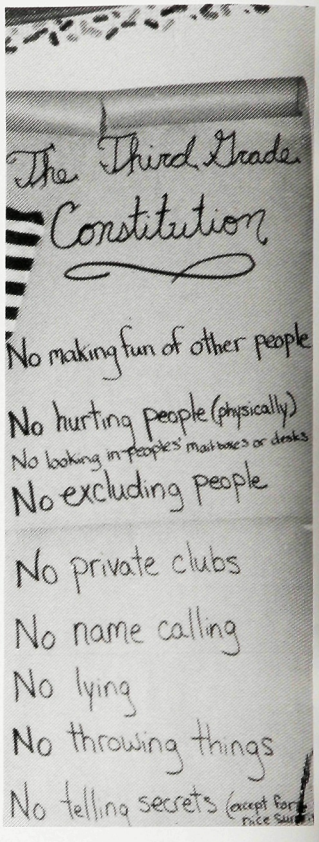

THIRD

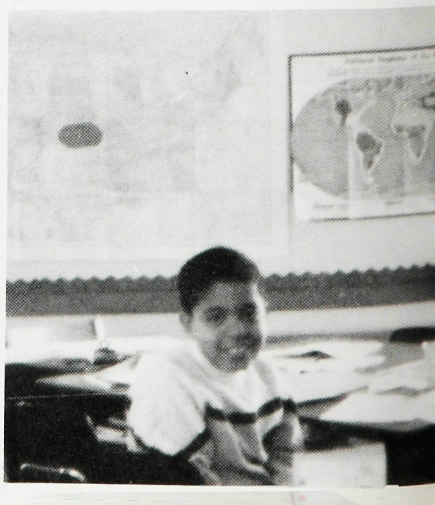

Front row: Laura Sachs, Robin Benowtiz, Andrew Syfu, Leigh Cross, Erica Greene, Kristen Butler; second row: Eri Tomiyama, Jessica Newton, Preeti Sukerkar, Scott McClenahan; third row: Miss Bevis, Talia Ullman, Tori Cavanaugh, Marchant Martinelli, Jackie Siegel, Brian Hercule, Paul Jameson, Rhodri Lane, Steven Radloff, Nick Fera, C.W. McCullagh, Mrs. Ben-Shimon

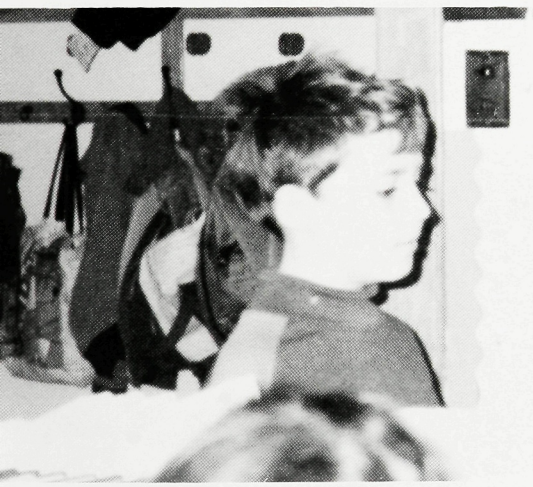

The Third grade is awesome! Some of the things we do in the third grade are; cursive writing, memoirs, Scholastic News and social studies. We also have computer class, taught by the astounding Mrs. Bevis. We have to type twenty words before proceeding to the next level.

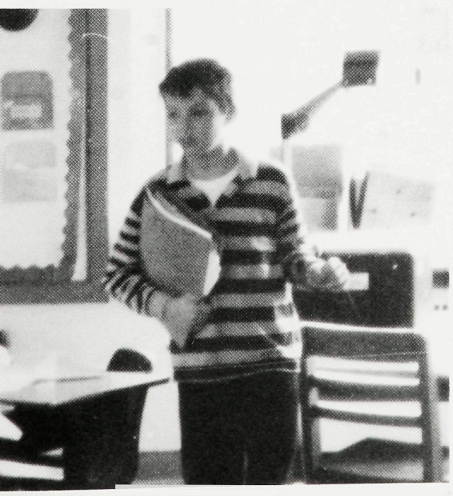

We are awesome adders, super subtracters and we are learning to be mighty multipliers and diligent dividers. We also know that we would rather have 3/2 of a pizza than 2/3 of a pizza.

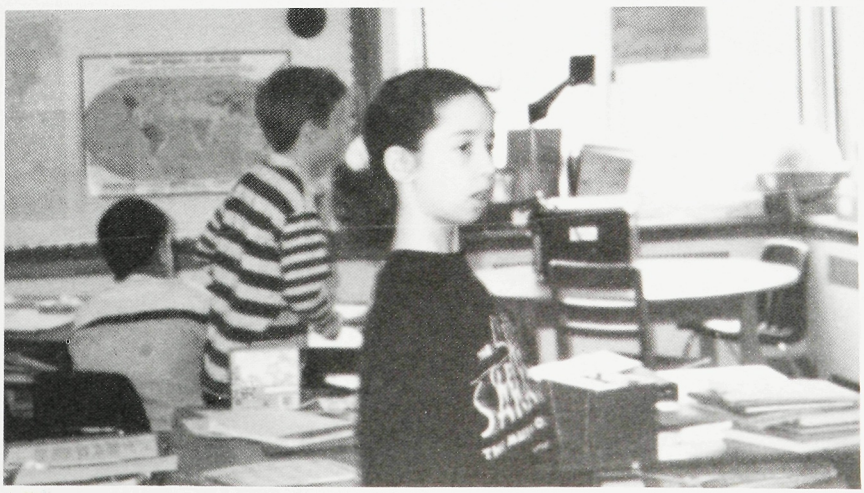

In our class, every week someone becomes "Star of the Week." This very prestigious honor endows someone to bring something in and everyone else must say something nice about it. They pick five things they liked best and those things become five points of a star and a picture of the "Star of the Week" goes in the middle.

Now these are just some of the fun things that go on in the Third grade. We wish everyone could see what fun we have all day, come on in and say "Hi!" next time you are near our classroom. Hope to see you soon!

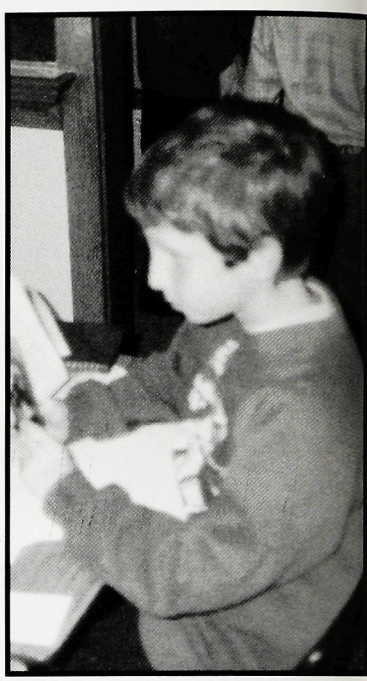

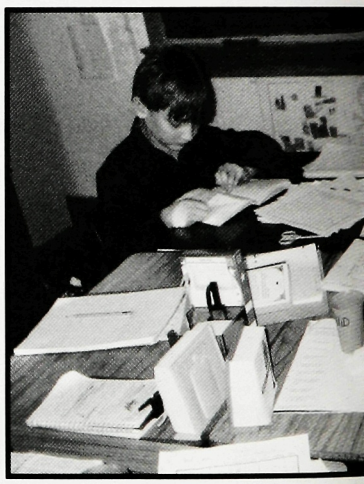

FOURTH

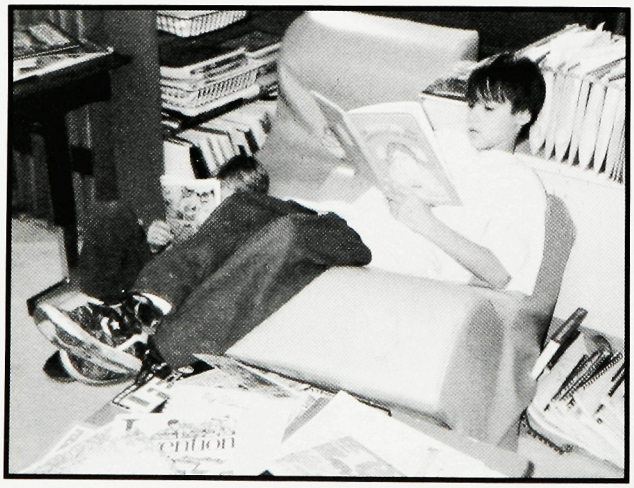

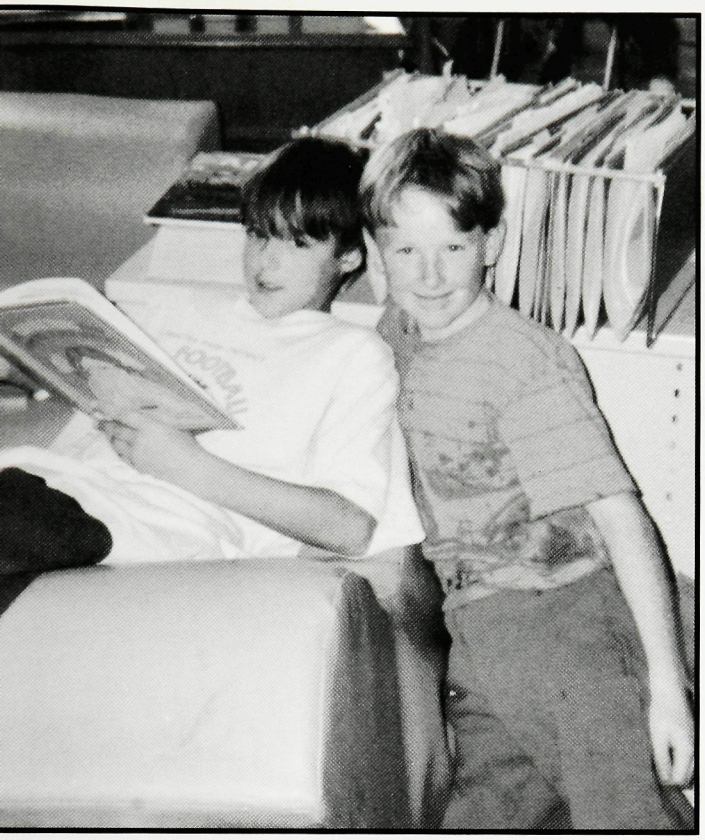

Front row: Chirag Chotalia, Mindy Robin, Zachary Hill, Andy Meyer, David Galvin, Jennifer Brown; Second row: Robert Wagner, Ted Heinz, Michael Lefton, Shane Hoffman, Robby Bearman, Scott Fisher, Carl Hill, Emily Smith; Third row: Mrs. Williams, Stuart Jernigan, Steve Bridgman, Andrew DeYoung, Nicole McCurdy, Michael Bauer, Lindsey Wolter, Emily Gaud, Louise Barrett, Mrs. Opdycke.

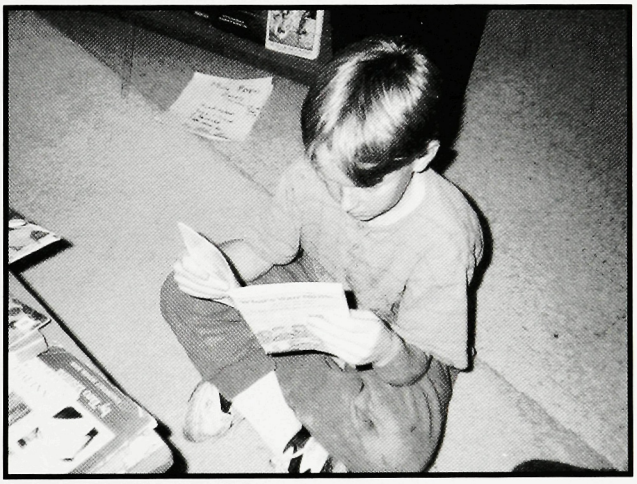

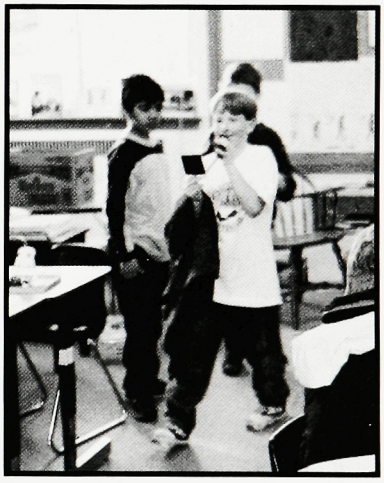

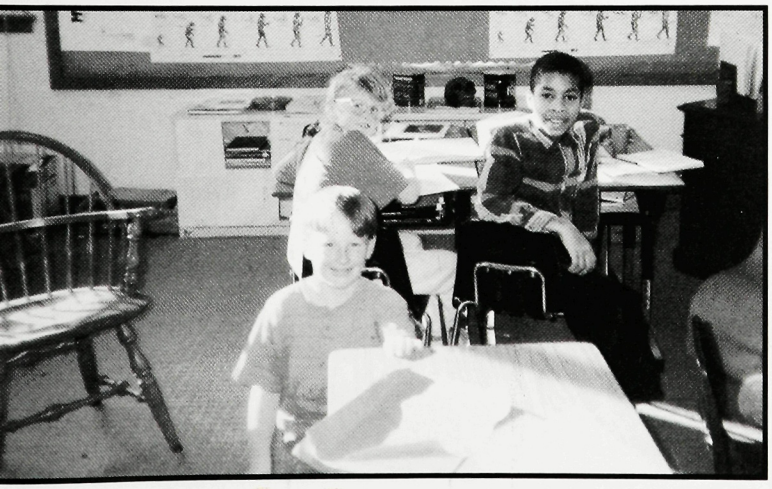

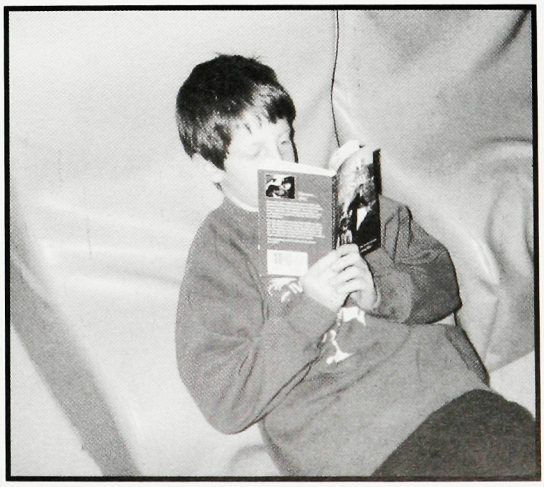

For those who have completed the 4th grade at NSCDS, it was the year to study Sumaria, Egypt, to build cities, pyramids with blocks, to perform in "Fiddler on the Roof", to go on a dig, and listen to the story NUMBER THE STARS. For present fourth graders it is all this plus writing in six genre, weekly etymology, problems solving groups, and the estimatum board. Upcoming NSCDS students expect 4th grade to be the year of Chandler's, homework, responsibility, and the beginning of the transition from the primary school years to the middle school years.

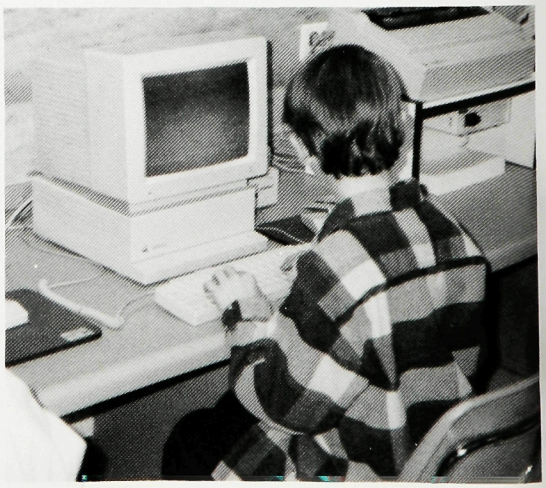

FIFTH

Front row: Scott Richards, Eyal Wallenberg, Dan Snower, Jonathon Campbell, Chris Bartlett, Peter Deitrick, Mike Brennan; second row: M.J. Tatar, Alex Taft, James Mesic, Eleanor Shaw, Alison Leslie, Lindsay Hedge, Kate Hutchins, Carrie Crane; back row: Mr. Neis, Anne Cavanaugh, Whiaker Mills, Samantha Darnell, Matt Meiners, Wick De Young, Christina Gerstman, Alysoun Kegel, Miss Snyder.

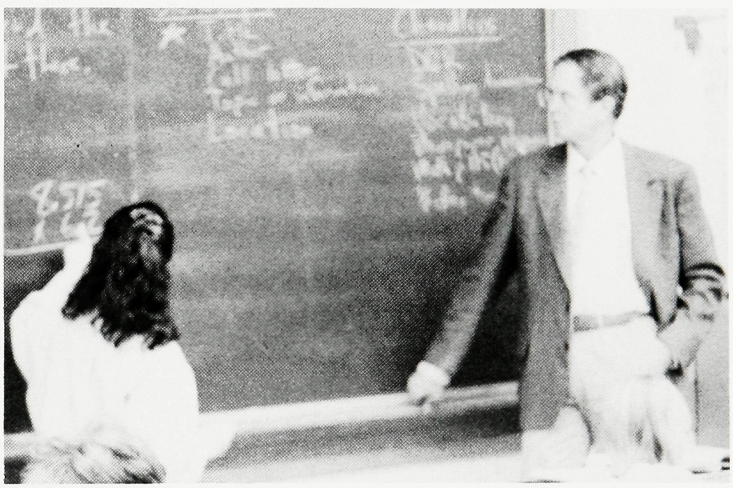

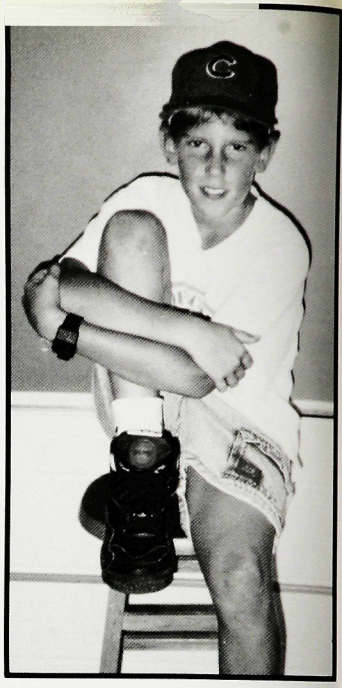

The 1991-92 school year was an awesome year in the Fifth Grade. In science we made wax cookies and candles, dissected frogs, and contacted people through the computer modem. We journeyed back in time to study the Ancient Mayans and Greeks. We constructed masks in art, sang, and played musical instruments in the holiday programs, and visited with a fortune teller for Halloween. Overall, we're divided about long division. In our reading groups we met Penobscot Indians, U.S. Colonists, Southern Blacks, and restless kids from suburban Connecticut. We traveled to the Art Institute, a Mexican ballet, Discovery Day Camp, and the Crown Science Center . . . . Our next exciting adventure will be Middle School!

Michelle

School

SIXTH

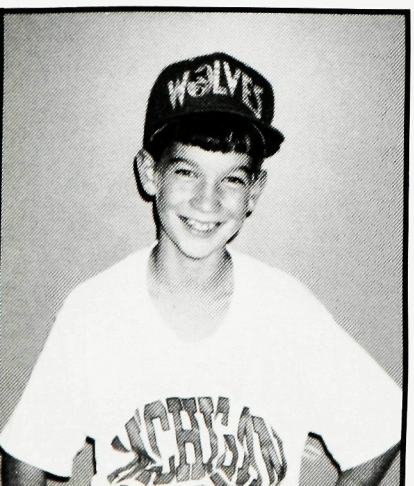

Front row: Sharon Levy, Michelle Butler, Katie Reinert, Alison Widmer, Jill Adler, Kristin Searle. Second row: Lilly Zsolnay, Greg Erickson, Ari Levi, Jon Syfu, Josh McConnell, Joi Motley, Briana Slutzky. Back row: Mrs. Zelen, Bobby Cohen, Billy Crane, Wilkie Shaw, Jeremy Hill, Adam Cordell, Billy Newton, Andy Bridgman, Brad Price, Matt Campbell, Mrs. Voight.

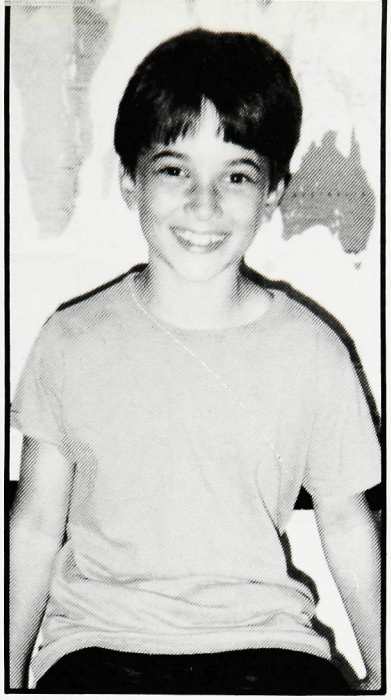

The Sixth Grade is the year of transition from Lower to Middle School. This year in sixth grade we voted on our favorites. In general the food we prefer is pizza. Our favorite color is blue, and for viewing entertainment, we recommend "In Living Color." For other recreation we like sports, especially basketball.

We also experienced many "firsts" this year as Middle Schoolers; including having buddies younger than we are, drinking soda at lunch, not having to line up, being in competitive sports at school, having socials, minicourses, plexers, dissections, building robots, being reps for Student Government, and being the youngest in the Middle School.

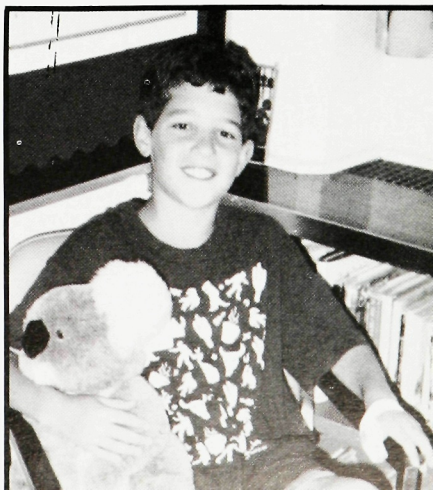

Despite having had to make all these adjustments, along with taking time to get used to being in the Middle School, we've had a great time this year .... Hopefully, Middle School will be even more fun as we go along!

SEVENTH

1. Front row: Karen Phemister, Cary McQueen, April Krieger, Ginny Wharton, Katie Drake, Jeremy Robin, Nick Brown, Gabe Edidin. Second Row: Jon Morgan, Ryan Weatherby, Gavin McDonagh, Jeffrey Meyer, Paul Yoon, Luke Bakalar, Courtney Smith, Allegra Rosberg, Hillary Wirtz, Whitney Brown, Carrie Mazur, Tom Heinz. Back row: Mrs. Migaki, Jason Przbrylo, Michael Wolf, Brian Rohlen, Robert Wienke, Seth Greene, Tate Curti, Liam Cavanaugh, Rob McCaffrey, Scott Leslie, David Swaney, Chris Dattels, Eric Bagge, Mrs. Gundlach. Absent: Eliza Durbin.

Who Are the Seventh graders of 1991-92? We are an interesting, fun-loving group once you get to know us! WE LIKE ALL KINDS OF MUSIC: rap, rock, soul, R.E.M., U2, INXS, Depeche Mode, Van Morrison, Public Enemy, Ice Cube, Ice-T, Guns "N" Roses, Metallica, Naught by Nature, Genesis, Led Zeppelin, Black Crows, Bob Dylan, and Amy Grant. SOME MOVIES WE'VE ENJOYED RECENTLY INCLUDE: ROBIN HOOD, TERMINATOR 2, THE ADDAMS FAMILY, HOT SHOTS, DANCES WITH WOLVES, BACKDRAFT, CURLY SUE, HUNT FOR RED OCTOBER, CAPE FEAR, DEAD POETS SOCIETY, HENRY V, AWAKENINGS, and NECESSARY ROUGHNESS. IN OUR FREE TIME WE LIKE: shopping, composing music, talking with friends, relaxing, going uptown, horseback riding, going into the city, playing video games, Capture the Flag, or darts, and working on train sets. ABOUT SCHOOL, WE LIKE: the kids, the teachers there to help us learn, socials, freedom, and fun. IF WE COULD CHANGE THE SCHOOL DAY, WE'D SUGGEST: more study halls and free time, passing time, art all year long, shorter classes, air conditioning, starting later, having longer lunch, and no tardies or detentions. OUR TYPICAL EXPRESSIONS AND SAYINGS INCLUDE: clue, cool, awesome, not!, psyche, seriously, 'twas grand, whatever, duuuh, red, dude, busted, bearsss, let's jam, be quiet!, yea, right, and "Please don't give us homework; we have so much already."

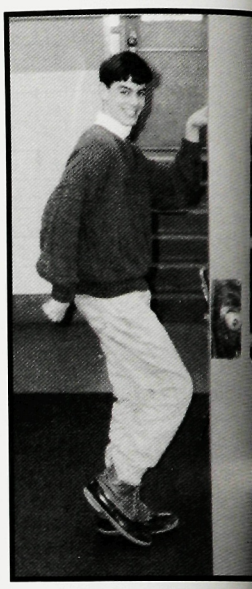

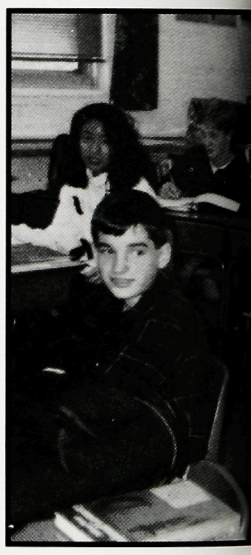

EIGHTH

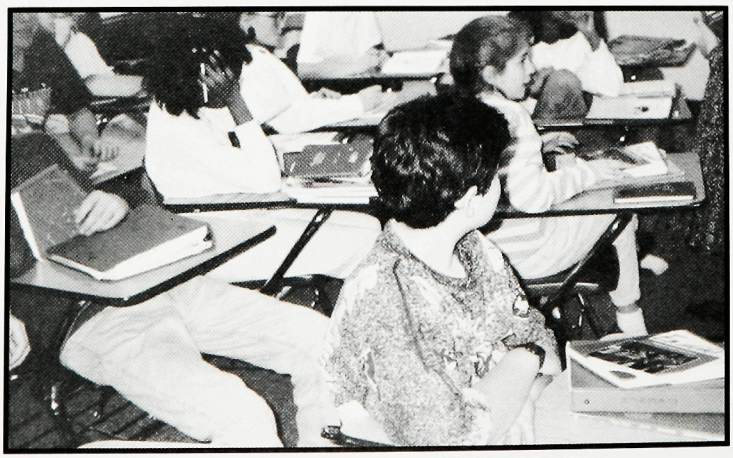

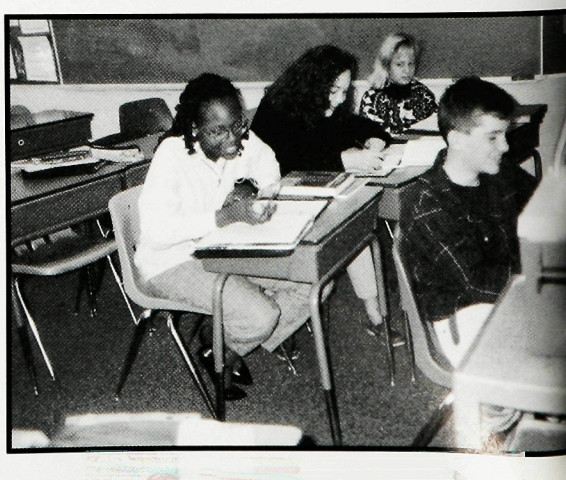

Front row: Tony Moskowitz, Annie Pinkert, Katie Todd, Brooke Price, Hadley Lewis, Meredith Lavender, Devon Levy, Brian Diamond-Falk, Louis Brown. Second row: Gordon Humme, Sean Butler, Robert Concepcion, Doug Baughman, Morgan Campbell, John Marshall, Chris Tynan, Scott Fields, Danny Rosenberg, Lucas Mills, Susan Pope, Rupal Malni, Rashi Dhandi, Nikola Kravitt, Joe Fortuanto. Back row: Peter Smey, Bethany Butler, Mika Hosono, Jenn Wolter, Shameka Manning, Mark Beckwith, David Hovey, Elizabeth Eden, Peter Kuan, Dana Motley, Dana Brown, Angela Krieger, John Whittlesey. Absent: Ellen Berry, Mac Dunbar-Bickmore, Jeffrey Goldman, Christopher Want.

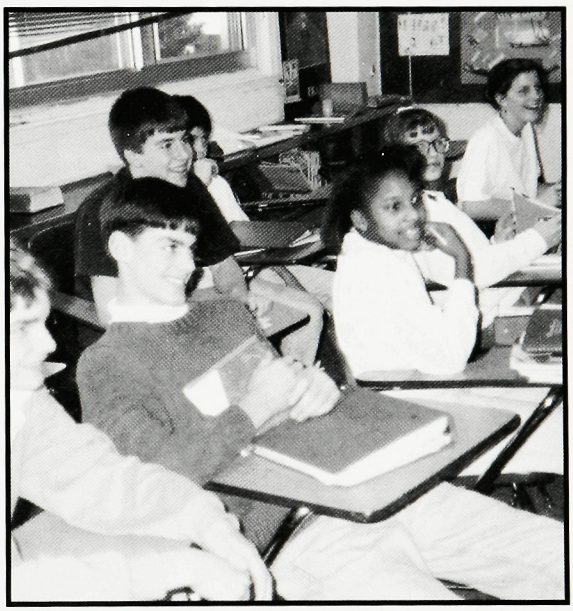

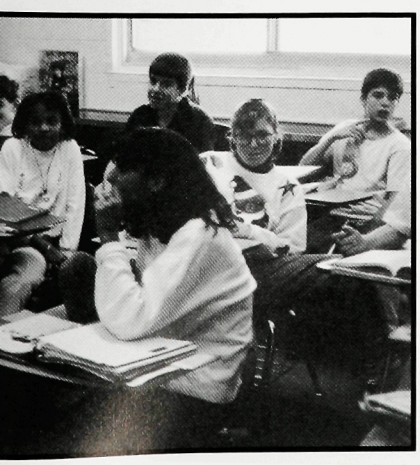

1991-1992 has been an exciting and busy year for the eighth grade. From our camping trip at Timberlee in the fall, to our "excursion" to see the exciting French film LE CHATEAU DO MA MERE, the eighth grade has come a long way. We have grown both mentally and physically in these nine short months. We have cried and laughed together. As far as North Shore standards go, we are a large group with a variety of colorful characters. We are all different, but at the same time one in the same. As we go our separate ways next year, scattering to various high schools in the area, we will all fondly remember dear old North Shore Country Day, and as for those of us who remain here—we hope the rest of you visit often!

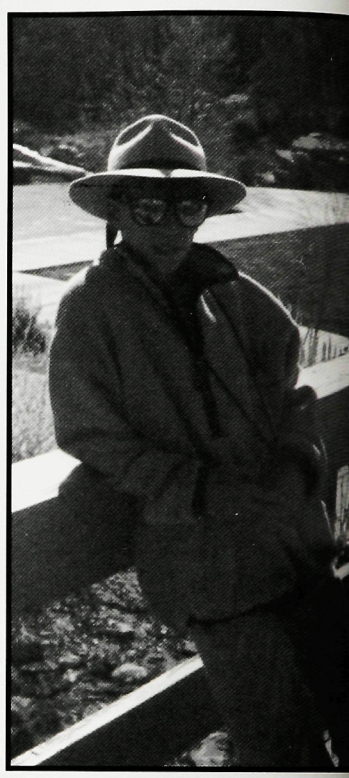

Uppe

School

FRESHMEN

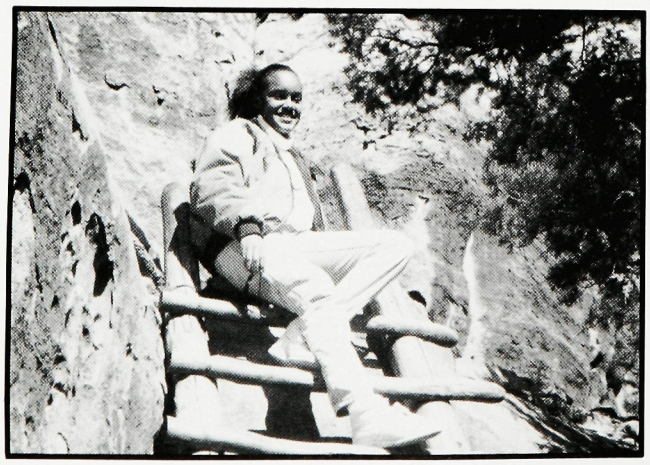

Front row: Vanessa Price, David Fisher, Jamie Ferguson, Drew Masur, Nat Durbin, Jessica Bakalar. Second row: Veronica Davydova, Gaby Levi, Maria Mancia, Luisa Godoy, Maggie Marzano, Rachel Wolf. Back row: Mark Meiners, Yemisi Dinkins, Kanisha McKinney, Jack Delaney, Henley Shotwell, Jason Butler, Tim Berger, Keith Kurzman. Absent: Brooke Bakalar.

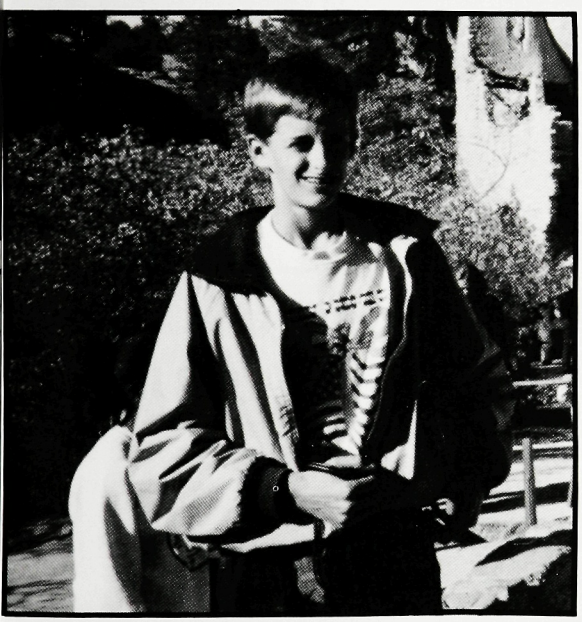

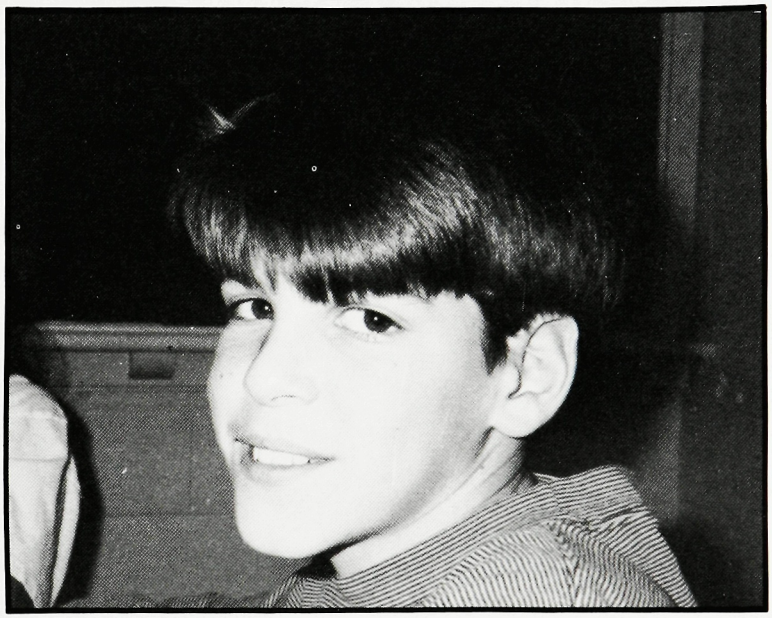

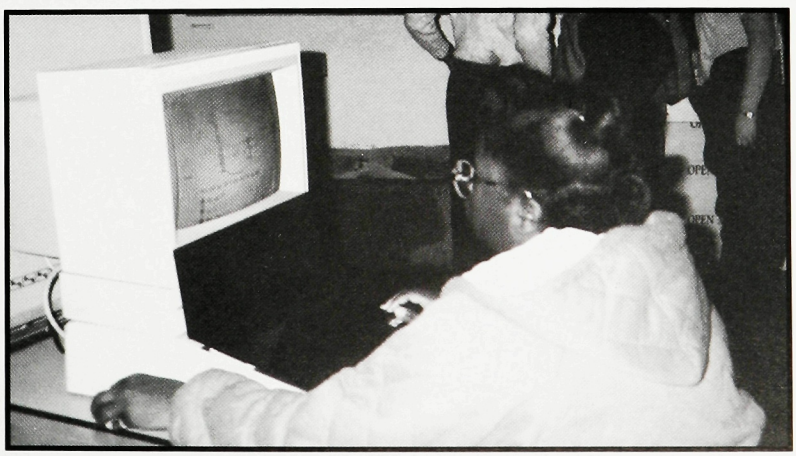

This year's freshmen, all twenty-two of us, have survived and thoroughly enjoyed the school year. With only eleven returning students from the Middle School, it took quite a while for us to get to know one another, but our Outdoor Education trip to Southern Illinois helped a lot. Academic life is much harder in the Upper School, with longer periods and SO much homework! But the Class of 1995 can handle it. One should expect wonderful things in the future from such a dynamic class.

SOPHOMORES

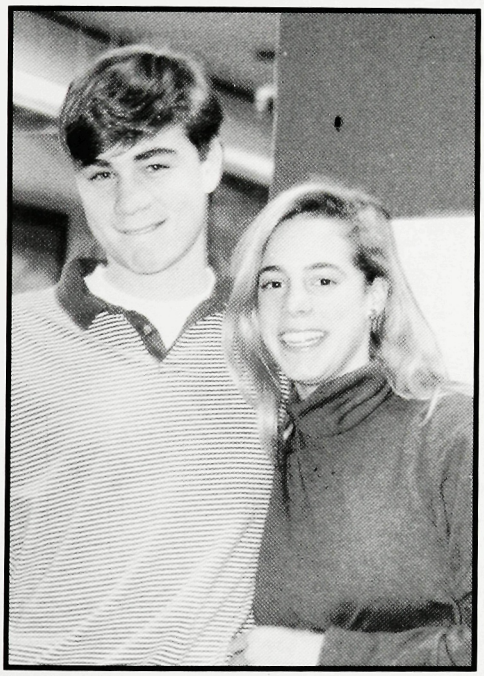

Front row: Katie Czerniawski, Tamara Littles, Carin Healy, Katie Davis, Carrie Goldstein. Second row: Eugene Kuznetsov, Nate Appleton, Alexis Hallberg, Kris Baade, Robyn Williams, John Frank. Back row: Izzy Getsov, David Plazas, Chad Charowhas, Seth Feldman, Katie Whittlesey. Absent: Nadra Kareem, Mary McLean, Kamaria Scott.

The Sophomore class is very different from the Freshman class that we used to be. Besides the maturity we have gained, the sophomore class consists of many new students. Though we lost nine people last year, the addition of five great new people has brought a fresh aura to the Sophomore class. This positive aura is something that we hope will set an example for the younger classes. Through academics and extra-curricular activities we strive to do the best we can, and we hope the next two years prove to be as fun as the two we have already had!

-Katie Davis

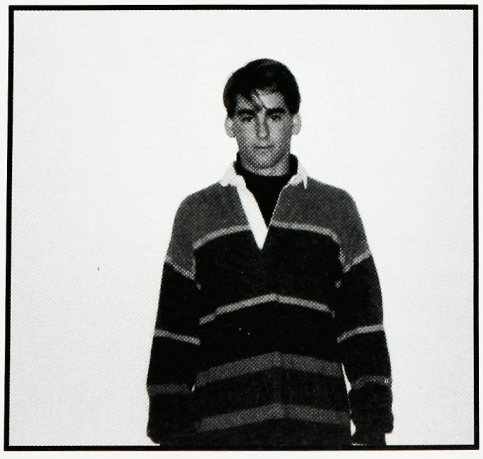

JUNIORS

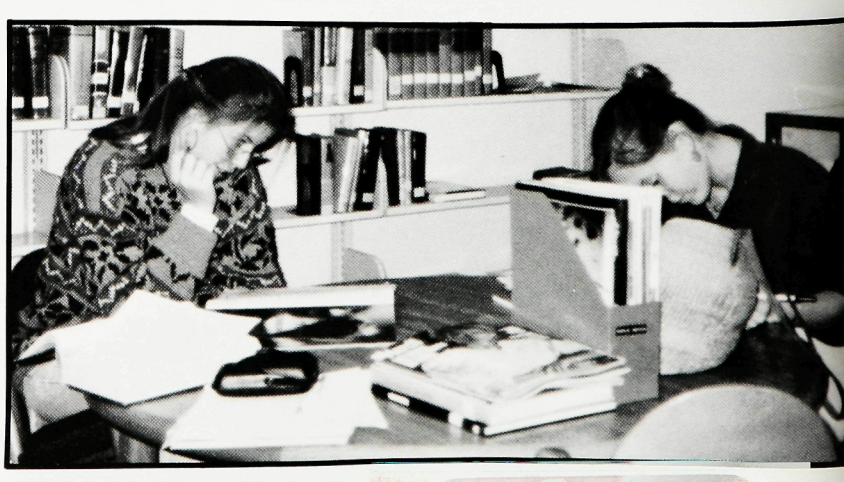

Front row: Jon Hart, Betty Fisher, Alexis Copland, Lisa Rosen, Angeline Brown, Carrie Price, Kathy Wolbach, Alexandra Roginsky, Marianna Kats. Second row: Erwin Godoy, Stefanie Freeman, Loren Berry, Tom Brooks, Erik Sosa, Eric Gannon, Justin Wood, Gilan Tober, Richard Wu, Seth Coppock, Brian Glass. Back row: Blake Gordon, Heather Coppock, Tom Rankin, Marci Fritts, Kelli Stebel, Whitney Gorham, Pam Galler, Ilya Shukhman, Stephanie Crumpton, James Moses, Benjie de la Fuente, Scott Shlaes, Bashir Mohammed, Gary Meltz. Absent: Beth Jacobs, Greg Jacobs

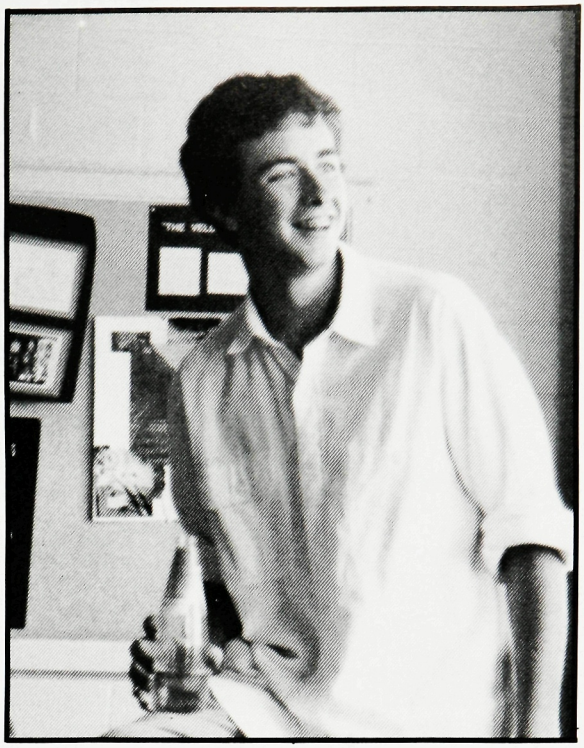

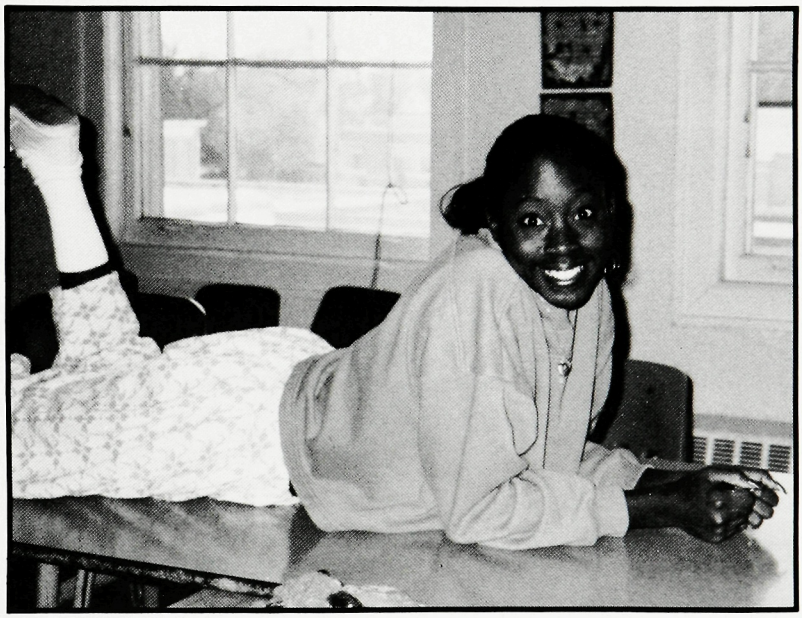

The Juniors are quite possibly the most amazing and psychotic group of people ever assembled in one area. With many new students this year, we have established a unique diversity due to having many people with different ideas. Although this diversity does cause the occasional tiff, it also helps bring us closer together (yelling often does that.)

Even though we've had to work our little tails off and take every achievement test ever created, Junior Year has been a blast. Through our Outdoor Education trip to Covenant Harbor and planning this year's prom, we've been bonded to the point where we simply cannot bond anymore. Of course, next year we will be SENIORS, when our greatest will finally be fully appreciated—and we plan on making the most of it!

TWELFTH

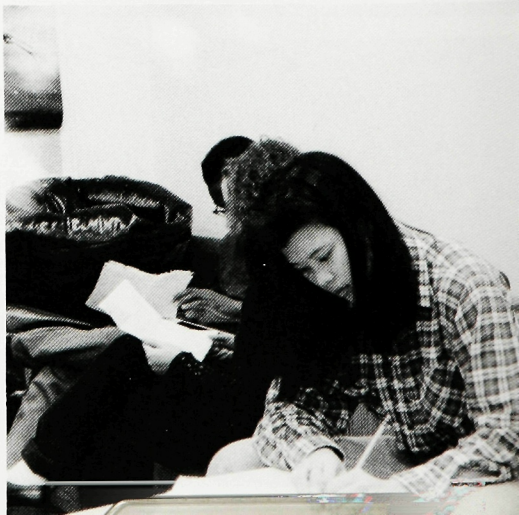

Front row: Danny Moskowitz, Bryan Resendiz, Jessy Braun, Alé Levi, Robyn Goldman, Carrie Berkowitz, Gladys Granados, Dan Cogan, Second row: Matt Smey, Missy Wemstrom, Maggie Pearl, Tory Richardson, T.C. Whiting, Carter Frank, Estelle Campos, Akiko Chizawa, Owen Gerst. Back row: Dan Berenberg, Anna Buck, Amanda Bailey, Hide Hosono, Tavarian Dinkins, Maciej Ceglowski, Seth McCulloch, Michaela Murphy, LeHa Quach, Gigi Farah, Tina Puschaver, Casey Phillips. Absent: Emily Gomberg.

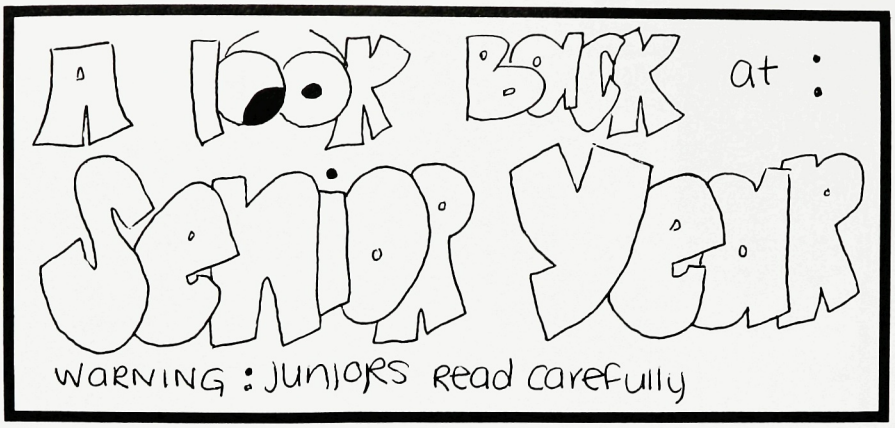

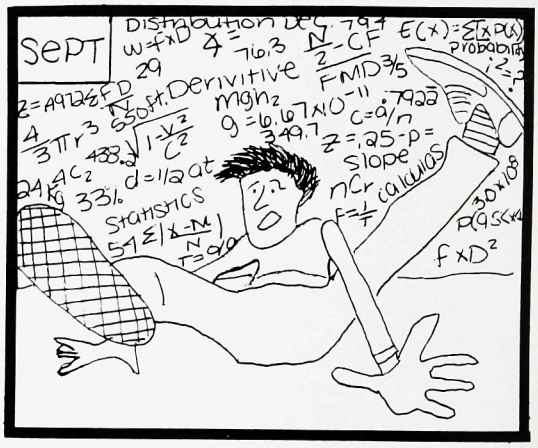

Ah, the senior class . . . . It's been quite a year, to say the least. After being thrown together for Outdoor Education one last time, we are now as close as we're ever going to be. Because we are the first senior class in years (perhaps the first in North Shore history) not to have any exchange students, we have gone through the '91-'92 school year simply building on the friendships we already have. Also, for one last year, we have been considered the "experimental class." They moved the homeroom . . . we didn't get to play duck-duck-goose on Work Day . . . we had to do lunchroom clean-up . . . But that's okay, we dealt with it with maturity and a cheery outlook, as always.

As we leave the North Shore community, we are fully aware of the fact that the underclassmen will be fondly wiping tears from their eyes as they look back upon the friendships, inspiration, and guidance we have offered them. And if they're not crying, well, that's their problem. As we bid adieu to our dear old North Shore Country Day, we will be thinking of those of you who are still here . . . and believe it or not, we'll probably miss you.

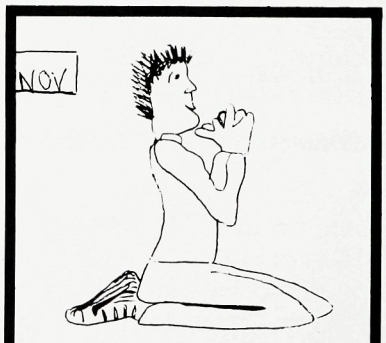

August: myth #1—"Senior year will be so easy—I'm not going to get any work; I can start living!"

September: first day of school! Arrggghh!!!

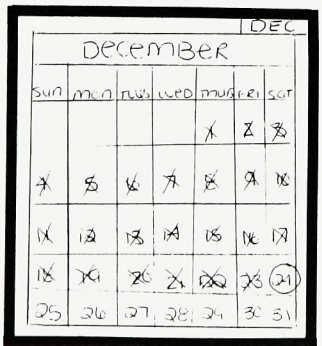

October: our kindergarteners are great—they aren't the only ones who love Halloween!

November: Thanksgiving and Interim Week. Most seniors were just thankful for a couple days off.

January: college applications PLUS homework! "Living" has to wait . . . .

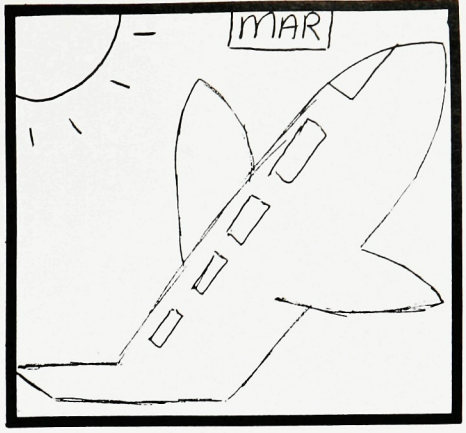

December: winter break seemed far away, but we're all glad it's finally arrived.

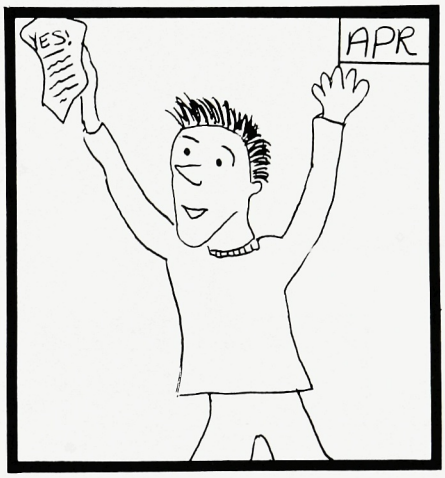

February: anxieties begin and love sets in, as we wait for spring break, college acceptances, and graduation!

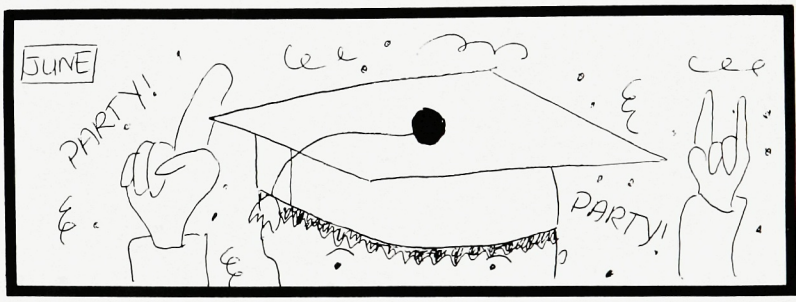

March: spring break! Vacations—fun in the sun—those pre-prom relationships begin!

April: Yes! The college of your dreams! Life seems to be starting at the same time those pre-prom relationships seem to be ending.

May: If you haven't figured it out yet—senior ditch day!

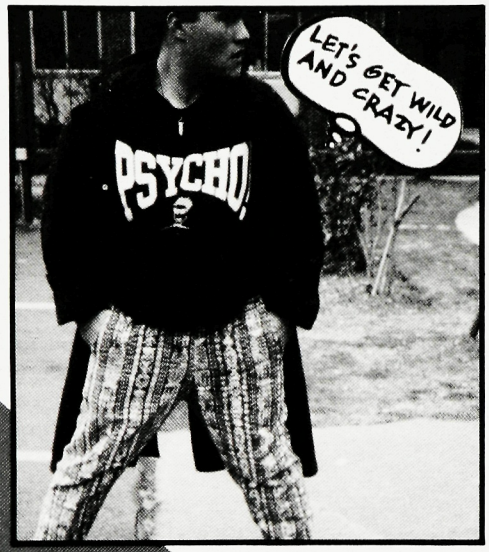

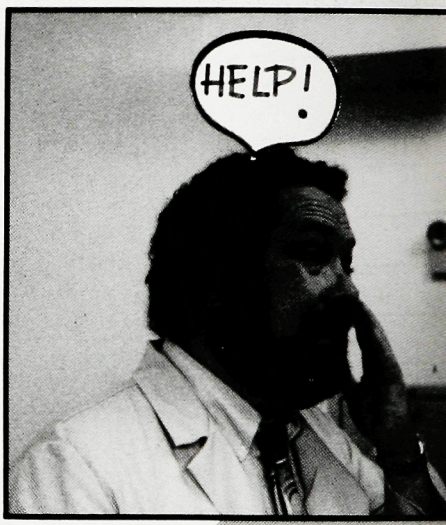

"If I could choose one comparison for senior year, it would be a roller coaster. It has its high and its low points; it goes fast; and it causes many people to experience nausea."

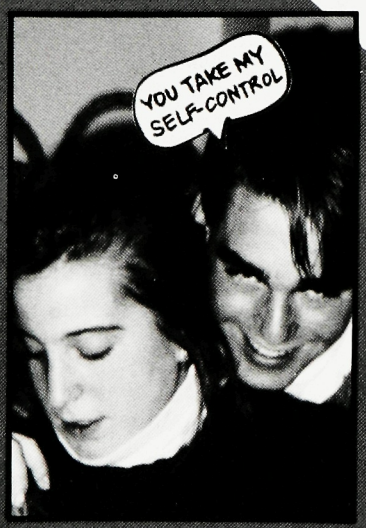

June: graduation! Life's really going to be begin—summer, sun, and fun; the last months before friends are thousands of miles from one another. The best of times, and yet the worst of times.

In the Minds of...

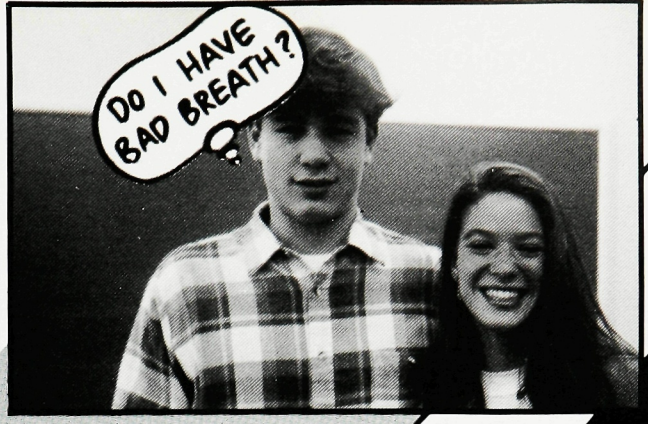

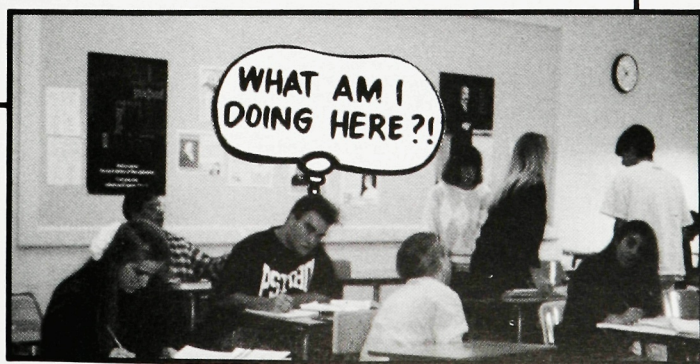

I KNOW WHAT BOYS LIKE

DO I HAVE BAD BREATH?

OOH LA LA
CHFM

I JUST DON'T UNDERSTAND!

THE HAPPY HONEYMOONERS

WHAT AM I DOING HERE?!

A Tourist

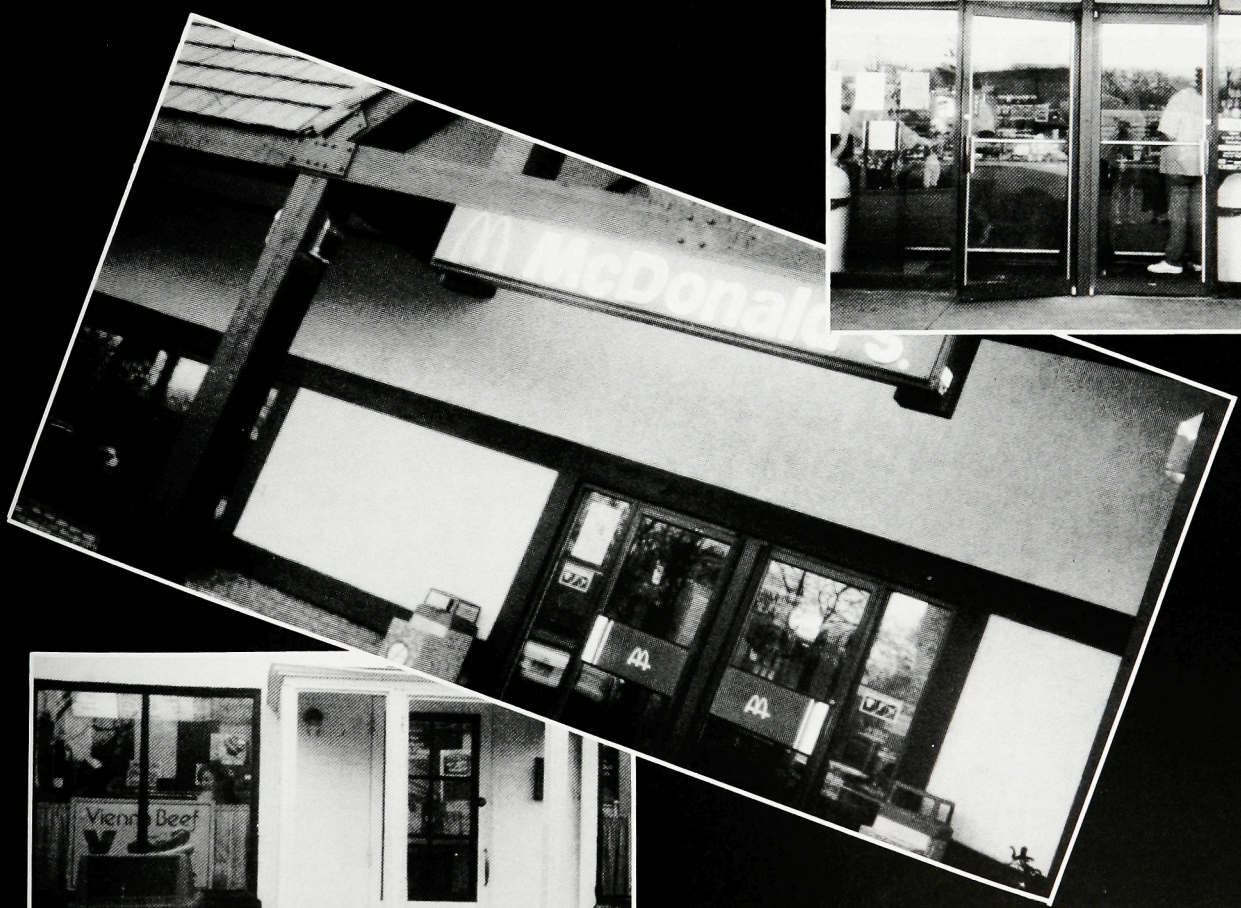

We have all gotten very acquainted with these NSCDS hot spots. Freshmen usually use cabs as ways to reach their destinations, and many walk or bike. However, by the time they reach their upperclassman years, they drive Mom's, Dad's, or even their own cars—whatever is accessible. No matter how we reach these "hot" NSCDS spots, we are satisfied knowing our meals will be superb! Now with this new schedule, many of us have enough free time to hit all these restaurants and more within one day. Although we do have off-campus rules to comply with, when we're not in study hall, our appetites seem to increase.

Guide to North Shore

Country Day Students' Hot Spots

When off-campus illegally, we all know that McD's and White Hen are swarming with teachers. However, when we're following the NSCDS handbook regulations, trying to avoid the teachers is not a high priority and we can enjoy our meals wherever we please.

"A Typical Str

This year seniors have gained privilege of walking up four flight stairs

Mr. Conroy and his infamous syllabus

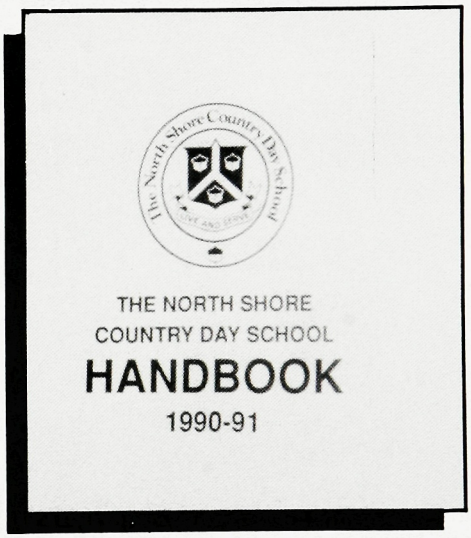

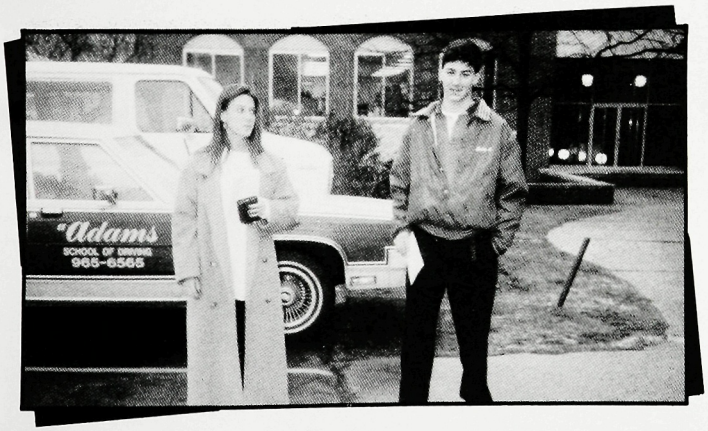

ssed-Out Day"

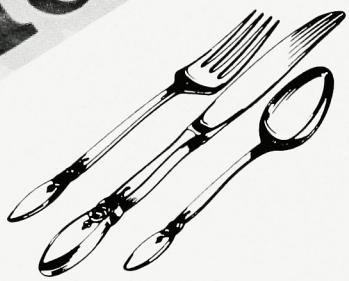

Off campus—On campus

Mastering the art of sneaking off-campus

LUNCH LUNCH LUNCH

Cafes Features

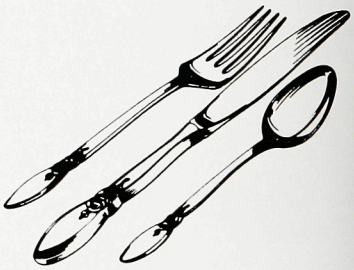

Faculty members are so silly when it comes to mealtime.

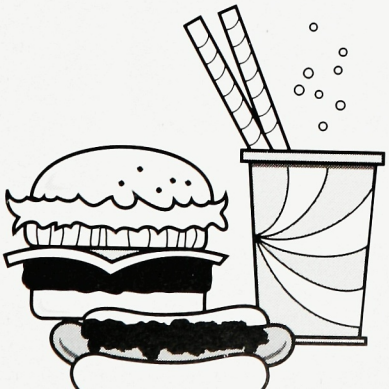

The use of silverware is a n concept for Sosa.

Owen deliberates about his lunching options.

LUNCH LUNCH LUNCH!

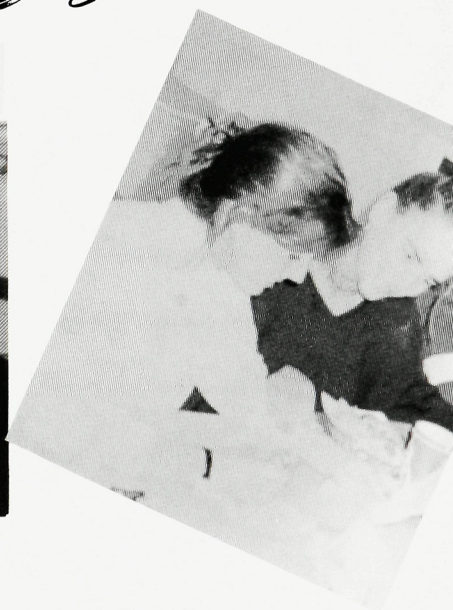

Gaby makes a new friend.

Students of all ages and shapes dine together.

Faculty and food—fun, fun, fun!

DISCO

Author Amanda Bailey recently published a novel recounting the traumatic experiences she suffered upon discovering that her natural hair color was actually blonde. Bailey said, "I knew there had to be some reason I originally started dyeing my hair. . . now I know what that reason is!"

Princeton history professor, Dan Berenberg, was recently given the official title, "Dan Dan the History Man!" Berenberg commented, "Well, I guess now I'm really the Multi-Purpose Man!"

Carrie Berkowitz was recently named CEO of Josten's.

Jessy Braun accepted a position right out of college as a history teacher at North Shore Country Day School. When asked about her career choice, Braun said, "I guess absence really does make the heart grow fonder. . . I love this place!!!

Anna Buck startled fellow Laura Ashley employees when she unexpectedly spoke at a level higher than a whisper. Buck commented, "Well, I really didn't have anything to say before now, okay?"

The medical world was turned upside down last week when Estelle Campos, president of the Willy Wonka Candy Company, actually gained a whole five pounds.

Maciej Ceglowski recently refused to accept the Nobel Peace Prize for his efforts in educating the world about Polish culture when announcers misprounced his name. Ceglowski was reported to have screamed at the announcer, "Just don't even try. Just say Mush!"

Akiko Chizawa became the United States ambassador to Japan, because, in her own words, "Now I can go back and forth all the time to Japan without anyone getting mad at me-and maybe I can swing by Hawaii sometimes, too!"

Attorney Dan Cogan is currently running for US Senator on the ERA platform. Cogan was quoted as saying, "The equal rights movement has always been an important part of my life. I have always felt that women deserve the same rights as men."

Tavarian Dinkins' new rap single "Big Daddy T-a.k.a. Tav" topped the charts last week. When asked about his interest in music as a career, Dinkins replied, "Well, I guess it all really started with 'Benjie's Band'."

Gigi Farah, who has been named the United States Secretary of Physical Education, recently introduced a line of field hockey attire called "Gigi Huh!"

Carter Frank, an employee of Todd's House O' Hats, recently shocked co-workers when she made it to work for two weeks in a row!

Owen Gerst following in his mother's footsteps, has recently accepted a job reviewing films for the Pioneer Press. Gerst commented, "The pay sucks, but I get all the free T-shirts I want eh?"

Robyn Goldman has been institutionalized as a schizophrenic after receiving her Master Degree in underwater basket-weaving, marking the nineteenth profession that she has been trained for (others include medicine, interpreting, topless dancing, ghost-writing Bobbsey Twins books, baking, law, and kiwi fruit sculpture). Stated Goldman, "I just didn't know what I truly wanted to be, I guess!"

Emily Gomberg recently opened her own restaurant, but it only serves until 12:30 pm.

Prophecies

"Gladys Granados' new talk show, Don't Ask Me, made Gladys the first talk show host who doesn't ask her guests any questions-she prefers just to sit back and let them talk.

Hide Hosono showed up for the Class of 1992's ten-year reunion.

Ale Levi is producing a new game show, titled "Oh My God, I'm Like Freaking Out; It's, Like A Game Where You Answer Questions and Stuff, You Know?"

Producer Seth McCulloch's new series, Sether For Hire, which accounts the adventures of an auto-mechanic by day, superhero by night, recently debuted on WPWR Channel 50; thus far, the critics' ratings are varied.

Danny Moskowitz was sent to a mental institution last week after being pronounced half nuts-he believed his skin color was changing to match his hypercolor t-shirts. When asked how he felt, Moskowitz said, "It's not easy being green."

Ex-opera singer Michaela Murphy was recently hired by Quaker Oats, Inc. in quality control. Her job will be to test the quality of Captain Crunch Cereal. When asked why she gave up such a lucrative career, Murphy commented, "I was sick of everyone thinking that I was a tenor. I'm an alto, honestly!!"

Actress Maggie Pearl has been signed to co-star in the long-running CBS Hit Jake and the Fatman.

Casey Phillips has taken up traveling the country as an admissions officer for Boston University, polling students to find out how many plan to apply there.

Tina Puschaver, the first female member of the Chicago Bulls, designed a new set of uniforms for herself and her team members, complete with matching blazers and hats-the team has not yet commented on Puschaver's designs.

LeHa Quach recently missed her chance to speak to the public about her professional pickleball career when she arrived late to the taping of Don't Ask Me.

Bryan Resendiz has formed a new rap group, made up of himself and the ex-members of the classic 70's band, The Village People. Their first solid gold album is entitled, "Do You Think I'm Sexy?" Resendiz says the album title was greatly influenced by memories he has of his high school days.

Tory Richardson recently married then divorced her eighth husband. When asked about her frequent marriages, she replied, "They just can't keep up with me long enough."

Matthew Smey has been admitted into the Betty Ford clinic to begin a twelve-step program for the sufferers of GPA-Gameboy Players Anonymous. While there, psychiatrists also hope to wean him off of his dependency on his collection of basketball shoes.

Long-time women's rights activist Missy Wemstrom recently decided to get married, settle down, and raise a family. Commented Missy, "Well, I never told anyone, but years ago, I decided to model my life after the character of Irene Gleason in Come Out of the Closet!"

T.C. Whiting was recently charged with contempt of court when he told the judge, "I was not weaving you dummy-I just dropped all my books and papers on the floor, and I was trying to pick them up!"

Amanda Bailey

The Evening of the Mind

Now comes the evening of the mind
Here are the fireflies twitching in the blood;
Here is the shadow moving down the page
Where you sit reading by the garden wall.
Now the dwarf peach trees, nailed to their trellises,
Shudder and droop. You know their voices now,
Faintly the martyred peaches crying out
Your name, the name nobody knows but you
It is the aura and the coming on
It is the thing descending, circling, here.
And now it puts a claw out and you take it.
Thankfully in your lap you take it, so.

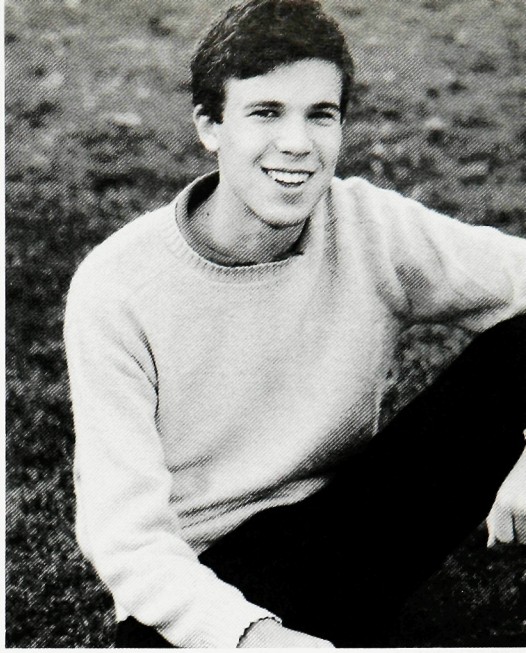

You said you would not go away again,
You did not want to go away—and yet,
It is as if you stood out on the dock
Watching a little boat drift out
Beyond the sawgrass shallows, the dead fish . . .
And you were in it, skimming past old snags,
Beyond, beyond, under a brazen sky
As soundless as a gong before it's struck—
Suspended how?—and now they strike it, now
The ether dream of five-years-old repeats, repeats,
And you must wake again to your own blood
And empty spaces in the throat.

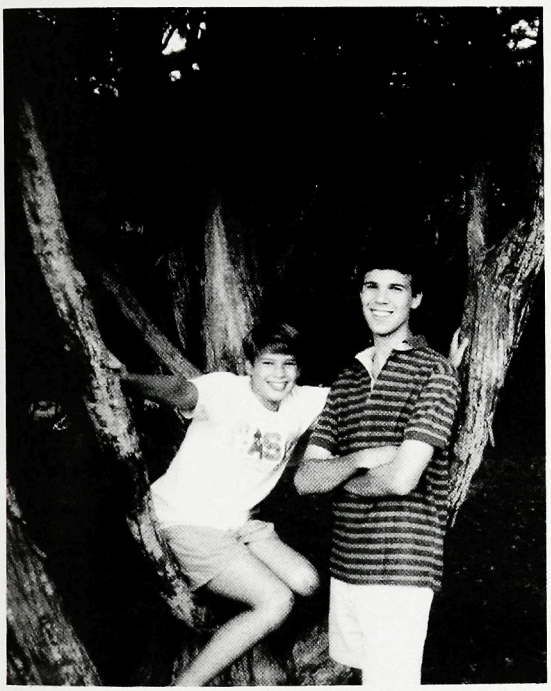

—Donald Justice

Daniel Harlan Max Berenberg

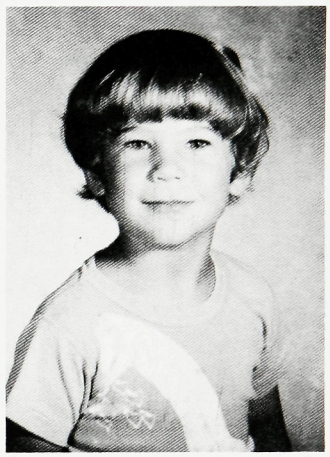

Dad, I wish you could have lived to see this.

All right, this is a survey. Do my brother and I:
a) look exactly alike
b) look nothing alike

People say that life is the thing.
but I prefer reading.
—Logan Pearsall Smith

Photographic proof that I haven't always been skinny!

"Dan Berenberg is not that smart"
—Mrs. Foster

"But there's nothing wrong with blackberries and peaches, Emily, look . . ."
—Strawberry Envy

Thank you, Alex, for corrupting me. I wouldn't be what I am if you hadn't.

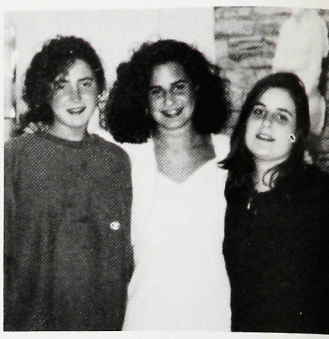

Dan, Dan the:
microfish man?
walk-on-man?
dandelion man?
ladies' man? (don't ask, I don't know either) multi-purpose man?
everything man?
Or is it just Danimal?

Carrie Beth Berkowitz

"Your life is a series of what everyone says about you and what you say about yourself."

"A smile is a curve that set things straight."

"Good friends can never be apart—
They're always close within the heart."

"A friend is near when you dare to be yourself."

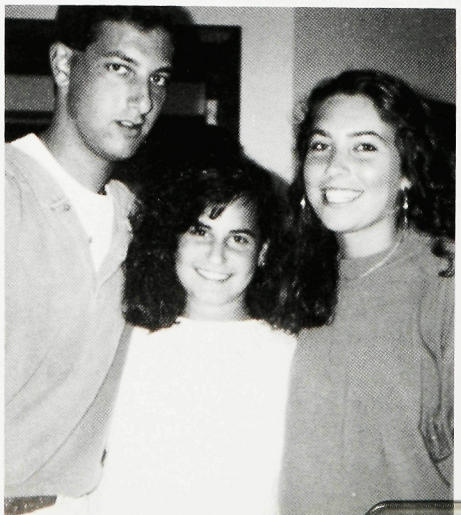

"Love . . . you never have it until you lose it!"

"Sooner or later, you start taking yourself seriously.
You know when you need a break.
You know when you need a rest. You know what to get worked up about, and what to get rid of.
And you know when it's time to take care of yourself, for yourself. To do something that makes you stronger, faster, more complete
Because you know it's never too late to have a life.
And never too late to change one."

"You can't change the past, but you can ruin the present by worrying about the future."

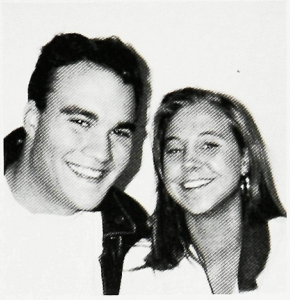

Jessica Braun

WAG—How's hamptondal—Mrs. F?
ARDSLEY? Are you cutting those hedges? My * buddy

I'm feeling so "hunky dory"

Hey, study buddy—where's the cat??

Do you go to N.S.C.D.S.? Yes—and will you let go of me?

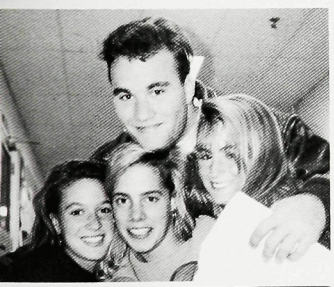

Who's got the mermus??

Shhh—be very, very quiet—I'm hunting for wabbit!
—Oh, OK, pumpkin head! (J.K.)

Are you talkin' to me?

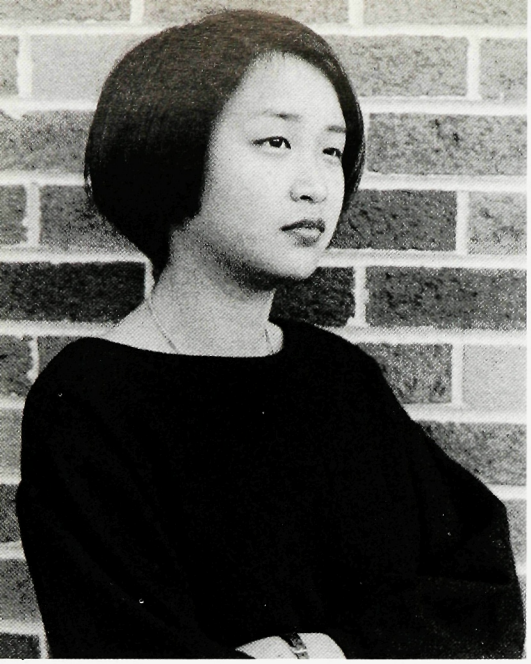

P.N.-How's Ricemore?

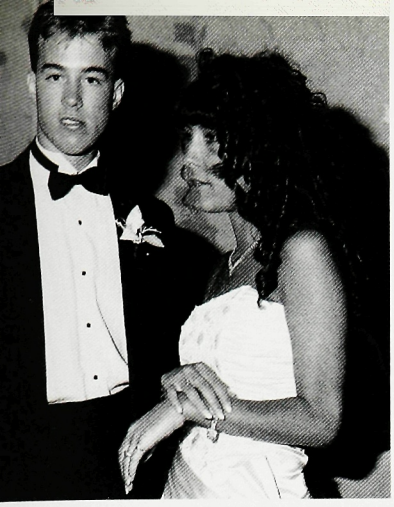

Anna Buck

Much madness is divinest Sense—
To a discerning Eye—
Much Sense—the starkest Madness—
'Tis the Majority
In this, as All, prevail—
Assent—and you are sane—
Demur—you're straightway dangerous—
And handled with a Chain—

—Emily Dickinson

I LOVE YOU!

Rachel/Natalie/Kelly/Jeanne/Amy/Carrie/Alé/Robyn/Dan/Owen/Ashley/Lisa/Angie/Patty/Theresa/Beth/Tav/Coach Hooper

Thanks Mom and Dad! I Love You's! (I'm never gonna leave!)

ESTELLE CAMPOS

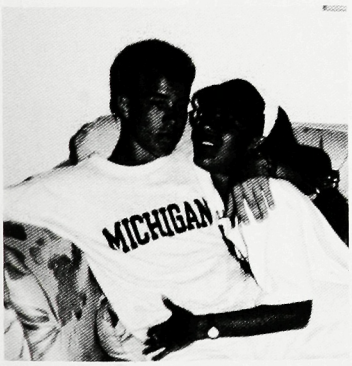

Sexy!

B-ball camp '89-'90-'91*Turnabout '91*DLS Prom*NSCDS Prom* Milwaukee Fest '91*Sweet 16*New Year's '90*Volleyball (Bert)*Lady Raiders Basketball*Softball*D.C.Crow Canyon The Children's Place*Bridgeport!

"Never say goodbye!"

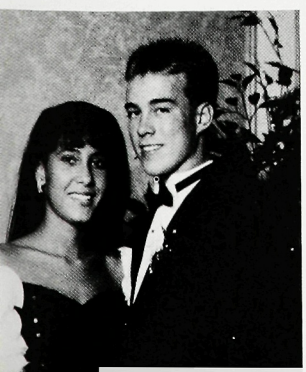

"Ya don't know what you got, 'til it's gone!"

"It's so hard/to say goodbye/ to yesterday"—Boyz II Men

Rachel and Estelle B/F/F

Maciej Piotr Cegtowski

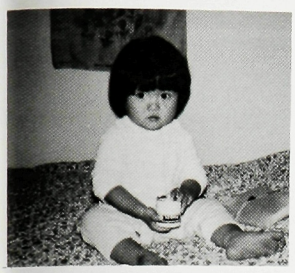

I'd like to express my special thanks to the following people: My mother, for all the genes and everything she's done for me. Dziekuje takze mojej babci Stefie i mojim dziadkom w Sinolece, Krzysiu, Bojce, i Hani Dygow, no i Panstwu Witkowscych. In America, Lisa O'Leary, the best sister a guy never had; Sara Roberts , David "Fish Blood" Kennedy, Bridget Garvin, for more than I can possibly fit in this note; Ericka Kieffer, Heidi "Paralell living" Crooker, Beth "Nature Queen" Kirkhope; Phil DeLong, for being a fantastic director; Greg McKee, for being a fantastic boss; Abimbola Fajobi, for the road trip and fast food ; Betsy "King Jesus is What?!" Partoyan, Gretchen, Roxie, Brooke, Kairi, Hannah, Stacey and all the other 1991 CIT's; Brian Todd, for the pixie stix and the insanity; Marci Guckeyson, for always being there when needed; and Randall Maconachy, for the Holy Grail. Internationals? Amanda Rainbow, for the ATL's and teaching me the joys of horseback riding; Cesar and Simone, Binay Mondashe...M., Vladik Khayenko, Julia and all the Russians I rocked with in Pennsylvania, and everyone whom I have met on planes in my life...

And last, NSCDS. Thanks to John Almquist, Kevin Randolph, Jan Migaki, William Goss, Dean Sexton and Jackie Melissas. I am forever indebted to Robert J. Kramer, may he rest in peace. My most sincere gratitude to the School as a whole, for showing me exactly what not to become in my life.

-Maciej Cegłowski

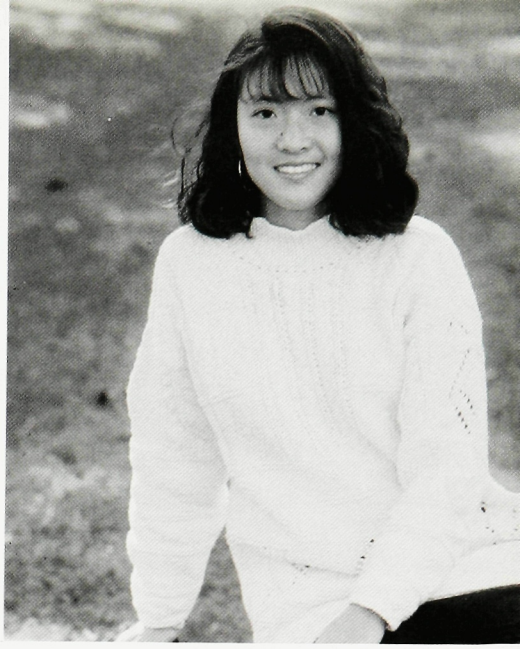

Akiko Chizawa

Mom, Dad, THANKS!
Love ya both!

Is the tennis team #1?
Of course . . .

You guys are great! And always will be . . .

It's just hell . . .—MM
(what is?)

I'm not going to take any pictures with Akiko anymore . . . Wowsers!—Jessica

KEEKS! Do you have any pictures?—Carrie B.

Dude, you know what?/Keeks, do you have any money?/You nerd!/I have to finish . . . /OK, I'm gonna let you go now . . .—GLADYS

Thanx for everything, big sis . . . love ya a bunch!

Never say goodbye, never say goodbye/You and me and my old friends/Hoping it would never end/ Never say goodbye, never say goodbye/Holdin' on—we got to try/Holdin' on to never say goodbye . . .
—Bon Jovi

We're bonded.—Robyn

Wake up, Gladi!

We gotta get this point.—RBG

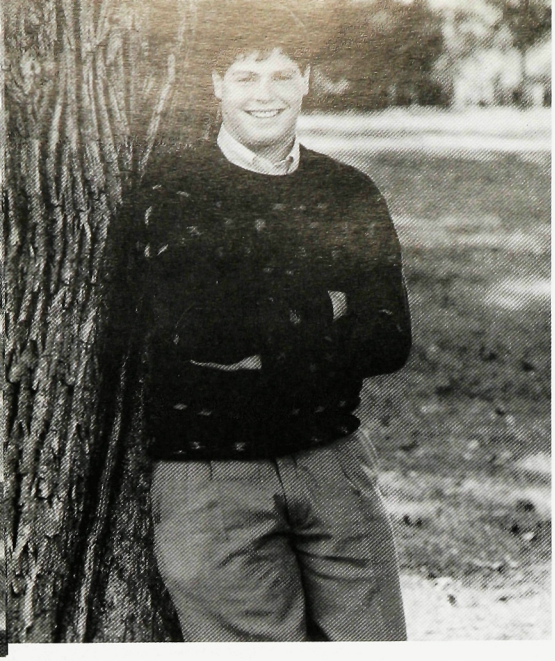

This is what North Shore homework did to me . . .

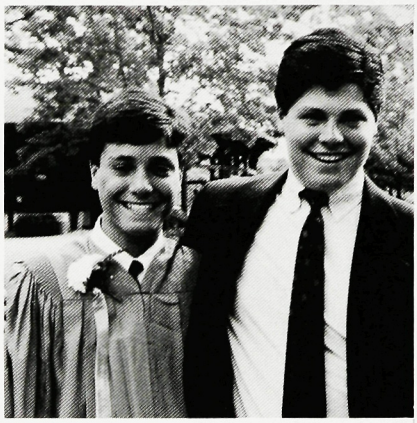

Daniel Edward Cogan

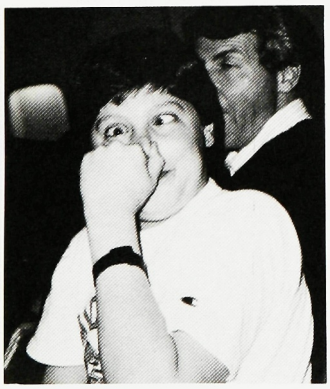

Love You All
Thanks

Thanks to T.W./M.S./B.R./O.G./
T.D./V.R./T.P./C.P./M.P./A.L./
G.G./E.G./C.F./G.F./E.C./J.B./
T.B./B. de la/B.G./J.H./G.J./
G.M./J.M./S.S./C.P./B.J./W.G./
" P"/A.B./S.F./J.F./C.W./C.H./
K.D./H.S./J.F./J.D.

Smey, get out of the hot tub"
" . . . I'm driving"
"Coffee?"
"Katie, are you allergic to cat
"Yes, but it's purring"
Thanks Deubs, Jay, Eric, an course, Mac

All of your brains put together wouldn't make half of an idiot"

Tavarian Dinkins

Yeah! I always had an ATTITUDE!

A typical family outing. But not a typical family

Cruisin' down the street in 6-4

I'd like to give a shout to . . .
Feldman, the Meltz-man, the Brother Bashir, T.C., to the Rainbow Coalition (Greg Jacobs, Bryan Resendiz, Benjie de la Soul and the rest), Deuble and Amy, Nick Bat, Maciej, Seth, Erwin, Hide, Frederic Gunnardo, Dra at helvete, ya know!, Smey-bird, Cogan, O-King (Owen), Conroy—the mentor, Brian and Tom!

Respect due to all my fly girls . . .

Gladys G., Akiko C., Carrie B., Robyn G., Gigi, Casey, Tory, Carter, Amanda, Anna, Estelle, Missy, Michaela, Tina Bina Foe fina, Banana Fanna Glad to meet cha, LeHa, Jessy, Alé, Emily

Special thanks to . . .
the Gerts, the Deubles, the Jacobs, the Battaglias, the Kareems, and the Whitings

Can't forget 'bout them sisters, ya know . . .
Yemisi D., Kamari, Kenesha, Nadra, Stephani, Fenisha, Jan Reed, Nicole Rousseau, Marilyn, Alecia Hampton, and if I forgot cha, you know who ya is!

Thanks to: Father George and Mom Dorothy for the inspiration and support. And Yemisi and Iyenkus who make life interesting. Love always.

Respect due to:
George Mitchell, Sr.
George Mitchell, Jr.
Mac McCarty
Foster
Betancourt
Roy
Jan Migaki
Sexton
Smith

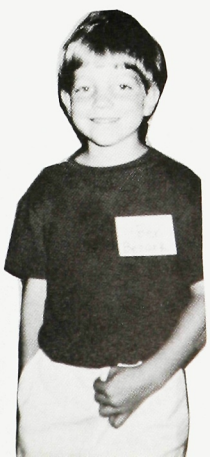

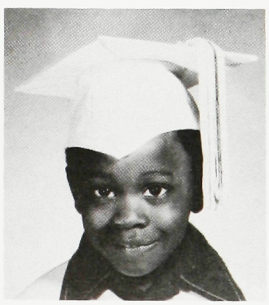

Me and Marley go way back.

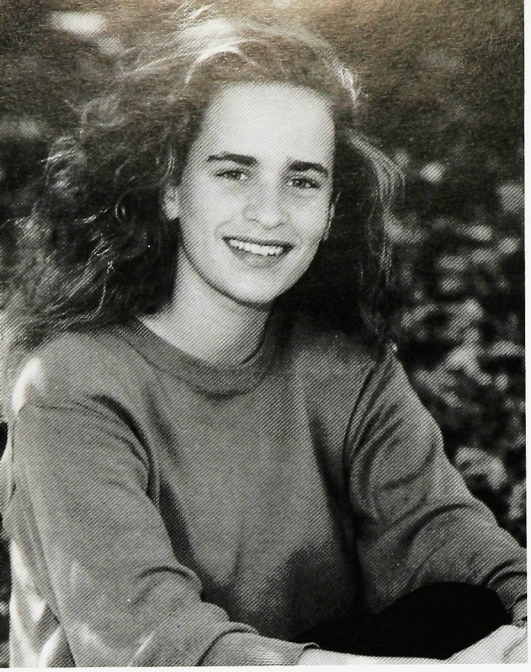

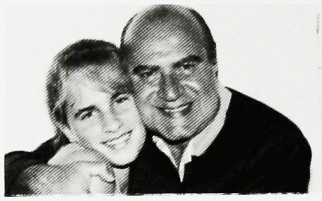

The T-Bone fan club. Wouldn't you like to be a member?

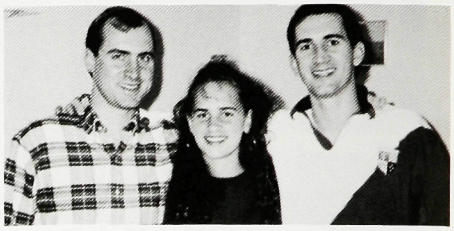

Gigi Simone Alexandra Therese Virgina Farah

The memories of the heart are the warmest embers

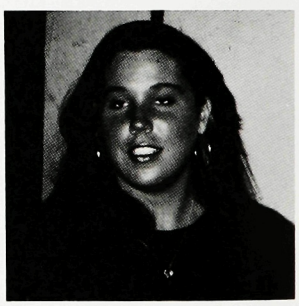

How high you go depends on how deeply you care

Faith whispers in the heart of every dreamer

The puzzle of Life has many pieces but only one solution. Love, alone,
. . . solves all riddles
. . . answers all questions
. . . silences all doubts

Catherine Carter Frank

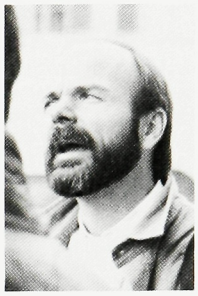

"Lend me the strong strength of the past and I will lend you the wings of the future, for I have them."—Robinson Jeffers

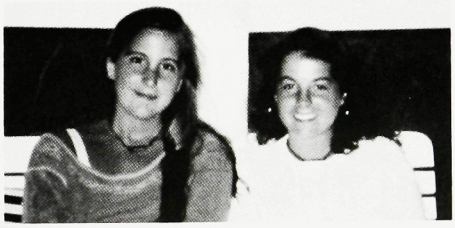

Thank you, I will never forget. Love always, Your girl.

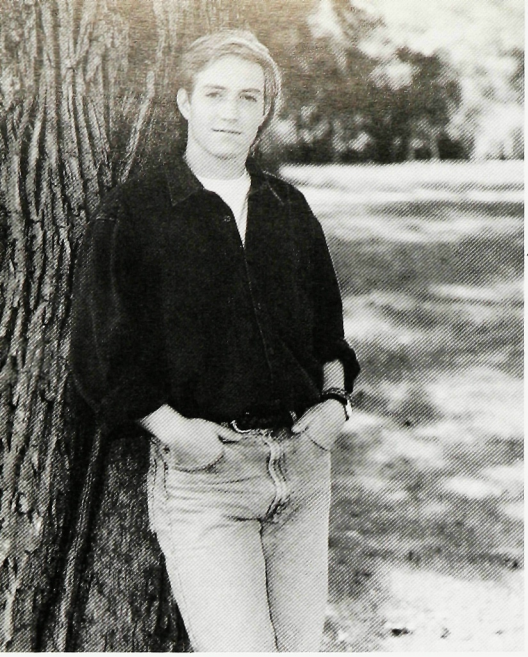

George Owen Gerst

This thing all things devours:
Birds, beasts, trees, flowers,
Gnaws iron, bites steel;
Grinds hard stones to meal;
Slays kings, ruins towns,
And beats high mountains down.

—The Hobbitt

Some people get old like sour mil and some get old like good wine.
—Sarki

Once upon a midnight dreary, while I pondered weak and weary,
Over many a quaint and curious volume of forgotten lore—
While I nodded nearly napping, suddenly there came a tapping,
As of someone gently rapping, rapping at my chamber door.
"Tis some visitor," I muttered, "tapping at my chamber door—
Only this and nothing more."—The Raven

Toupee/
Oriole
Gerst/—
Benjie

It's a triangle, it ju doesn't have ar sides.—Mrs. Foster

Chill, just chill.—Dan

Sure, Ma—we're normal

What's the matter with revenge, it's the perfect way to get even.
—Archie Bunker

Skopa—
Sandro

Gary, stop looking at me like that.—Scott

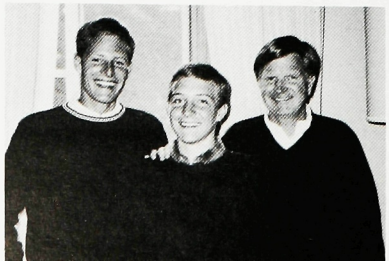

Oooowweeennn, I got a problem. I'm in the waaater.
—Andrew

Cogan, I'm playing with two controllers
—Matt S., but coined by the doctor

Robyn Beth Goldman

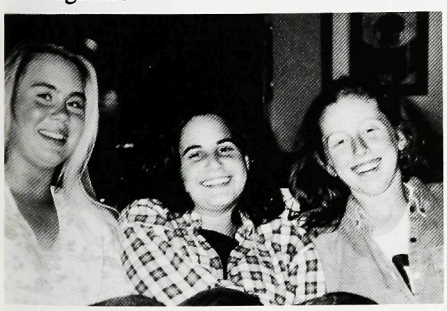

These are the days of miracle and wonder —Paul Simon

Mom, Dad, and GBG—thanks for always being there for me. I love you and I'll miss you next year.

She made me nervous. She made me breakfast. LIAR!!!
—Angeline

GUAM!!!

TOTALLY, BUT I LOVE CHINESE FOOD!

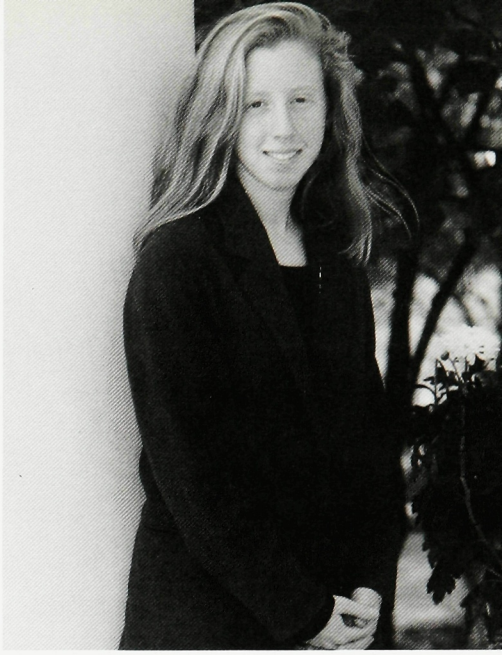

I feel a B+ coming on. The Bobbsey Twins unite!!

Akiko, tennis has been a blast—GO DOUBLES!!

Be yourself, no matter what they say.
—STING

Seasons change with the scenery, weaving time in a tapestry.
Won't you stop and remember me?
—S & G

To all my friends (you know who you are), thanks for always being there for me. I'll miss you so much next year!

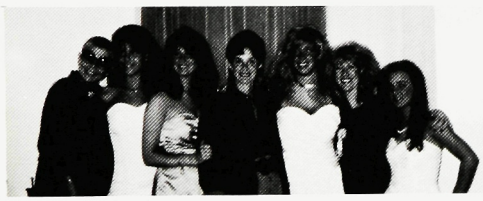

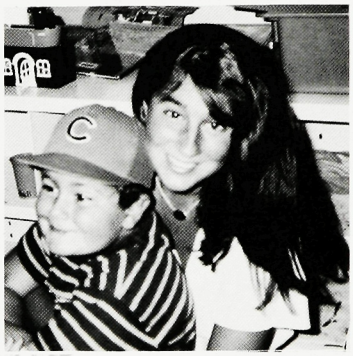

Emily Jane Gomberg

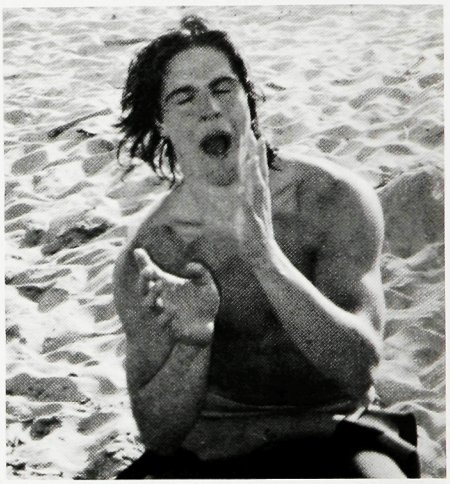

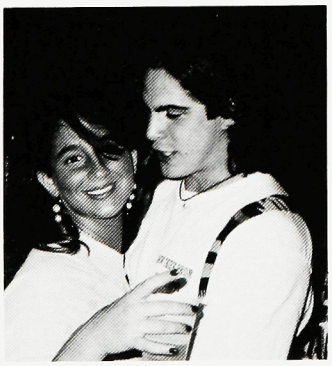

Gladys America Granados

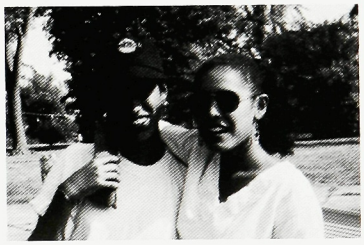

Yes, my middle name is America!/Glady/GladI/Gladbag/Gladiator/Happybutt/Basketball Camp in Champaign—"You got the right one baby!"/Prom '89 (T.L.)/Funny Firm/Minnesota with the chorus—"Hello, can I speak to Abdul?"/MEDUSA'S Late-night/The Exedus (Reggae) with Allanna/HOW OLD ARE YOU? 13?/Audrey BFF/Roxanne!/The Godfather movies/"You're so rude!"—Keeks/iDESEO SEXUAL!—a common theme in every Spanish Lit. book/Eric "my hair"/Albion Beach Parties/"What time is love?"—KLF/Thanks to all my friends!/"Look like the innocent flower, but be the serpent under it."—Lady Macbeth?

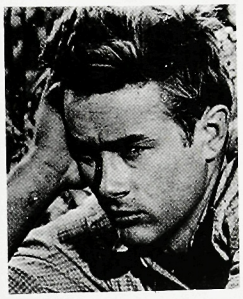

To my family, thanks for your love and support and occasionally driving me crazy.

"It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday . . . "
—Boyz to Men

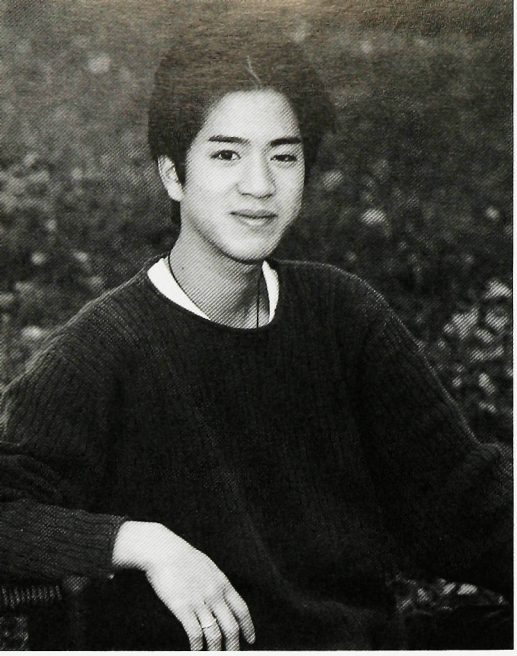

"They can never tear us apart!"—INXS

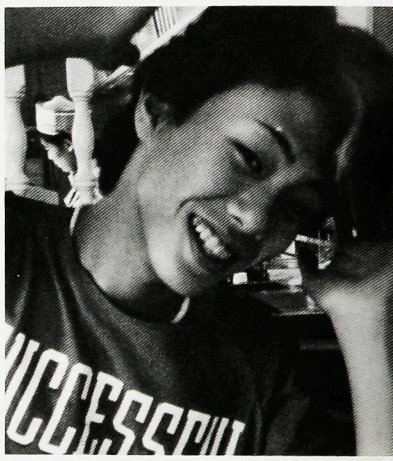

Hideaki Hosono

Yohji and Yhuichi

Masaki

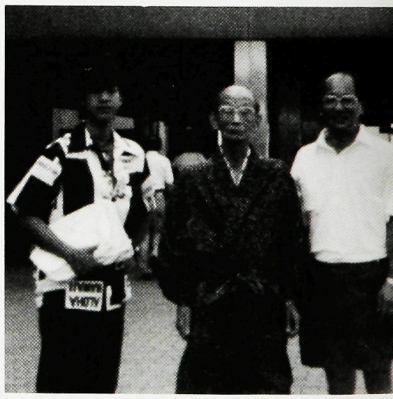

Misako and Hide

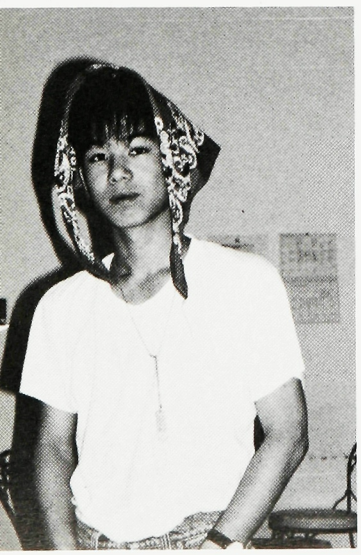

Misako

Mr. Hosono's

Yugo

Friends

Alexandra Levi

Thank you to my family and all my friends for helping through the years.

FRIENDS ARE FRIENDS FORVER—BFF: Courtney, Jill, Lisa, Maggie, Jessy, and Ange. Thanx, guys. Never forget the times we've shared.

Who's got the thermos?/First I drink, then I mooch.—me, Jessy, Maggie

Totally*Stoked*Juiced*Meesha*Not *Stelle's house freshman year*Volleyball*Basketball camp*Hickeys*Morgan Park Softball*Maggie's house*Yes*Big Bird*Bert*Beeker*Marine Biology*Lenny Kravitz*Don Henley*

M.P.*J.B.*C.B.*L.R.*A.B.*E.C.
*C.B.*R.G.*B.R.*O.G.*D.C.*M.S.
*A.J.*B.C.*C.F.*T.P.*G.F.
*B.J.*C.H.*K.W.*K.D.*K.C.*S.F.
*T.B.*B.G.S.S. G.J.*B.M.*G.L.
*H.S.*J.B.*D.F.*R.W.*E.G.
*T.C.W.*A.L.C.C.*C.J.
*W.G.*C.P.*B.dlF*C.P.*T.R.
*A.H.*L.M.*D.B.*A.McD.K.G.

My family is the best thing that could have ever happened to me (sorry Silvina and Freddy, I didn't have any pictures!)

Hunky Dory *Crystal Light *Moving *Romance dilemmas *Benj bear Do you need my inhaler? Did you do it, or did you forge it?

Seth Lawrence McCulloch

A special thanks and goodbye to: Michaela, Maciej, Robyn, Tavarian, Migaki, Jr., Béla, Fred, and Barry

"Sether, Seeth, Seether, Super-Seeth, McSeth, / 'Take my Seth away' "
—courtesy of T.C.

"Climbing—Dude—Seth"—Courtesy of Erwin

Don't say transmission or asbestos.

"Just keep laughin"
—Bozo the Clown

You have to be careful if you don't know where you're going, because you might not get there.

Maciej is thinking. Then again, maybe not

BYE NORTH SHORE!

Wheat Thins

"I like ho-ho's!"—MCM

Soccer – 1990

Raiders		Opponent
1	University High	9
0	Francis Parker	5
0	Elgin	6
0	Lake Forest Academy	7
1	Morgan Park Academy	8
0	Latin	8
0	Francis Parker	4
0	University High	6
0	Lake Forest Academy	9
8	Cathedral	2
1	Latin	7
1	Morgan Park Academy	1
	State Playoffs
0	New Trier	7

Season Record: 1-1-11

Danny Moskowitz

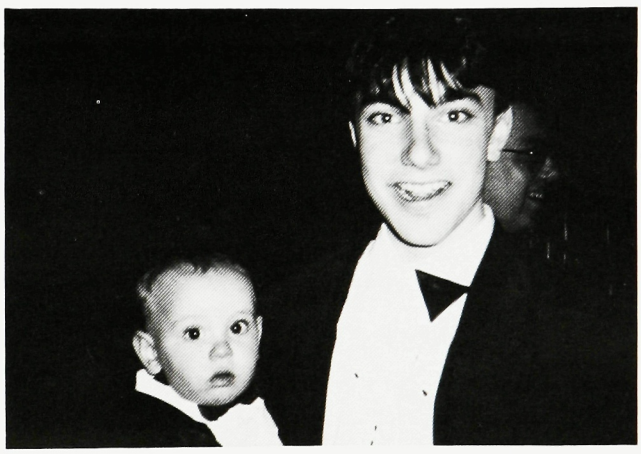

As I look back over my life
I am struck by postcards
Ruined Snapshots
Faded posters
Of a time, I can't recall

—Jim Morrison

Michaela Cotheal Murphy

Thanks and love to my family, both immediate and "extended"

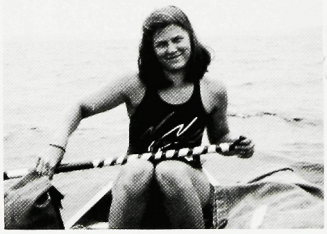

"Be yourself, no matter what they say"—Sting

SJL
Thanks for being there
TF's Always,
MCM

R-E-S-P-E-C-T!

Canada '90

"Think of me fondly, when we've said goodbye . . . "

"I like socks when it's cold and I like guys when I'm lonely."
—Kim C.

"It says here this morning they've got a new atom bomb that would wipe Chicago clean off the map . . . Here we've taken a million years to get where we are . . . Took a lot of time and sweat and trouble and now we've got it all one brick on another and what happens? BANG!"—Ray Bradbury

Wild Thing!

Clearwater Spirits Never Die—
Leaderships '91

"Where's my girl? Where's my birthday girl?"—Benjie

"Lisa, quick—she's laughing!"—Chorus '90-'91 (Yeah, DQ)

"Were you talking about me?—Benjie

"Ange . . . help!. . ."—FH '91

"The Bobbsey Twins have spoken again"—Mrs. French

"I feel a B+ coming on"

"Guaaam" —Robyn

"I don't know. Let's not try to know. Let's leave things as they are."
—Ionesco

"If you want to sing out, sing out"—Cat Stevens

"Der dogy sez 'woof' "
—Ian

GLADYS!!!

"Never underestimate a man's ability to underestimate a woman"
—VI Warshawski

"If this was a wagon train, I'd be hanging by a thread from the caboose."
—Tavarian on calculus

"Why in the world are we here?
Surely not to live in pain and fear!"—JL

"Meow"—Dad

And the seasons,
They go round and round. . .

MAGGIE KIMBERLY PEARL

Guns 'n' Roses from hell/First I drink, then I mooch/Dinger/Do you want my inhaler?/ 90210/Thief/Where's the thermos?/July 3rd/H.P. friends/Misery . . . you know what I mean/We need money/A very serious moment/I'm so stoke, juiced/N. Deer Park/ Croutons/Summer Al/Tom Petty/K-mart/ Here are all my friends . . . all three/Grateful Dead/Let's dance, Spanish opera, ballet/ Why don't we go to Biddy-Mulligan's/Matt/ I love you all.

"You never leave a place you love,
A part of it you take with you
Leaving a part of you behind"

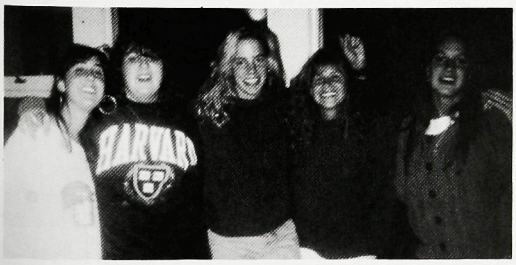

"Good friends are hard to come by, harder to leave, and impossible to forget."

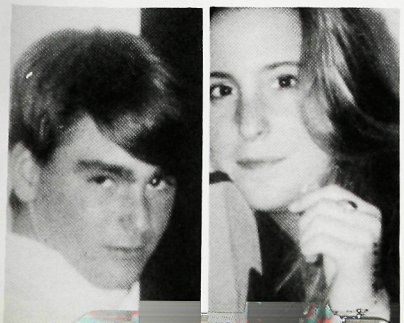

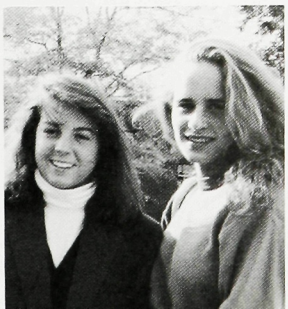

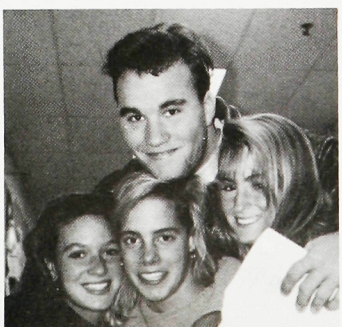

Thanks to all my family and friends who have always been there for me—I love you.

"Our memories of yesterday will last a life time. We'll take the best, forget the rest, and someday we'll find these are the best of times . . ."
—Styx

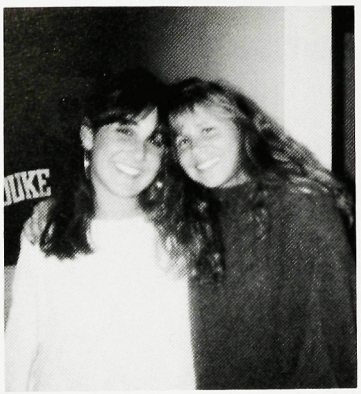

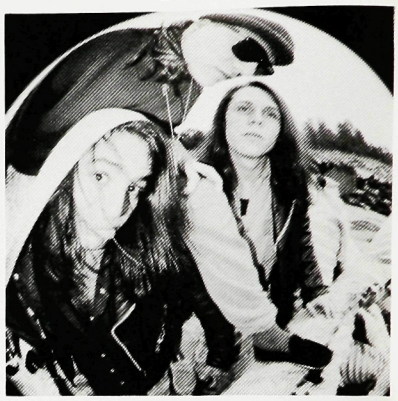

Casey Phillips

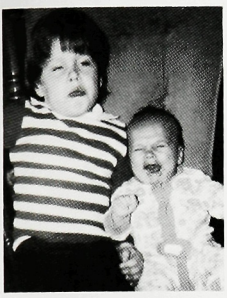

Tina I. Puschaver (Bean)

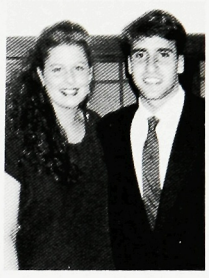

Goonie—goo-goo/Mirror Face/B-ball '90-'92/Cathedral/Greg opps Craig!/First instinct/Wala-Wala/CRAZY-CRAZY/Kiki/Prom '91 . . . What a weekend/Saturday Night Fever/Deee-Lite*/Summer Romance/Lake Geneva/Thanks for everything everyone, I love you all!!!!

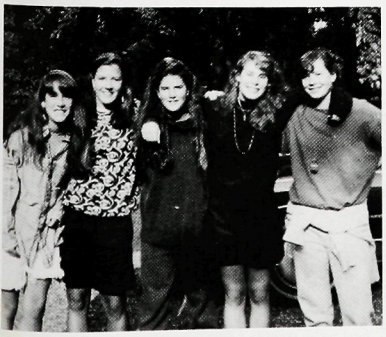

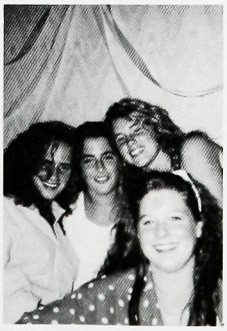

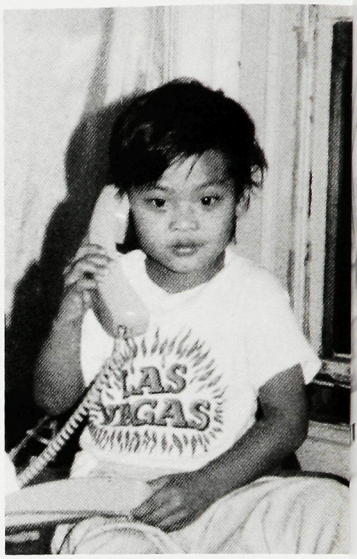

LeHa Quach

I love you always and forever

Never do to-day what you can put off till to-morrow—Punch

"For there is no friend like a sister
In calm or stormy weather;
To cheer one on the tedious way,
To fetch one if one goes astray,
To lift one if one totters down,
To strengthen whilst one stands."
—Christina Rossetti

"Life is a joke that's just begun."
—W.S. Gilbert

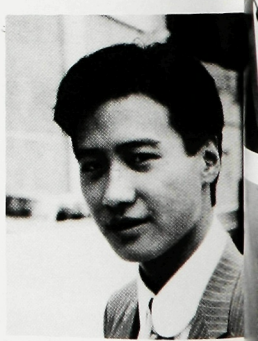

"I eat well, and I drink well, and I sleep well—but that's all."
—Thomas Morton

"Small is beautiful."—Professor E.F. Schumacher

"I saw and loved."
—Edward Gibbon

Bryan Emil Resendiz

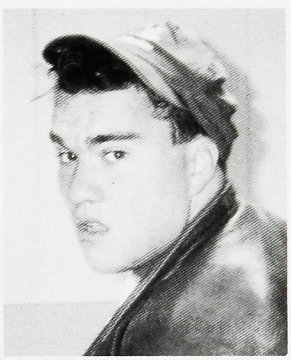

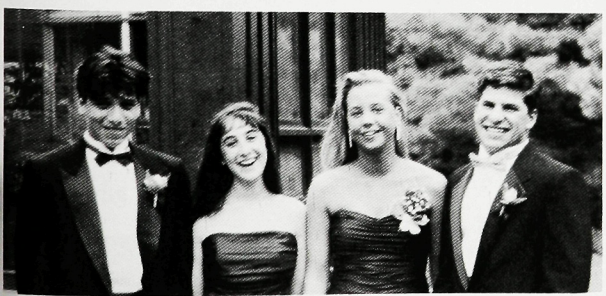

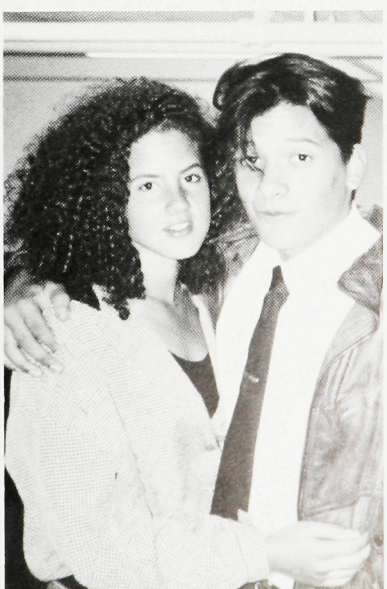

Victoria "Tory" Richardson

Love life,
Keep rockin'!

TINA * GIGI

Life's too short to be mature.—D.W.

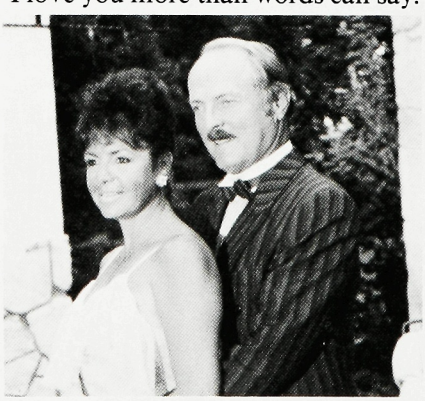

Each departed friend is a magnet that attracts us to the next world.
—Jean Paul Richter
I miss you, love always.

I love you more than words can say.

Just one of the guys

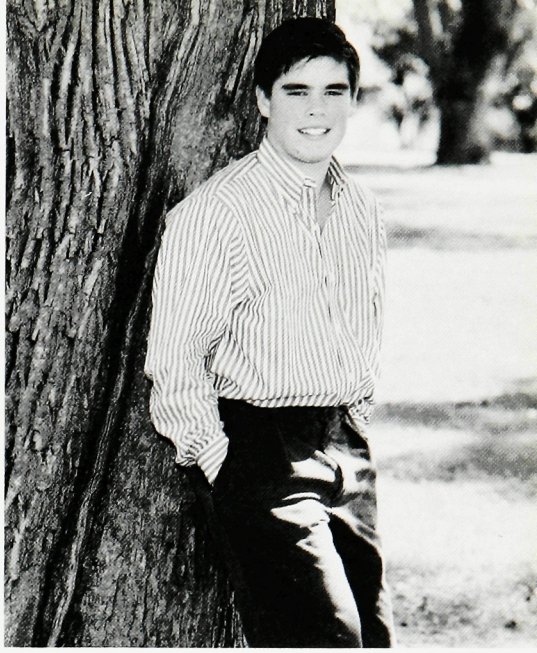

Matthew Smey

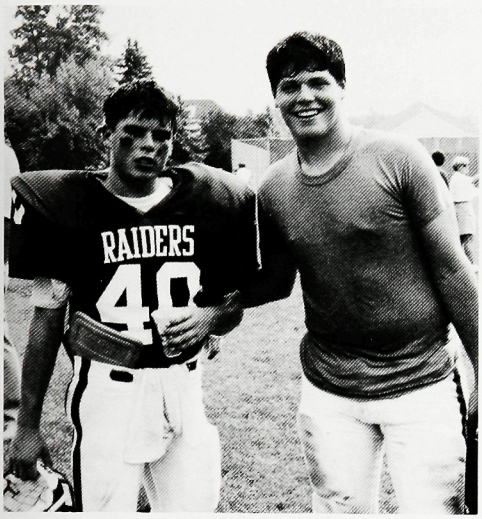

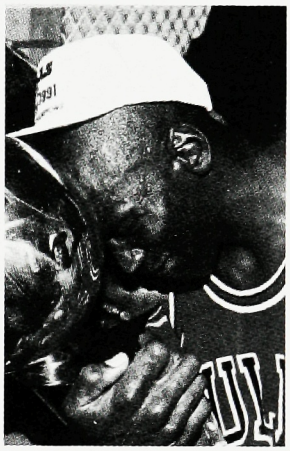

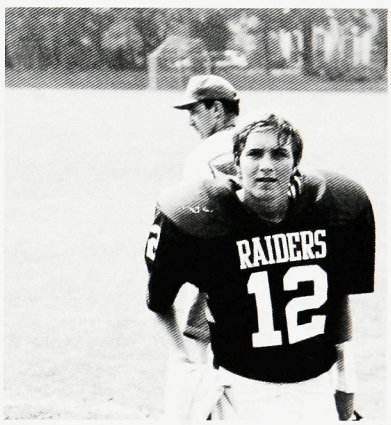

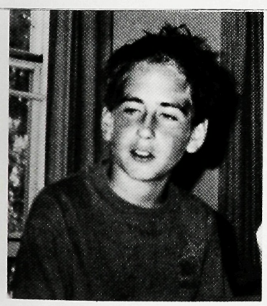

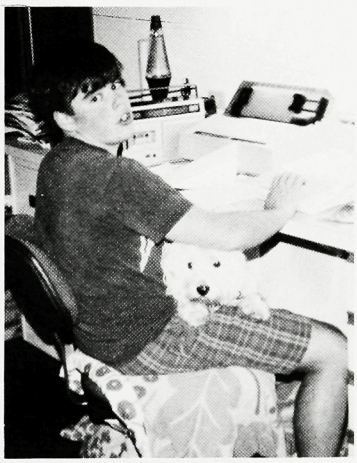

Cogan, I'm playing with two controllers

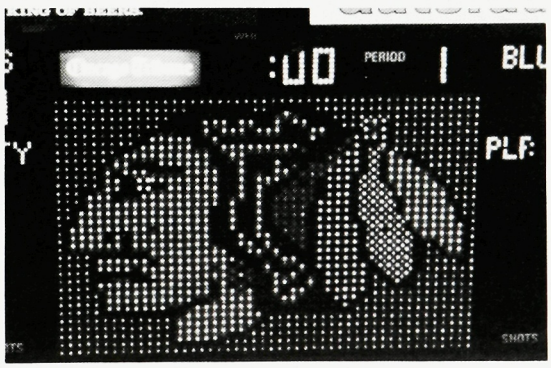

NO, NO, NO.—M.J.

Grab some bench. Yes!

BE LIKE MIKE. DRINK GATORADE.

Not in this HOUSE!

____you! I'm driving!

Just look at yourself

Nike, there is no exception

Way.—W.C.

Melissa Wemstrom

I am the poor white, fooled and pushed apart.
I am the Negro bearing slavery's scars.
I am the red man driven from the land.
I am the immigrant clutching the hope I seek—
And finding only the same old stupid plan
Of dog eat dog, of mighty crush the weak

O, let America be America again—
The land that never has been yet—
And yet must be—the land where everyone is free.
The land that's mine—
The poor man's, Indian's, Negro's, ME

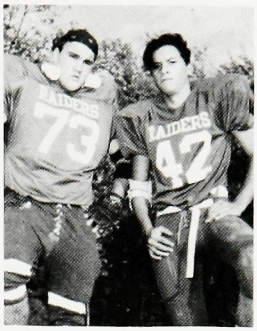

—by Langston Hughes

Theodore Constantine Mousakeotis Whiting

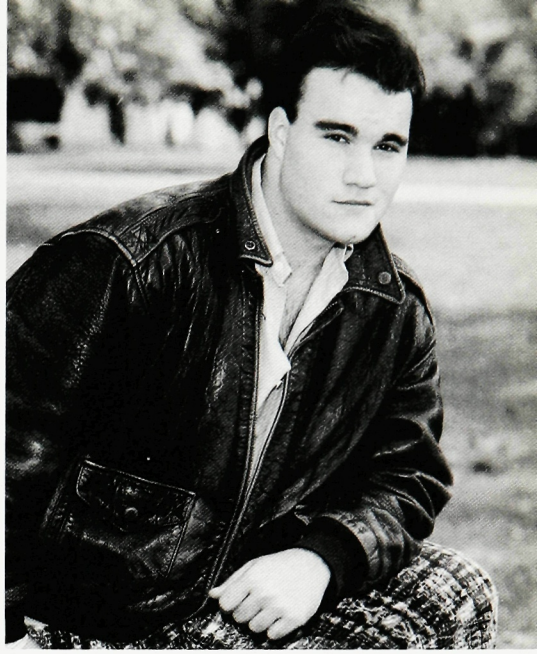

What happened?

Da' Boyz

"Don't you/forget about me . . ."—Simple Minds
"The Angels have waited for so long, now they have their wings"—SRV
"What did I do, What did I say to turn your angel eyes my way?"—Jeff Healy
"Let's go to bed . . ."—The Cure

"She's my pride 'n' joy"—SRV

Deubs (of the hill people)

You talkin' to me?

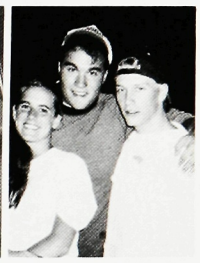

Summer Lovin'

Chaw-Vez

"Typical"

People are strange . . .

9-0 Celebration ('90)

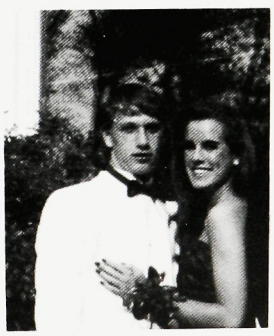

"Next, please . . ."

Krames—we miss you.

The Best of times . . .

Don Juan

M'hunnies

Blast off, Owen!

Love from Graham and the old folks at home

To the North Shore Faculty and Staff

The Woman's Board of NSCDS thanks you for your participation in Auction '92. Your support is greatly appreciated.

To the Class of '92

Your enthusiastic help during Auction '92 helped make it a big success. The Woman's Board of NSCDS thanks you and wishes you every success. We look forward to your attending our auctions in the future!

In memoriam, the Woman's Board pays tribute to the many volunteer years, accomplishments and gifts, to the North Shore Country Day School from two board members.

Vi Dormody 1960-1991

Betsy Flint 1976-1991

THEN..... AND NOW

MY, HOW YEARS HAVE FLOWN BY.

CONGRATULATIONS, DAN

MAY ALL YOUR DREAMS

COME TRUE.

LOVE,

MOM, DAD, AND TONY

Best Wishes

from,

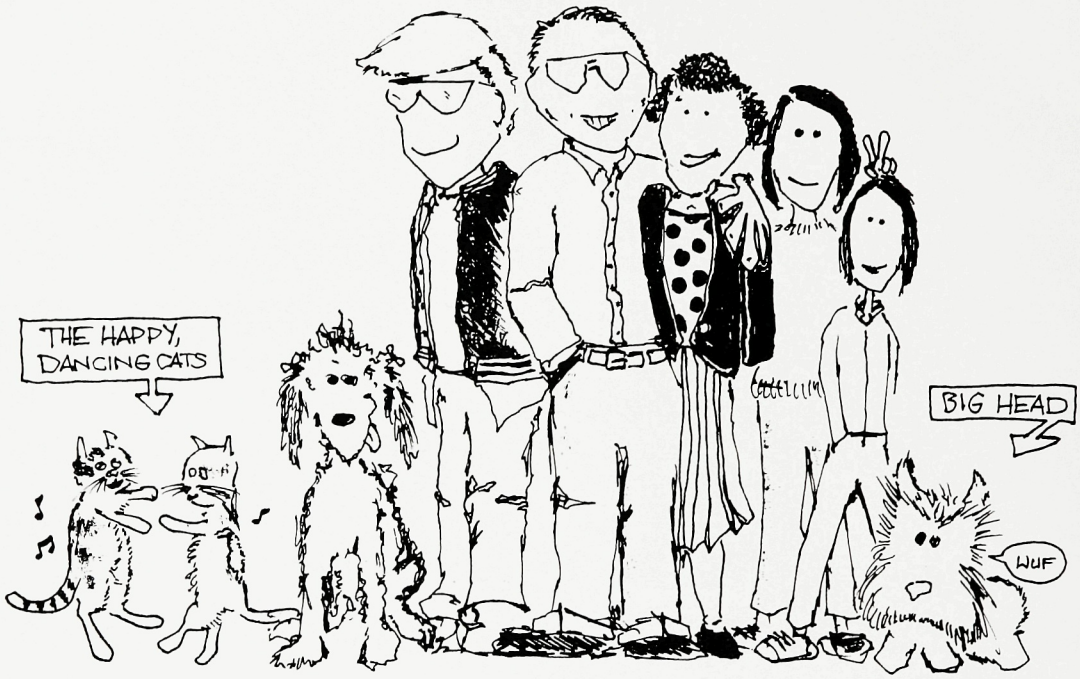

the Healys

Denis, Sondra, Denis John, Dina, and Carin

CONGRATULATIONS, MICHAELA!

. . .and best wishes for continued success.

We love you. . .

Dad and Karyn Ian Emily and Christy

****

Robyn:

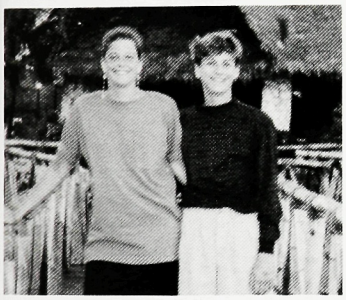

If we wrote something that you did not like, you would change it. So, we want to wish you great success at Hopkins and beyond. You had a great year and achieved much. We are all proud. Illinois, California, Minnesota, New Jersey, Florida and Michigan wish you the best. We love you!

—Mom, Dad, and Geoff

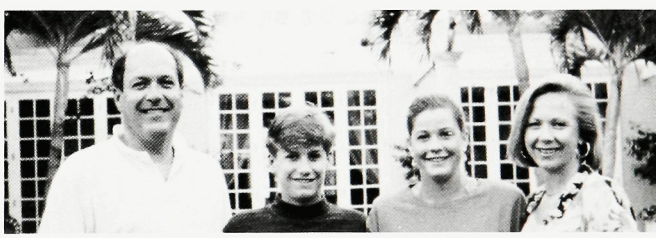

Congratulations, Tina! We have really shared some great times!
Love and good luck,
Mom, Dad, Tim, and Dusty

MAYBE NEXT

YEAR, HUH?

Memories . . .

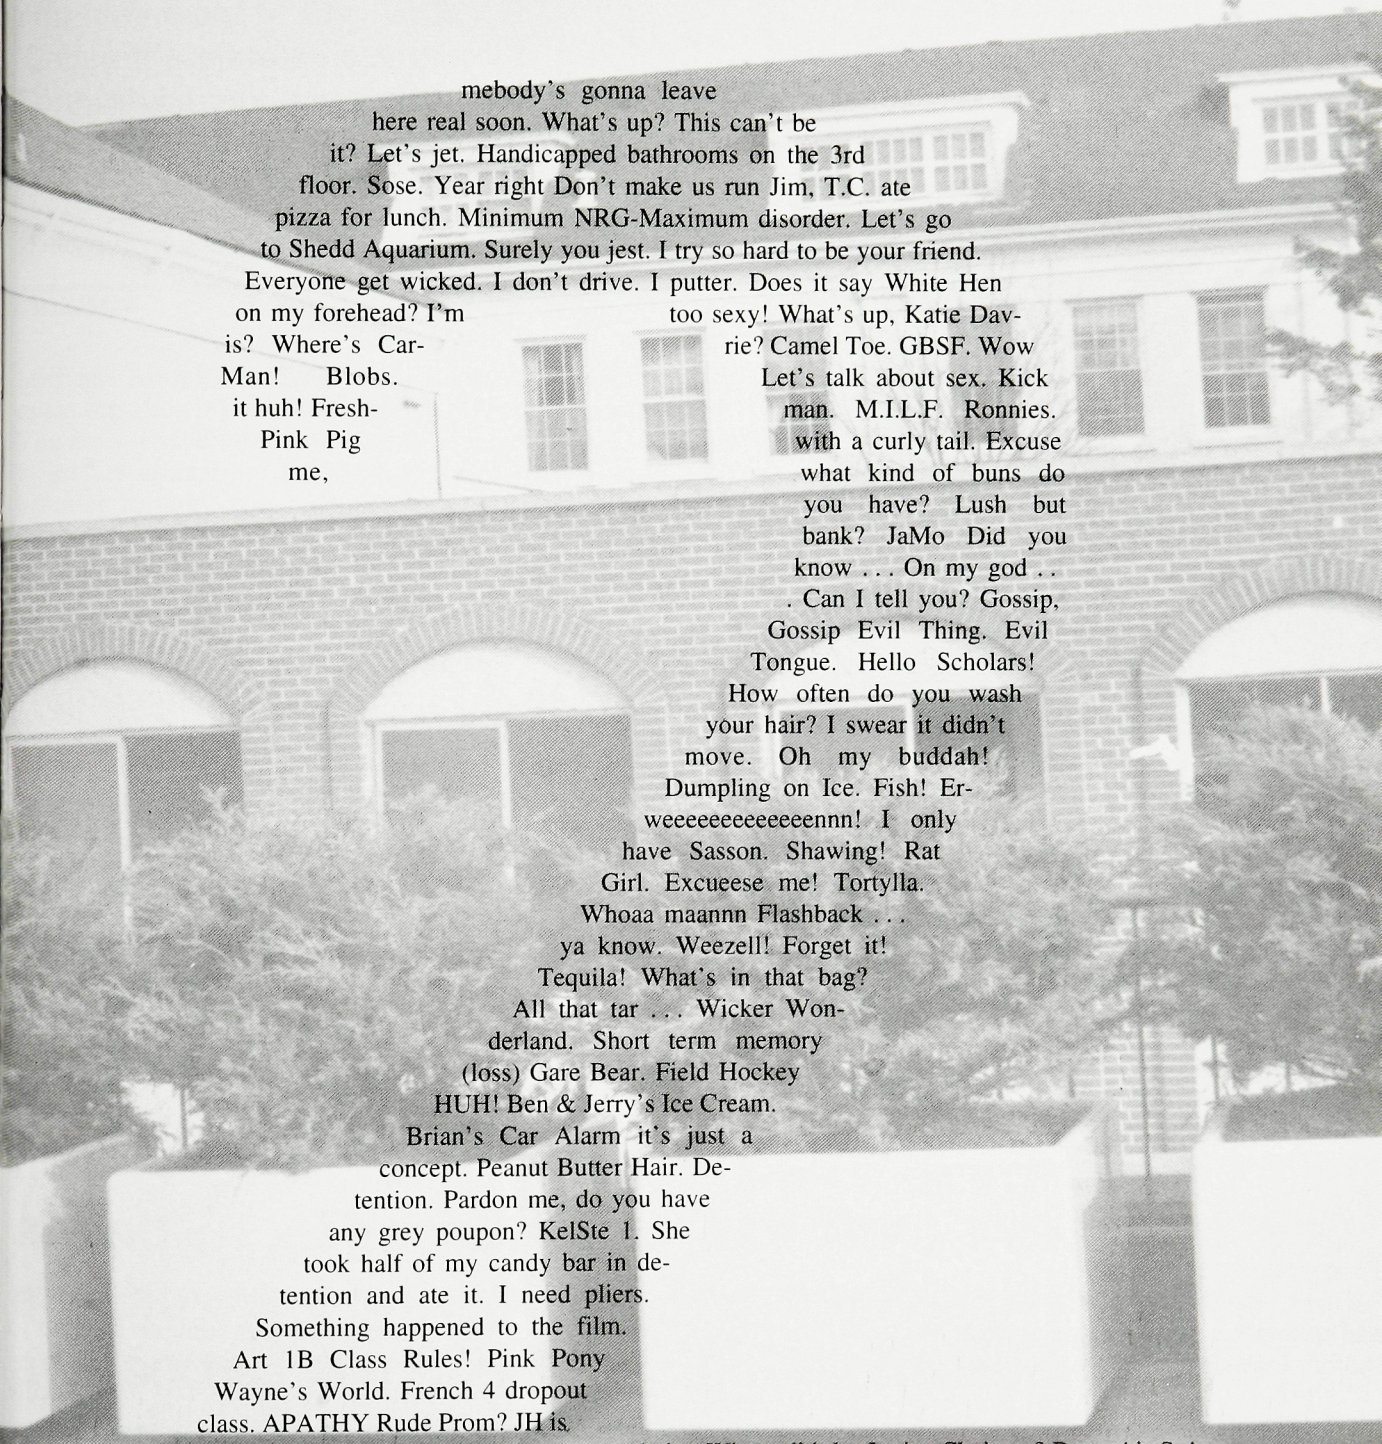

Memories . . .

People say you should be nice to others. Not. Schwing. I'm Comfortable numb. As if . . . it ran out of gas. Where would we be without our traditions? The man you hate you look more like him every day. Pchaw. G.L.G.B.N.A.F. Whatev. I've got the bubbles, where's the TUMS? XSqueeze me? Things that make you say HMMMM. Baking Powder? It's too loud turn it down. Somebody's gonna leave here real soon. What's up? This can't be it? Let's jet. Handicapped bathrooms on the 3rd floor. Sose. Year right Don't make us run Jim, T.C. ate pizza for lunch. Minimum NRG-Maximum disorder. Let's go to Shedd Aquarium. Surely you jest. I try so hard to be your friend. Everyone get wicked. I don't drive. I putter. Does it say White Hen on my forehead? I'm too sexy! What's up, Katie Davis? Where's Carrie? Camel Toe. GBSF. Wow Man! Blobs. Let's talk about sex. Kick it huh! Freshman. M.I.L.F. Ronnies. Pink Pig with a curly tail. Excuse me, what kind of buns do you have? Lush but bank? JaMo Did you know . . . On my god . . . Can I tell you? Gossip, Gossip Evil Thing. Evil Tongue. Hello Scholars! How often do you wash your hair? I swear it didn't move. Oh my buddah! Dumpling on Ice. Fish! Erweeeeeeeeeeeennn! I only have Sasson. Shawing! Rat Girl. Excueese me! Tortylla. Whoaa maannn Flashback . . . ya know. Weezell! Forget it! Tequila! What's in that bag? All that tar . . . Wicker Wonderland. Short term memory (loss) Gare Bear. Field Hockey HUH! Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream. Brian's Car Alarm it's just a concept. Peanut Butter Hair. Detention. Pardon me, do you have any grey pou- pon? KelSte 1. She took half of my candy bar in detention and ate it. I need pliers. Something happened to the film. Art 1B Class Rules! Pink Pony Wayne's World. French 4 dropout class. APATHY Rude Prom? JH is RC I'm feeling a little tight today. Lawn chairs. Where did the Junior Chair go? Party Air So! NOT CHA PAS Haircuts? Lay lie. Bashman. Oh my!

People say you should be nice to others. Not. Schwing. I'm Comfortable numb. As if . . . it ran out of gas. Where would we be without our traditions? The man you hate you look more like him every day. Pchaw. G.L.G.B.N.A.F. Whatev. I've got the bubbles, where's the TUMS? XSqueeze me? Things that make you say HMMMM. Baking Powder? It's too loud turn it down. Somebody's gonna leave here real soon. What's up? This can't be it? Let's jet. Handicapped bathrooms on the 3rd floor. Sose. Year right Don't make us run Jim, T.C. ate pizza for lunch. Minimum NRG-Maximum disorder. Let's go to Shedd Aquarium. Surely you jest. I try so hard to be your friend. Everyone get wicked. I don't drive. I putter. Does it say White Hen on my forehead? I'm too sexy! What's up, Katie Davis? Where's Carrie? Camel Toe. GBSF. Wow Man! Blobs. Let's talk about sex. Kick it huh! Fresh- man. M.I.L.F. Ronnies. Pink Pig with a curly tail. Excuse me, what kind of buns do you have? Lush but bank? JaMo Did you know . . . On my god . . . Can I tell you? Gossip, Gossip Evil Thing. Evil Tongue. Hello Scholars! How often do you wash your hair? I swear it didn't move. Oh my buddah! Dumpling on Ice. Fish! Erweeeeeeeeeeeennn! I only have Sasson. Shawing! Rat Girl. Excueese me! Tortylla. Whoaa maannn Flashback . . . ya know. Weezell! Forget it! Tequila! What's in that bag? All that tar . . . Wicker Wonderland. Short term memory (loss) Gare Bear. Field Hockey HUH! Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream. Brian's Car Alarm it's just a concept. Peanut Butter Hair. Detention. Pardon me, do you have any grey poupon? KelSte 1. She took half of my candy bar in detention and ate it. I need pliers. Something happened to the film. Art 1B Class Rules! Pink Pony Wayne's World. French 4 dropout class. APATHY Rude Prom? JH is RC I'm feeling a little tight today. Lawn chairs. Where did the Junior Chair go? Party Air So! NOT CHA PAS Haircuts? Lay lie. Bashman. Oh my!

People say you should be nice to others. Not Schwing. I'm Comfortable numb. As if . . . it ran out of gas. Where would we be without our traditions? The man you hate you look more like him every day. Pchaw. G.L.G.B.N.A.F. Whatev. I've got the bubbles, where's the TUMS? XSqueeze me? Things that make you say HMMMM. Baking Powder? It's too loud turn it down. Somebody's gonna leave here real soon. What's up? This an't be it? Let's jet. Handicapped

Well, after two years of this, all I can say is, I hope Kelli learns her apostrophe rules before next year. I'm not sure everyone has read every word that I've written in here, and if not, you'd better get started.

Benji, Kelli, Stef, I'll miss you next year, but not the work! Have a great time, and try to stay sane, okay?

And to everyone else (underclassman who didn't work on the yearbook and fellow seniors): thanks for everything. I'll miss everyone next year.

—Michaela

Even though this year has been a little hectic and tense at times, to say the least, I am very proud of the yearbook. I'd like to thank all of the people who put forth time and effort to make the yearbook possible. You all know who you are, and I appreciate your help very much.

—Carrie

Now that the last page is done, my fellow juniors and I, can rest easily until Mirror '93 is upon us. With all the stress, headaches, and various distractions, we've made something we all can be proud of. Thanks to everyone for putting up with my quirks and peculiarities. Thanks Michaela, for your various grammar lessons. Benjie and Stef, next year will be awesome!

—Kelli

To my peers on the staff,

Thank you for your ceaseless tolerance of my behavior (or lack thereof). The small amount of time we spent together was certainly a blast. Carrie, Robyn, Michaela, and Akiko, I'll miss you guys. Stef and Kelli, I'm looking forward to another eventful year under the stairs.

—Benjie

Working on the 1991-92 Mirror has certainly been an experience. (I think I will leave it at that.) I would like to thank everyone who helped out with the Mirror, especially, Amy Peters, Benjie, Mr. Almquist, Michaela, Kelli, Robyn, Carrie, and Nat. To an amazing next year!

—Stefanie

You may want to stay at NSCDS . . .
'Cause it's a jungle out there!!!
Congratulations and Good Luck to the Class of 1992.

—Danny Beider

Lisa—
We will miss you next year!
Love,
Ale, Estelle, Carrie, and Robyn

Michaela Murphy (MCM): Congratulations! It has been so much fun knowing you and working for you and your family. You are a wonderful person with so much to offer. Don't ever forget how special you are! I've enjoyed all your plays and also listening to your stories about NSCDS. I hope nothing but happiness awaits you in the future.

Love always,
Your housekeeper, Maria

AMY—
Next year will be a breeze!
Thanks for all your help!
Kelli and Stefanie

P.S. Kelli has to thank her parents for their monetary donation to the yearbook. Ok, go ahead . . . Thanks, Mom and Don. Next year you can buy a whole page! Thanks Benjie. You're awesome, we love you. To Michaela for her amazing copy. Kelli has very difficult (and large) shoes to fill next year. Finally, thanks to all the other wonderful people who have helped with the yearbook. Stefanie would also like to thank her Mom and Dad. Thanks again!

LIBERTY MORTGAGE & DEVELOPMENT COMPANY

COMMERCIAL

INDUSTRIAL

MULTIFAMILY

REAL ESTATE FINANCING

and

BUILD-TO-SUIT DEVELOPMENT

Alf G. McConnell
President

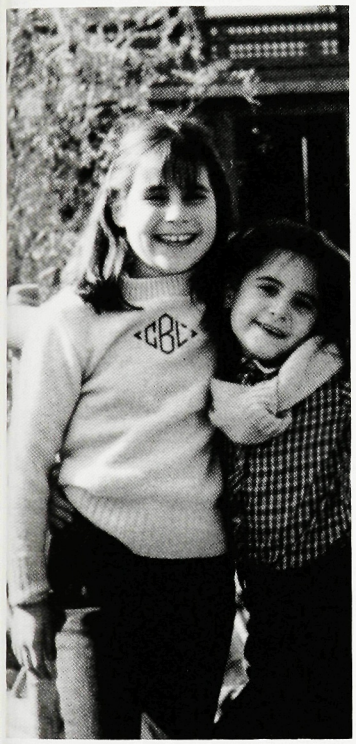

180 N. La Salle Street
Chicago, Illinois 60601

(312) 782-7878

"If the problem is clearly very important,
then time dwindles,
and all sorts of resources which have evolved to help you handle complex situations seem to fall into place, letting you solve problems you never dreamed you could solve."
Dr. Land of Polaroid Corporation

Dear Carrie,
We love watching you grow!
Congratulations! You make us proud.
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Candace

Waukegan Lincoln-Mercury

Waukegan Toyota

Waukegan Subaru

3400 Grand Avenue, Waukegan, IL

(20 minutes north of Willow Road on Edens/Route 41; then 1 mile east on Grand)

(708) 244-6655

See Bill Madison or Randy Peterson and mention
The North Shore Country Day School or Alf McConnell and get V.I.P. Service

"Make the most of yourself, for that is all there is of you."

Henry David Thoreau

